

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

M., January 31, 1894, for the purpose of electing an Assistant Bishop.

(Signed) FRANCIS M. WHITTLE,

BISHOP WHITTLE'S ADDRESS.

The Bishop then read his address, as follows:

MY DEAR BRETHREN:

At the time of our last Council in Winchester my health had so far improved that I confidently hoped to be able for some time to come to perform all the Episcopal duties of the Diocese, but this hope was soon disappointed. Continuing my visitations immediately after the adjournment of the Council, which had been commenced in the latter part of the winter, by the end of June my strength was exhausted and I was compelled to stop. After doing all I could to recruit my health, until the second week in September, I again resumed my visitations of the churches, but before completing my first list of appointments was obliged by great and constant suffering to give up all further effort and return home. Much of the time since I have been confined to my house, and although now better and able to attend to what I may call my office duties, I am still feeble and suffering, and my physician gives me no hope of ever being well enough to undergo the labor and fatigue of visiting the country churches. All this is well known to a number of my clerical brethren, with whom I have communicated freely on the subject, and they all insist that to meet the wants of the Diocese, there is no alternative but to elect an Assistant Bishop. It was further urged by one of these brethren that it would be best to call a Special Council for the election, and thus save nearly four months' time which would be lost by waiting until the annual Council in May. Not being willing to take the responsibility of asking for an assistant or of calling a Special Council, I conferred with the ministers of Richmond and, eleven being present, they unanimously advised and requested me to call this Council at this time and place to elect an Assistant Bishop.

I have thus, as briefly and plainly as I could, laid the whole case before you. It is for you to determine whether you will elect an assistant at this Council, or defer the matter until the next regular Council, or postpone it indefinitely. Provided you decide to proceed to elect an Assistant Bishop, I hereby signify my consent to such election—as required by Title I, Canon 19, of the Canons of the General Convention—and assign to the said Assistant Bishop, when duly elected and consecrated, all the duties of the Episcopal office which I am not able to perform myself. These include, at present, the visitation and oversight of all the country churches and some of those of the towns and cities.

Appointment and Report of the Finance Committee.

I have nothing to add except the earnest prayer that you may be blest with the presence and guidance of the Holy Spirit.

ELECTION OF ASSISTANT BISHOP.

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin then moved that the Council go into the election of an Assistant Bishop.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE APPOINTED.

Mr. Thomas Potts moved, as a substitute, that the Chair appoint a Finance Committee who shall report as soon as possible.

Carried.

The Bishop appointed the following Committee on Finance :

Mr. Joseph Bryan,
" Thomas Potts,

Judge T. R. B. Wright,
Mr. R. Powell Page.

The Rev. Dr. Newton moved the adoption of the Rules of Order of the last Council.

Adopted.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Joseph Bryan made the report of the Committee on Finance, which was that the Bishop of this Diocese should receive $3,000 salary, per year, and his residence, and that the Assistant Bishop should receive $3,000, without a residence.

The Rev. N. P. Dame moved to amend with the words " that the salary of the Bishop remain as it now is, i. e. $3,500 per year."

The Rev. H. B. Lee raised the point of order that this Council had no right to change the salary of the Bishop.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson, being called to the chair, decided the point of order well taken.

The amendment of Mr. Dame was then withdrawn.

Mr. Bryan asked permission to amend his report by inserting the following :

Report of the Finance Committee.

“That the salary of the Bishop remain unchanged until the consecration of the Assistant Bishop, and that the salary of the assistant begin at that time.”

Permission was granted, on motion of Mr. R. T. Scott.

Mr. Bryan then offered the following amended report, which was adopted:

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH,
RICHMOND, VA., JANUARY 31, 1894.

The committee to whom was referred the condition of the finances of the Diocese, with a view to determining the ability of the Diocese to sustain the Bishop and an Assistant Bishop in the event one should be elected by this Council, respectfully reports as follows :

We have fully considered the resources of the Diocese applicable to the salaries of the Bishop and Assistant Bishop and the general expenses of the Diocese, and, in our judgment, the Diocese will be able to pay the necessary general expenses substantially as heretofore.

We recommend that the salary of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop each be three thousand dollars. The Bishop to retain the Episcopal residence as at present. The Assistant Bishop's salary to be in lieu of any additional allowance for a residence.

These provisions to take effect upon the consecration of the Assistant Bishop, until which time the salary of the Bishop to remain as at present.

In making this report and recommendation we assume that the collection of the contingent fund will be as full as heretofore.

The committee would further state that they much desired to have provided a residence for the Assistant Bishop, and they feel sure that the Council will be glad to do so as soon as the collection of the contingent fund will be sufficient to justify it.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH BRYAN,
THOMAS POTTS,
E. B. ADDISON,
T. R. B. WRIGHT,
R. POWELL PAGE.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.

The Rev. Angus Crawford offered the following resolution which, on motion of Rev. R. A. Goodwin, was put to the House by the Secretary, and carried by a rising vote:

ST. JAMES' CHURCH, WEDNESDAY, 8:15 P. M.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment. Rt. Rev. John B. Newton, the Assistant Bishop, in the chair.

After Divine service, conducted by the Rector, the Rev. Dr. Powers read the report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

Report of Executive Committee of D. M. Society.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report :

That they have aided in the past year parishes in the following counties, viz: Albemarle, Caroline, Culpeper, Essex, Fairfax, Fauquier, Fluvanna, Frederick, Gloucester, Hanover, Henrico, King George, King and Queen, King William, Lancaster, Loudoun, Louisa, Madison, Mathews, Middlesex, New Kent, Northumberland, Orange, Rappahannock, Richmond, Shenandoah, Spotsylvania and Stafford—twenty-seven out of the thirty-eight counties of the Diocese. These parishes and parts of parishes have been served by twenty-six ministers, two of whom resigned in the course of the year, leaving only two vacant parishes in the Diocese, which will probably be filled the ensuing summer. In a few cases, as in New Kent and Spotsylvania, only a single church or chapel is served, and in several others the parish is ministered to by a clergyman living in a neighboring county, as Northumberland, by Rev. E. B. Burwell, of Lancaster county; Louisa, by Rev. E. Valentine Jones, of Albemarle, and Rev. J. R. Ellis, of Gordonsville; King and Queen, by Rev. A. C. Thomson, of Essex, and Middlesex, by Rev. J. H. Hundley, of Essex. It will be seen, therefore, that our work covers more than two-thirds of the area of the Diocese. The aid given has ranged from $100 to $300 to a parish or church, with the exception of $50 to St. George's Chapel, Spotsylvania; and the total amount paid out by the treasurer, according to his report, including the evangelist's salary and other incidental expenses, is about $6,827.64. We believe that our missionaries are all faithful men, working efficiently in their several fields of labor according to their ability and opportunity. While some changes take place from time to time within the Diocese, there seems to be little or no disposition on the part of the settled rectors to leave it. The exhibit which we have made above of more than two-thirds of the Diocese helped by us and needing help, shows the extent and importance of our work and the need of liberal support on the part of the people. We cannot do our present work with less than seven thousand dollars, and we ought to do more than we are now doing. Some stipends ought to be increased and some new fields ought to be occupied. The total amount of receipts since the Council of 1893, according to the treasurer's report, is $6,265.58. At this date the balance on hand is $3,455.44. A good balance to start with is necessary, because, while the receipts of the summer and early fall are always small, the payments go on all the time, and without a good balance to fall back upon our funds are exhausted and we are driven to the necessity of borrowing. The work of the evangelist, Rev. Everard Meade, has been so wise, faithful and efficient that we desire to continue his services. Not only are parishes likely to become vacant at any time, but there is so much missionary and other work needing to be done in the Diocese, which neither the Bishops nor the settled clergy can do, that we do not see how we can dispense with his services, and we believe that the result will amply justify his continuance. The following statement will show some of the work which needs to be done: There are nine counties in the Diocese which have no resident minister. There are fourteen counties with one resident minister in each county. In the county of Hanover one minister, Rev. S. S. Hepburn, has charge of six churches. In the counties of Lancaster and Northumberland one minister, Rev. E. B. Burwell, has charge of five churches, and nearly all our county parishes have three churches to be served. The services are therefore necessarily infrequent, and an evangelist or general missionary would be invaluable to give more frequent and sometimes continued services, as well as to afford relief to the overburdened rectors. Besides, the county of Greene has no Episcopal church, no services, and no Episcopal people except, perhaps, one or two. The county of Madison has one church and five communicants, with no increase for at least ten years. The county of Spotsylvania has no services outside of Fredericksburg, except at St. George's Chapel, a few miles from that city. The lower part of Caroline and the upper part of the adjoining county of King and Queen for a distance of probably fifty miles has no Episcopal church and no Episcopal service. So great is the need of missionary service that some convocations have been trying to raise a fund to support a convocation missionary. Besides there are always Deacons who need some one to administer the Holy Communion to their people, which the neighboring clergy are either unable or unwilling to do. We think, therefore, that an Evangelist or General Missionary is necessary to carry on and to extend the work of the church in the Diocese. We recognize the increased burdens of the Diocese, with its resources diminished, as they have been, by division and by the hardness of the times, but we believe that the Diocese of Virginia will, by the blessing of God, be equal to the emergency, as she always has been, and we thank God and the people and the children for the showing we are able to make in spite of all difficulties. But we urge Rectors and Superintendents of Sunday schools to keep up their collections for Diocesan Missions for at least another month. We remind all our missionaries that our Rules require them to take up a collection for the same object four times a year, and we suggest that the Sunday schools have at least one Missionary Sunday a month, when the collection shall be devoted to missionary objects, believing that the collections of the other Sundays will be sufficient to meet the proper expenses of the Sunday school, and reserving still the Lenten offerings for Diocesan Missions.

All which is respectfully submitted.

Secretary Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia.

MINISTER DECEASED.

Rev. George H. Norton, D. D., for some thirty-three years rector of St. Paul's Church, Alexandria, died suddenly at his home in that city, September 15th, 1893. in the seventieth year of his age. Ordained in 1846, he spent many of the first years of his ministry in Warrenton, Virginia, and removed from there to Columbus, Ohio, but in a very short time returned to his beloved Virginia (he was born in New York) as rector of St. Paul's Church, in which office he continued until his death. It is worthy of remark, that his rectorship in Alexandria and that of his predecessor, Rev. James T. Johnston, covered a period of between sixty and seventy years. Dr. Norton was too well known both in the Diocese and church at large to require any lengthened notice from me. I had known him intimately for nearly fifty years, and admired him greatly and loved him warmly. A man of humble, charitable and pure Christian character and life; remarkable for his reticence, prudence and discretion; of unusually clear and sound judgment, and possessing great ability as a preacher and speaker, he combined in an eminent degree the wisdom of the serpent and the harmlessness of the dove. For many years, and as long as his health permitted, he was a prominent and influential member of our Diocesan Council and General Convention, and to the last was one of the most valued trustees of our Theological Seminary and High School, in both which institutions, because of what he conceived to be their inestimable value to the church, he ever manifested the deepest interest. Very few of us ministers who were contemporaries of Dr. Norton remain, and when our time shall come to depart hence, may we all be found—as I am sure he was—waiting and watching and ready.

So far as we can judge from the foregoing report there is nothing discouraging, to say the least, in the condition of the Diocese during the past year, as compared with that of the year preceding. I fear that—no doubt as a consequence of the unprecedented business depression throughout the country—the contributions to our various benevolent and religious institutions will be found to have fallen below the average of years past. I am sorry to know that this is true of our Diocesan Missionary Society, upon which the very life of our church may almost be said to depend. I feel that I can hardly exaggerate its importance, or the necessity for our people to contribute to its funds to the extent of their ability. The children have done nobly with their Lenten offerings, and I heartily thank them, but must earnestly exhort them and their parents and teachers not to become weary in well doing, having God's promise that in due season we shall reap if we faint not. While it is true that there are no new towns springing up or rapidly growing within the Diocese, it is also true that there yet remains much land to be possessed by our church, which is still practically unknown in large portions of a number of counties, and in one (the county of Greene) we have no services at all. If this general statement is not sufficient to show the urgent necessity for sustaining this Society then let every member and friend of our church reflect on the fact that of sixty-three white ministers engaged in parochial work, twenty-eight, or considerably more than one-third, are supported in part by the Society. This fact means that if the aid of the Missionary Society was withdrawn more than one-third of our ministers would be obliged to abandon their fields of labor, and more than one-third of the churches of the Diocese would be closed. The faithful services of these missionary pastors have been supplemented during the past year by the judicious and efficient labors of our evangelist or general missionary, Rev. E. Meade. The Executive Committee has most wisely and properly, in my judgment, decided to continue Mr. Meade in his office. Some persons may say that the consecration of Bishop Newton leaves no place for the evangelist. But their fields of labor are entirely different and distinct, and neither of them can fill the place or do the work of the other. They will both find—each in his own sphere—that they have enough of labor and care and responsibility to fill their hands and hearts.

I have no suggestions to make or plans to propose in regard to the work of the Diocese. For a fuller view of its condition I must refer you to the reports of the clergy and of our various societies and institutions.

Several years ago I obtained from the State Legislature a charter incorporating the Bethany Institute, the object being to establish a home for the education and training of Deaconesses in our church. This is a work which I had and still have very much at heart, believing that the order of deaconess would be found to be more important and useful than that of deacon. But the matter does not seem to have impressed others as it has me. Of course, a large sum of money would be necessary to procure a building and start the work. But the treasurer, Mr. Rosewell Page, reports only $64.29 received and on interest in the City Bank of Richmond up to January 1, 1894. However, we have made a beginning and I do not despair, but mention the subject hoping and praying that before long God will put it into the hearts of some of his people to whom he has entrusted the means, to swell the little bank deposit which I have mentioned to thousands, so that in this Diocese, as in other dioceses and in other churches, we may have our deaconesses and all the necessary equipment for preparing them for their work.

I would call attention to what follows, being part of a letter from the Secretary of the Prayer Book Distribution Society :

STOCKBRIDGE, MASS., April 10, 1894.

Right Rev. and Dear Sir :

Permit me to send to you herewith a copy of the resolutions which were adopted at a meeting of the Trustees of the Prayer Book Distribution Society, held at the Church Missions House, in New York, on Tuesday, March 13th:

Resolved, That the especial attention of the clergy and laity of the church be called to the fact that the publishers of the 32mo. edition of the Book of Common Prayer have reduced the price to fifteen cents a copy, thereby making it practicable for all congregations to provide themselves with the Revised Prayer Book, in accordance with the direction of the General Convention.

Resolved, That whereas the reduction of the cost of the Prayer Book to fifteen cents affords substantial encouragement to Prayer Book distribution, the clergy and laity be, and they are hereby, urged to adopt measures for putting the Prayer Book into the hands of all people who are strangers to it.

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to print the foregoing resolutions in the Church papers, and also to communicate them to the several Bishops, with the request that they will bring the subject to the attention of the people of their Diocese, and also have reports forwarded to the Secretary, on or before September 1st, of the statistics of Prayer Book Distribution in their Dioceses.

Very respectfully yours,

ARTHUR CAMENCE, Secretary.

Proposed Amendment to Canon XIV.

This Prayer Book Distribution Society was created by the last General Convention for the purpose of supplying everybody in the land with a copy of the Prayer Book. Of course, I would not compare any volume with the Book—the Bible—but our incomparable Prayer Book is so full of the words and truth of the Word of God, that I believe its distribution would do more good than the distribution of any other book in the world, next to the sacred Scriptures themselves. I wish we could form a branch of the Society and begin with the work of supplying with a copy of the Prayer Book every one in the Diocese who will receive it, and then extend our efforts to sending it throughout the whole country.

I conclude with the prayer that the Holy Spirit may direct and rule our hearts and give us a right judgment in all our deliberations, for the blessed Saviour's sake. Amen.

ELECTION OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

The election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese being next in order, the Rev. J. K. Mason nominated the following persons :

Rev. Joseph Packard, D. D.,	Mr. L. M. Blackford,

Bishop Whittle offered the following as an amendment to Canon XIV of the Diocese, and asked that it be referred to a committee:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CANON XIV.

Change the language of the last part of paragraph 3, beginning with the words, “four clerical and three lay delegates,” and make the last sentence read :

Proposed changes of the Constitution.

"The President of the Council shall appoint a committee to be composed of one clerical and two lay delegates, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the lay delegates, and who shall report the names of those entitled to seats to the Secretary, and of those claiming but not entitled to seats to the Council."

Rev. R. A. Goodwin presented the following:

Mr. Wm. C. Marshall,
" Jno. R. Zimmerman.

The Rev. B. M. Randolph offered the following as an amendment to the blank form of "Certificate of appointment of lay delegate to the Council," and asked that it be referred to the same committee:

[Return original to Secretary of Council and give duplicate to delegate attending.]

On motion, it was so referred.

delegate for each parish or church, chosen by the vestry thereof, who shall act until the following Easter Monday, and until their successors be chosen thereafter. Every parish or church having more than one officiating minister, canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many lay delegates as it has ministers, and in every case the delegate, or delegates, shall be communicants in the church.

On motion, it was so referred.

PROPOSED CHANGES OF THE CONSTITUTION.

The Rev. Dr. Kinloch Nelson read a letter from the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention in regard to proposed changes in the Constitution as agreed upon in the last General Convention (vide Journal 1892, pages 338, 118).

The alterations recommended provide that alterations in the Prayer Book shall require the endorsement of the actual majority of all the Bishops and not of a majority of those present.

The second proposed change (vide Journal 1892, pages 394, 395, 152) is in regard to the substitution of the words "Bishop Coadjutor" for the words "Assistant Bishop" wherever they occur in the Constitution.

Dr. Nelson presented the following :

Resolved,* That this letter be referred to a committee of two clergymen and one layman, who shall report to the next Council.

Carried.

The Bishop appointed the following as the committee:

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND HIGH SCHOOL.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary and High School beg leave to report as follows :

The number of students of the Seminary during the session has been—

Senior Class.....	17
Middle Class	16
Junior Class.....	12
Preparatory Class.....	11

Total.....	56

The Trustees would respectfully call the attention of the clergy to the resolution passed at the Council at Petersburg, and sanctioned again at Winchester, which asks for annual collection in each parish in behalf of the Endowment Fund. The sums thus given annually will materially increase, in time, the fund which is now far beneath the demands of the institution.

The abstract from the report of the Principal of the High School is hereto appended, and, with the reports of the Professors of the Seminary, attest the faithful work done at both institutions.

The Trustees cannot, in this their report, fail to express their sense of loss in the death of the Rev. George H. Norton, D. D., who for so many years met with them, and gave the help of his knowledge and wisdom.

Perfectly familiar with the whole history of the Seminary, he was an invaluable counsellor and the safest of guides.

It is not for us to speak here of his many virtues, of his sincere piety and high place in the Diocese and the Church at large, but, as his associates on the Board of Trustees, we beg leave to put on record this tribute to his long interest, great usefulness, far-seeing wisdom, and, what seemed to us, a judgment unfailingly accurate.

Respectfully submitted,

H. SUTER,

REPORT OF THE DEAN AND PROFESSOR OF THE ENGLISH BIBLE.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

As Dean, he would report that the present session has been a successful one ; that the attention of the students to their studies has been satisfactory, and we trust that God has been with us.

As Professor of the English Bible, he would report that he has pursued his usual course of instruction with the Middle and Senior Classes.

The Middle Class has studied the Psalms constantly, comparing the different versions, and referring to the Hebrew, the Septuagint, and the Vulgate.

The Senior Class has studied carefully the more difficult books of the Old Testament—Job, Ecclesiastes, Daniel, and Ezekiel.

Both classes have paid special attention to the authorship and age of the books studied. With the limited time at his disposal, he has endeavored to do all that he could in this important study.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOSEPH PACKARD.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submits the following report of the studies pursued in his classes during the current session :

 Reports of the Professors of the Seminary.

The Junior Class, for part of the session reciting once a week, have studied Chadbourne's Natural Theology, and have passed their examination on it.

The Middle Class, reciting five times a week, have studied Butler's Analogy and Knapp's Theology. The former they have finished with examination, and they are in review of the latter. To these have been added, during part of the session, recitations twice a week, as in connection with the issues of the day, Mead's Supernatural Revelation. Also, Essays on Systematic Divinity and exercises in the construction of sermons.

The Senior Class, with three recitations per week and the Wednesday evening exercise, have studied the Articles with Boulton, with reference to Burnet and Brown. They have also, in Natural Theology, studied "Hopkin's Outline Man," and Homiletics, in Dr. Broadus' book, with exercises.

I have also gone over with this class, the history of the Prayer-Book, as to its sources, material, as also its changes in the Church of England and in this country, using Dr. Butler's History, Canon Barry's Students' Prayer Book, and the more elaborate work of Blakeney, in the way of reference. Along with this, a course of lectures on Liturgics and one on Christian Ethics.

C. WALKER.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

They have also read with the Cambridge Commentary St. Luke, with exegetical essays on it. In the three years they have read the whole of the New Testament in Greek, excepting St. Mark and perhaps a portion of the Acts.

They have also studied Hooker's Ecclesiastical Polity and Butler's Protestant Episcopal Doctrine and Church Unity. They are now studying Meade on the Pastoral Office, and will study Bedell.

The Middle Class has read in Greek, with the same series of Commentaries and Beet on Romans, 1st and 2nd Corinthians, Galatians, and Hebrews. They are now reading Hebrews.

The Junior Class has read in Greek, with the same Commentaries, St. John and nearly all of St. Matthew, with parallel references to the other synoptics, and constant exegetical essays. They will also read 1st and 2nd Thessalonians.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF HEBREW, ORIENTAL LANGUAGES AND APOLOGETICS.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Senior Class has read critically in Hebrew selected from portions of all the Prophets, analyzing the several books and studying carefully the periods and events of their ministries. The study of Hebrew Syntax continued, and special attention given to the development of Messianic prophecy.

The Middle Class has read eighteen Psalms critically, also selected portions of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, and Job, in connection with introduction to the same, special attention being given to the principles of Hebrew Poetry and their application. It has also studied Harper's Syntax.

The Juniors have read in Hebrew portions of Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, and other Historical Books, mastering the elements of Hebrew Grammar and Accentuation, also the elements of Hebrew Syntax. The aim is to familiarize them with the entire range of Historical Hebrew, and for the final examination they are required to read it at sight. The Higher Criticism is thoroughly explained together with its most important application. The usual instruction in Apologetics is given supplemented by lectures.

Respectfully submitted,

A. CRAWFORD.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY AND CANON LAW.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Canon Law respectfully submits the following report :

The Senior Class has studied and been examined upon the first two volumes of Perry's History of the Church of England, which cover the period down to the silencing of Convocation in 1717, A. D. Upon the history after that date lectures have been delivered, and the class has been assigned as parallel reading the third volume of Perry, Ryle's Christian Leaders of the Last Century, Seeley's Later Evangelical Fathers, the Chapter on Methodism in Lecky's History of England in the Eighteenth Century, and Tullock's Religious Thought in Britain during the Nineteenth Century. The lectures are general discussions and criticisms of the successive phases of religious life, and are meant to be directive of investigation and private study. Each student is required to select for special study some one movement of the eighteenth or nineteenth century, as, for example, the Great Awakening of the Eighteenth Century, or the Evangelical Movement, or the Tractarian or Broad Church Movement, or some representative writer like Coleridge or Whately, or Arnold or Newman, or Robertson, or he may select the History of the Protestant Episcopal Church. In all cases the result of reading must be embodied in a satisfactory paper. The class is now studying the Canons of the General Church, and will be occupied with them and the concluding lectures on history until the close of the session, when there will be a general examination on the whole period since 1717. A. D.

The Middle Class has studied and been examined upon the two volumes of Smith's Students' Ecclesiastical History, and is, at present, studying Fisher's History of the Christian Church, the Reformation period. The Junior Class has read and been examined upon Smith's Old and New Testament Histories, and eight chapters of the Acts of the Apostles in Greek, which last have been used as a basis for the discussion of the constitution, doctrine, life and worship of the Apostolic Church. Essays are read by the class. The parallel reading assigned is the Apocrypha.

CARL ECKHARDT GRAMMER.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1894).

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.,

President of the Board of Trustees:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School I have the honor to make the following report:

The whole number of pupils entered this session is ninety—the maximum attendance being eighty-nine.

The session has been a singularly fortunate one. Besides at least average numbers in a time of widespread financial distress, and fewer losses than ever before, the general conduct of the boys has been highly satisfactory, and their health better than in any previous session.

Liggett Hall, the building here for commencement exercises, society celebrations, readings, lectures, addresses and other public occasions, formally accepted a year ago by the Trustees from Mrs. Laura C. Liggett, as a memorial of her husband, the late Hiram Shaw Liggett, of St. Louis, a former student of the school, has since been completed. Mrs. Liggett having entrusted to me the execution of her purpose and sent the $10,000 dedicated thereto, and the site having been chosen, under the sanction of the Executive Committee, I employed Mr. J. C. Neilson, architect, and Mr. Clinton Smith, builders, both of Baltimore—of whom I had formed favorable judgment when engaged in the improvement of the school buildings in 1891—and by them the hall was erected and furnished. It was inaugurated by a religious service the evening of Easter day, March 25th, with a sermon, the Rev. Prof. Carl E. Grammer, of the Theological Seminary, officiating. By universal consent, it is well adapted to the purpose for which intended, and a most valuable addition to the equipment of the school.

The same efforts as heretofore to throw about my charge the best safeguards and influences have been made during the past year. Mr. Walter DeForrest, of the Seminary Senior Class, has continued in charge of the Friday night devotional meeting, and the Rev. Prof. Kinloch Nelson has given us his usual monthly services and, to the boys especially, that excellent pastoral care, including extra offices during Lent, which he has so long afforded. To these gentlemen and to my able corps of assistants I am sincerely grateful.

We have had no confirmation thus far this session, but the number of communicants among the boys is thirty-seven.

Respectfully yours,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

THE LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

To the Board of Trustees

of the Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Library, during the past year, has been kept open regularly every day, Saturday excepted, for two hours each day, viz: From 1 o'clock P. M. to 2 o'clock, and from half-past 2 o'clock to half-past 3 o'clock P. M.

Ninety-eight volumes have been added to the Library by purchase, and a few volumes by donation. Special mention should be made of "an honorary copy" of the Prayer Book, handsomely bound in vellum, the margins beautifully engraved.

Respectfully submitted,

J. J. McELHINNEY, Librarian.

The Rev. J. K. Mason read the report of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, and moved that it be referred to the Committee on Widows' and Orphans' Fund. Carried.

REPORT OF THE WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

The Board of Managers of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund beg leave to report that the present invested fund of the Board is $12,477. The interest from this fund, together with the receipts from collections during the past year, was something over $1,800. Of this amount the Board distributed at its meeting on May 14, 1893, $1,735 among twelve families of deceased clergymen.

Election of Executive Committee of the D. M. Society.

At the meeting of the Board, May 31, 1893, it was determined to confine the contributions of the Board to the widows and minor children of deceased clergymen.

The Board would gratefully call attention to the increased contributions from the churches during the past year, in consequence of special collections taken by some of our brethren, in accordance with the suggestion made by the last Council.

We earnestly ask the clergy to do likewise during the coming year, that we may be enabled to meet the increasing demands upon us.

At the recent meeting of the Board, the Secretary having resigned his position as such, the Rev. John K. Mason, D. D., was unanimously chosen Secretary of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN B. NEWTON.

VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE,
STAUNTON, VA., May, 1894.

RT. REV. F. M. WHITTLE,

President of the Board of Trustees :

DEAR SIR : As Principal of the Diocesan School for girls, I wish to submit my report of the session, now near its close.

The entire number of pupils enrolled is ninety-five (95); the largest number at any one time ninety-one (91).

Our standard of scholarship continues high, and a fair proportion reach it. The general conduct is very good, and compares favorably with former years, while the general health of all has never been better.

Owing to the fact that a larger number of the pupils were communicants of the Church when entered, and several are much younger than we usually have with us, the confirmation class was small. Three were confirmed and one was baptized and united with the Presbyterian church. There is no abatement in the effort made to train these precious souls for a pure and holy womanhood, and results are encouraging.

The buildings and grounds are in good order, but each year the need of a hall is felt to be greater. The two last years earnest appeals have been made to the Board and Council, but not one step has been taken towards it. The Episcopal High School has had much more done for it than is asked for this school, so let me plead for immediate action. The value of this property has been greatly enhanced by the changes made in grade of street and the new enclosure, a handsome and substantial stone wall. May I not suggest the issuing of bonds, as was formerly done, or the borrowing on the property ten thousand dollars ($10,000)? This, with what could be raised by private subscription, would very soon accomplish the proposed addition. I have now on hand about $300, given by pupils and a few friends.

I append one of my circulars, prepared last spring for distribution, and hope some positive action upon this subject may be taken at the meeting of Council this year.

I am, very respectfully,

MRS. J. E. B. STUART.

On motion of Maj. John Page, it was referred to the Joint Committee of the Diocese of Virginia and Southern Virginia.

Mr. Joseph Bryan read the report of the Committee appointed to divide the funds between the Diocese of Virginia and the Diocese of Southern Virginia, which was adopted.

Report of Committee on Division of Church Funds.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIVISION OF CHURCH FUNDS.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia:

Your committee appointed at the last Council to carry out and effect the division of the Church funds between this Diocese and the Diocese of Southern Virginia, and to deliver on the part of this Diocese such funds and securities as the Diocese of Southern Virginia might be entitled to in the said division (Journal, page 49), beg leave to report as follows:

The Council of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, on June 7, 1893, appointed a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. W. W. Old, M. P. Burks, and N. T. Green, with full power to carry into effect on its behalf the division of said funds and property, upon the basis proposed by the committees appointed by the two Dioceses and approved by the Councils of both Dioceses at their Councils of 1893 (see Journal of Diocese of Virginia, pages 46-49; Journal of Diocese of Southern Virginia, pages 21-23).

On the 30th day of June, 1893, the two committees representing their respective Dioceses met in Richmond, Va., and with the reports of the treasurers of all the several funds, except the Bruce fund, before them, adopted a division of the following named funds—viz:

1. Of the Disabled Clergy Fund.
2. Of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.
3. Of the Episcopal Fund.
4. Of the Diocesan Missionary Fund.
5. Of the Brotherhood Fund.
6. Of the Contingent Fund and the Episcopal Residence.

The details of the division of these several funds are all given in the several statements hereto annexed, showing the division as adopted by the committees, how it has in fact been made, and to whom the moneys and securities making up the said several funds to which the Diocese of Southern Virginia was entitled have been paid or transferred.

The only instance in which the division as made by the committees were not, in fact, carried out literally, are as follows:

In the division of the Widows' and Orphans' fund the committee attempted to divide in kind one Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta railroad bond of $1,000, and one Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad bond of $1,000, by giving to each Diocese $500 of said bonds, at the market value mentioned in the statement. These bonds, being coupon bonds, could not be divided in kind, but the treasurer of the fund for the Diocese of Virginia made sale of them and divided the proceeds, as will be seen by reference to the statement showing the actual division of said fund.

And in the division of the Episcopal fund a $2,000 Alexandria corporation bond could not be divided so as to give the Diocese of Southern Virginia $1,900, as ordered by the committees, but that Diocese took the additional $100 of said bond, paying for it $75, the valuation fixed upon it in the division by the committees.

As a part of the contingent fund the Treasurer of the Diocese of Virginia held $5,000 Georgia Pacific railway second mortgage bonds, which, in the proposed reorganization of the Richmond and West Point Terminal properties, is to be converted into new Drexel, Morgan & Co. reorganization terminal properties at $125. We have arranged for the division of these so that the Diocese of Southern Virginia will receive $3,350 of these new securities when issued, and the Diocese of Virginia will receive $2,900.

The proportion to which the Diocese of Southern Virginia was entitled from the valuation of the Episcopal residence, $3,769 08, together with the interest thereon for seven months, $131.92, making $3,900, was paid to the Treasurer of that Diocese.

As the division of the several funds was not made until some time after the statements had been made by the committees, there appear many items of cash in the statements of the divisions as actually made which do not appear in the statements made by the committees, but the basis adopted by the Councils of the two Dioceses for the division, and upon which the committees acted, was preserved throughout.

The lot in Manchester, taken as a part of the Diocesan Missionary fund, stands in the name of Messrs. Joseph Bryan, Thomas Potts, and John L. Williams, trustees, who are ready to make such a deed as the Council of the Diocese of Southern Virginia may require; but the committee of that Diocese deemed it unnecessary themselves to take a deed for it, because it had been represented as desirable to sell it, and it was understood that in case of a sale of it, the trustees holding the legal title would convey it to the purchaser and account for the proceeds to the Diocesan Missionary Society. This lot was taken at the valuation of $454.25. It lies on the north side of Stockton street, in Manchester, Va., fronting forty (40) feet on that street, and running back one hundred and twenty (120) feet.

The Bruce Fund has not yet been divided, but it has been agreed between the representatives of the respective Dioceses that it shall be equally divided, and such division will be made by the Bishop of this Diocese, in whose hands the funds are, with all convenient speed.

THE "DIOCESE OF SOUTHERN VIRGINIA,"

By FORTESCUE WHITTLE, Treasurer.

Petersburg, Va., April 1, 1894.

Mr. Joseph Bryan read the report of the Trustees of the funds of the Diocese of Virginia, attached to which was a resolution.

REPORT OF THE INCORPORATED TRUSTEES.

The trustees of the funds of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia (incorporated) report that in accordance with the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved February 2, 1892, which will be found printed in the Journal of the Council for 1892, page 79, the trustees met on the 2d day of May, 1894, and organized, by the election of Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle as President, and Mr. F. H. McGuire as Secretary of the corporation.

A plan for the conduct of the business of the corporation was referred to a committee, who, at a subsequent meeting, made a report presenting a series of By-laws, Rules and Regulations for the government of the corporation.

The recommendations of this report were adopted in substance, and they provided—

1st. For a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer ; the duties of the latter offices being permitted to be discharged by one person.

2d. For the appointment of standing committees on Finance, the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, the Episcopal Fund, the Bruce Fund, and for such other committees as might be further provided for in the By-laws. The members of these committees and their respective chairmen to be appointed by the President.

3d. For two general meetings of the trustees each year—viz: the annual meeting on the second Wednesday of May, and a regular meeting on the second Wednesday of November, both to be held in Richmond, Va. Special meetings to be called at any time by the President, or by any five of the trustees, upon one week's notice.

4th. Vacancies in the trustees to be created by death, resignation, inability or refusal to act, or removal from the Diocese.

5th. The duties of the respective officers to be such as are usually discharged by such officers. The duties of the Secretary and Treasurer are detailed with particularity.

6th. All the stocks, bonds, or other evidence of debt which may be transferred to the corporation to be deposited in some safe deposit and trust company, in its care and custody, to be changed or removed only upon an order signed by the three members of the Finance Committee, countersigned by the Treasurer.

The interest dividends and all collections from the securities so deposited to be collected by the safe deposit and trust company, and placed to the credit of the Treasurer, who shall pay out all sums as directed by the Finance Committee. The Treasurer to give bond for the faithful discharge of his duties.

Report of the Incorporated Trustees.

7th. The Finance Committee to have charge of all the funds of the corporation, and to direct the Treasurer in all matters of collection and investment and of disbursement, except where otherwise provided. The other committees to have charge respectively of the disbursement of the annual receipts of their respective funds. Payments to be made by the Treasurer upon the order of the chairman of the committee.

Such, in brief, is the general plan for the management of the funds of the church.

It is expected that the committees will interest themselves in securing contributions to their respective funds—a separate account being kept for each, not only of what is now on hand, but of what may be hereafter contributed.

In order that the funds in the hands of the respective treasurers may be passed over to this corporation, the trustees recommend the adoption by the Council of a resolution authorizing and directing such transfer. A form of a resolution deemed adequate for this purpose is hereto appended.

The death of the Rev. C. J. Gibson, D. D., and of the Rev. T. G. Dashiell, D. D., and the removal from the Diocese and resignation of the Rev. J. B. Funsten, and the resignations of Col. Arthur Herbert and Mr. C. R. Hoof, all charter members of this corporation, have created vacancies which, under the terms of the charter, must be filled by election by the trustees from persons to be nominated by the Council. The act requires each vacancy to be filled by the selection of one of two or more persons nominated therefor by the Council. As there are three vacancies among the clerical trustees and two among the lay trustees, the trustees propose for nomination by the Council the following names of clergymen and laymen, not, however, affecting in any way the right of the Council to make any other nominations they may deem proper: Rt. Rev. J. B. Newton, Rev. J. K. Mason, Rev. L. R. Mason, Rev. Hartley Carmichael, Rev. R. A. Goodwin, Rev. Preston Nash, Rev. Angus Crawford, and Messrs. J. M. Taylor, James M. Ball, Thos. Potts, James N. Boyd, and L. M. Blackford.

The names presented by the trustees are mostly of persons residing in Richmond, as experience has shown the importance of having members of the committees of the several funds easily accessible to each other.

The resolution recommended for adoption by the Council is as follows:

Resolved by the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, That W. H. Palmer, Treasurer of the Disabled Clergy Fund; E. B. Addison, Treasurer of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund; L. M. Blackford and Julian T. Burke, Trustees of the Episcopal Fund; J. T. Gray, Treasurer of the Contingent Fund; and Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, Treasurer of the Bruce Fund, all of the Diocese of Virginia, be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to transfer and deliver all the stocks, bonds, notes, or other evidences of debt and cash in their possession, respectively, to the Report of the Treasurer of the Brotherhood.

Trustees of the Funds of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, or to such person or company as they may direct, and the receipt of such trustees, or their duly authorized officer or agent, shall be a full acquittance of said treasurers respectively.

Respectfully submitted,

May 16, 1894.

F. H. MCGUIRE.

Sunday-school scholars confirmed only.....	154

While we have not been able in the brief time at our command to make any minute comparison between these figures and the figures of last year, the indications are that there have been considerable gains in this department of the church's work, except in the last item—the number of scholars confirmed.

Of the great importance of the Sunday-school in the Church's system there is no question among us. Nor is there any need for your committee to point out how high a place the Sunday-school occupies among Christian activities. But, perhaps, it would not be out of place for us to offer a few general suggestions with regard to the Sunday-school and its work.

The first of these suggestions is, that the distinctive WORK of the Sunday-school is the bringing up of the children of the Church in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, to win their young hearts for Christ, to teach them to hate sin and to forsake it, and to walk in the ways of God all the days of their life. In one word, the peculiar work of the Sunday-school is to take the baptized children of the Church and to help them realize their profession, which is to be made like unto Christ and to do His work in the world; to fight manfully under His banner against sin, the world and the devil, and to continue Christ's faithful soldiers and servants.

There is danger, it seems to us, lest, in these days, this work may be obscured in the minds of both ministers and people by the increasing use of the Sunday-school as a money-raising agency. The constant and urgent appeals to the children to raise money for all sorts of Church work have, we are persuaded, already done injury in some cases. Let the children be taught to give regularly, systematically, cheerfully, above all, to give from the right motive, because it is Christian, it is in accordance with the will of Christ so to do. But do not ever let the children have ground to imagine that the Sunday-school is primarily a money-making organization, or worse still, that the Church cares for the Sunday-school chiefly for what it can get out of the little children; that it is a mine to be worked for the gold that is in it.

In the second place, we would like to emphasize the well-known fact that the POWER—the only power—by which this work is to be done successfully is the power of the Holy Spirit, not the peculiar gifts of the teacher, nor yet the peculiar excellence of some system or method of instruction.

This power will be manifested, under proper conditions, through the WORD OF GOD. Faith cometh by hearing that word, in the heart of the child, as well as in the heart of the adult. We would urge on rectors and teachers the importance, then, of instructing the children of the church in the plain words and teaching of Jesus wholly apart from any theories or opinions of men, even of the wisest and best of men. For it will ever remain true that the "seed is the word of God." Next to the plain word of God itself, we place, of course, the Church's Catechism as the truest and simplest compendium of the essential teaching of that word.

Again, we would insist that this work of teaching and training the church's children in Christian truth and in Christian living is not, as is so often said, the peculiar task of the minister. It is the CHURCH'S work. It is the task of the congregation as an organized body, including both minister and people, both head and members; and the people are just as responsible for it as the minister.

The minister and congregation are not two separate agencies, each having its own work and its own responsibilities, and working together at times for mere convenience' sake. They constitute together but one agency, and that of divine appointment. They are as closely related, as absolutely necessary to each other, as the two parts of a pair of shears. They constitute together a great spiritual battery. We look for the manifestation of the power chiefly at the poles, but we should look in vain did the cups or jars fail of their office.

Now God has so wrought minister and people together; he has placed them in a position of such absolute dependence on each other, that He will grant the Spirit's richest blessing on the minister's and teachers' efforts in the Sunday school or in any other department of the church's work, only in response to united, earnest, expectant prayers of the people.

In few words, then, your committee would urge on those who have charge of the Sunday school work, (1) that they see that the spiritual work of the Sunday school be kept constantly in view; (2) that they depend upon and pray and look for the Holy Spirit as the power by which this work is to be done; (3) that the pure word of God be ever regarded as the channel through which the Holy Spirit will operate upon the hearts of the children, and all "systems of instruction" are of value only as they teach the sacred Scriptures; and (4) that the people be taught that the Sunday school work is their work; that those who teach in the school are the agents of the congregation, and urge upon the people that they all pray daily for God's richest blessing upon the labors of those who are engaged in the difficult and often thankless task of teaching the children of the church.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

From the sixty-five parishes and one hundred and twenty-six churches and chapels shown by the last Journal to be in the Diocese, only seventy-seven reports of church treasurers have been received. It is manifestly impracticable to base an accurate report, or deduce satisfactory results from such imperfect data. Only thirty-six churches report rectories, whilst it is well known to your committee that many other churches have rectories.

The following churches report having paid more to the rector than they promised: St. Margaret's Church, Caroline; Emmanuel Church, Fauquier; St. James', Louisa; St. Stephen's, Fauquier; Trinity, Prince William; St. Paul's, Prince William; Falls, Fairfax; St. Paul's, Hanover; All Saints, Goochland. Sixty churches reported having paid their rectors in full.

The following churches failed to pay their rectors the amount promised:

	Amount due.
St. Paul's, Albemarle.....	$10 00
St. Timothy, Fairfax.....	11 62
Church of Our Saviour, Fauquier.....	14 70
St. James the Less, Hanover.....	25 00
St. John's, Louisa.....	67 00
St. John's, Rappahannock	30 00
Acquia, Stafford.....	50 00

Very respectfully submitted,

B. O. JAMES, Chairman.

Reports of the Committees on the Brotherhood and Finance.

Maj. R. Taylor Scott, for the Committee on the Brotherhood, reported the sum of $341.33 had been paid to the heirs of the Rev. T. G. Dashiell, and that $1,510 95 had been paid to the Treasurer of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, leaving in his hands $1,497.45.

Mr. John F. Glenn, for the Board of Managers appointed at the session of the Council held in Winchester last year to take control of the affairs of the Brotherhood of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, reported that on investigation they found that the Brotherhood is a close corporation, chartered by the Legislature of the State, over which the Council has no control, and therefore they were unable to act under its resolution.

Mr. Joseph Bryan read the report of the Committee on Finance.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance report that they have examined the accounts of Mr. James T. Gray, Treasurer, and have found them well and accurately stated, and his disbursements sustained by proper vouchers.

They recommend that the Treasurer be directed to pay to the Rt. Rev. T. U. Dudley, D. D.; to the Rt. Rev. H. M. Jackson, D. D.; to the Rt. Rev. Ellison Capers, D. D., the expenses by them respectively incurred in attendance upon the consecration of the Rt. Rev. J. B. Newton.

Your committee desire to urge upon the Church at large in the Diocese the absolute necessity of the full payment of the quotas assessed on each parish for the general expenses of the Diocese, including the salaries of our Bishop and Assistant Bishop, in fixing whose salaries the special Council assumed that full payment would be made by the respective parishes when the necessity therefor should arise. That necessity has arisen. We have no margin now as heretofore between the assessments and our necessities.

The committee would therefore called the attention of the rectors and vestries to the fact that the Church does not lay an assessment of $1 on each communicant, but fixes the assessment upon the various parishes at the rate of $1 for each of its communicants, and that those who are able are expected and urged to contribute whatever may be necessary to pay the assessment upon their respective churches, that there may be no deficit.

In this connection your committee would report that from those churches which are now included in the present Diocese of Virginia there were reported for the year 1892, 8,774 white communicants, and the payments for the contingent fund that year amounted to $6,741; for 1893, 8,778 communicants and $6,513 paid—a falling off of $228.

 Report of Committee on the State of the Church.

Up to the time of this report the Treasurer has received from churches reporting 4,504 communicants only $3,352.73.

It is not thought that this depressing ratio of payments will be observed by those churches which have not yet reported or paid, as but very few of the city churches have been heard from. These facts emphasize the necessity of increase diligence in the collection and payment of the assessments.

The Treasurer will keep his accounts open until the 7th day of June for the receipt of the assessments, and all payments made before that day will be received and credited as if paid now.

We recommend that a special collection be taken up in those churches, where other methods fail, to obtain the sum necessary to meet the assessment.

We recommend that in addition to the salaries provided for the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop by the special Council in January, 1894, their travelling expenses be paid by the Treasurer.

We recommend that the sum of $25 be paid to the Assistant Secretary of this Council for his services.

We recommend that the sum of $15 be paid to the sexton of this church for his services during the Council.

The Rev. Dr. Campbell, of the Presbyterian church, then addressed the Council on the subject of the Bible Society's work in Virginia.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Council be tendered Dr. Campbell for his earnest address.

Rev. S. A. Wallis read the report of the Committee on the State of the Church.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church would respectfully report :

That with unfeigned thankfulness to Almighty God they have listened to the address of our revered Bishop, and the reports presented to this Council, which show the continued prosperity of our church in this Diocese, and pray that a larger increase of grace and spiritual gifts through the power of the Holy Ghost may be ours through the coming year.

We also give thanks for the measure of health and strength vouchsafed to our beloved Bishop, which has enabled him in part to fulfil again his ministry, which has been so blessed of God for more than a quarter of a century; and our fervent prayer is that he may long be spared to aid us by his ripened experience, Godly wisdom, and the benediction of his presence in our annual councils and parochial visitations. We assure him of our deep veneration, love and appreciation of his work over us in the Lord, and of our heartfelt sympathy in the bereavement which has taken from his side the partner of his life's joys and sorrows, praying that the God of all consolation may ever be with him and his.

In the election and consecration of our beloved brother, Rev. John B. Newton, to the Episcopate, we rejoice in the manifest evidence of the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Having made good proof of his ministry as an earnest preacher of the word, and faithful pastor of the flock, approved in all positions in which he has been called to serve, whether in this Diocese or the Councils of the general church, we have full confidence that he will worthily fill the higher office now committed to his trust, and with unswerving loyalty to the faith once delivered to the saints, and to the Book of Common Prayer, will jealously guard the sound doctrine, reverent usage, and the sacred traditions of the church in Virginia.

Passing now to what we feel to be the imperative needs of the hour, we would do our part in commending the great missionary work of the Diocese to this Council. We have the old parishes, especially in Tidewater Virginia, to nurture and support. Weak as many of them undoubtedly are, they are still alive, as is shown by the number of young men offering themselves from their bounds to the work of the ministry, and by the devotion of their people to the church of their fathers. Shall we fail them in the hour of their need? Ought not those portions of the Diocese to whom God has given more abundant prosperity help these old churches, around which so many historic associations gather, to keep their doors open until the returning tide of prosperity gives them the strength of former days. Then there are large areas of this Diocese where our church is yet unknown. In one county there have never been the stated services of the church, and in twenty three counties there are only fourteen ministers. You see that there remains much land to be possessed. The time is ripe. The old opposition to our church has passed away. As one of our ministers has declared, "In every country school-house we can gather a congregation." If we believe in the apostolicity of our church should we not labor by every means in our power to help our advance guards at missionary posts to hold their position, and to send out others for building up the spiritual wastes until they become as the garden of the Lord. We can do this if we will. There is enough money among our people belonging to the Lord as His required portion. May the Spirit dispose us to liberal offerings of the Lord's money, and enable us as a Diocese to rise up to the needs of the hour.

The Bishop has again earnestly commended the Bethany Institute for the training of deaconesses to the church in the Diocese. Like him, we believe this important institution will yet be established, but why not now? We know of young women who are compelled to go to institutions in other Dioceses who would gladly be trained in Virginia if this institute were an accomplished fact. As the work of deaconesses is more and more recognized in the church we will undoubtedly lose many of our best daughters in the coming years, or else if they return to us, there is danger that they will have received training and imbibed views at variance with the teachings of the prayer book and the usage of this church. We earnestly hope that the words of our Bishop may shortly bring forth fruit in the establishment of this institution for deaconesses on a sound basis, knowing what a blessing it will be to our Diocese.

The Woman's Auxiliary has witnessed a year of large development and increase in power and efficiency. While recognizing the material aid it has given to missionaries in this Diocese and elsewhere, we will call the attention of this Council to it as a great and unifying centre of work for the women of the church. Before its establishment bands of faithful women were working here and there, not realizing how much more effectual their labors would be if they were united in one common bond of interest, guided by leaders who know the needs of the wide mission field, and could direct the streams of benevolence for the Master's sake into wider channels of ministering service. So great has been the growth of the Auxiliary we believe only a few years will elapse before a branch is found actively working in every parish.

Among our various Macedonian calls none should be more heeded than that which comes from the colored race. We have been so interested in the division of the Diocese, in the missionary work among our white population, and in the development of the Women's Auxiliary that the question may be asked, have we not lost sight of Ethiopia in our midst blindly stretching forth her hands unto God? How little has been done by us for this people! Would not the few churches of our communion for this race in our Diocese be shut up if it were not for contributions from other Dioceses? Virginia was not unmindful of her duty to this race in the past. Ought she to let its cry rise unheeded now? It seems to us this people needs the scriptural, catechetical and liturgical training of our Church. We are responsible for giving it to them. To this end we think it would be well for the Council to show its interest in this work by recommending an offertory to be taken up in the churches of this Diocese for it, and providing a place for recording the amount of these contributions in our parochial reports. In addition, wherever possible, special services should be held by our clergy for colored people in country parishes, as well as in towns and cities, believing that God's blessing will attend our faithful efforts in this behalf.

Your committee cannot close without noting an improvement in church music in the Diocese. They respectfully suggest that rectors should avail themselves of the wealth of fine hymn tunes contained in the new musical editions of the hymn book, and of the great settings of the canticles by recognized ecclesiastical composers, thereby avoiding all light and inappropriate music in the service of the sanctuary. They also recommend that rectors should enlist in the musical service of the Church the aid of those members of the congregation who have vocal power and musical ability, thus making the common praise of God a voluntary service by His people in His holy temple.

In conclusion, your committee commend the beloved Church in this dear old Diocese to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and pray that by the influence of the Holy Spirit it may become, as years roll by, more and more a power for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ.

Report of D. F. Sprigg, Richmond.

My Dear Bishop,—I resigned the rectorship of Moore Memorial Church, Richmond, September 30, 1893. Since then I have occasionally officiated at the Soldiers' Home, at several churches in Richmond in the absence or illness of their rectors, and in St. Andrew's Church, Washington. But my main work consists in editing the Southern Churchman.

Very truly,

D. F. SPRIGG.

Virginia Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary,

Secretary's Report, 1894.

To Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D., President ex-officio :

In submitting the Fourth Annual Report of the work accomplished by the Virginia Branch since last May, the financial depression that faced the workers must be considered, and it is due the secretaries to state, in view of the seeming contrast to other years, that they are learning better how to make out their reports each year, only crediting their receipts from legitimate missionary contributions; so if there seems to be "diminished missionary giving," caused by hard times, through the lines may be seen the faith that undertook, and the glow of hopefulness and courage that sustained them through this crucial year; and while the figures do not come up to the standard of other years, yet this is counterbalanced by the increase of members and new Branches, with promise of good work the coming year, as the fruit that prayers and loving thoughts have borne from consecrated hearts and hands, offered to God and their fellow-men. The Branches have kept true to Auxiliary purposes, more time has been given to the intelligent study of missions, and, best of all, where gifts failed they have learned the power of "prayer for missions," which may be the meaning of the trial of the past year.

As we summarize the reports of twenty-three branches heard from, and five juniors, the condensed statement is stripped of the attractive detail that gives the Secretary enthusiasm in guiding her pen through dreary figures; for in these she sees the bands of women allied to the Auxiliary far separated, yet one with the great work of the Church. The character of the work has been much the same as in the past. Money and boxes have been sent North, South, East, West within our own borders, even to Alaska. For Domestic Missions, $580. The foreign gifts include China, Japan, Africa, and Brazil, and amounts to $915.66, while Diocesan, including Parochial Missions, have received $1,093.42.

Boxes have been sent to missionaries in our own and other Dioceses, while Alaska, the Dakotahs, Minnesota, Wyoming, Utah, and Texas have all shared these good gifts of well-made clothing and staple groceries, valued at $1,315.61. Total in boxes and money, $3,904.69. The Church Periodical Club has been organized in Virginia with Secretary and Librarian.

A "Junior Auxiliary," C. P. C., has been established in one Branch with twenty-six members, sending sixty periodicals and papers regularly. Let the Parish Branches register a steadfast intention to do God's and the Church's bidding the coming year, ever keeping their faces set towards the purpose for which their lives are consecrated, and they will accomplish great things, though times be hard and money gifts few; for prayer is the key that unlocks the treasure-house of our rich Father, "whose is the silver and the gold."

Respectfully submitted,

S. STUART, Secretary Virginia Branch.

REVISED CONSTITUTION
OF THE
IN THE DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA,

As adopted in 1836, and amended in 1840, 1850, 1860, 1864, 1867, 1872
1881 and 1890.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia on the third Wednesday in May every year; but the Council which meets in the year previous to the meeting of the General Convention may have power to appoint the time and place of meeting for the next annual session, and in the event of the existence of an epidemic disease, or any other good cause, rendering it necessary or expedient to alter the place fixed on for any meeting of the Council, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese may change the place, or the time, or both.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION I. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop (if there be one), and of the Ministers, except as hereinafter provided, who now are or may hereafter be canonically settled in Parishes or churches within this Diocese; Professors of the Theological Seminary of Virginia, Missionaries within this Diocese, and under its ecclesiastical authority, being Clergymen of this Church and canonically connected with this Diocese: Provided, that any such Ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions, shall be members ex officio: Provided further, that only such Colored Ministers shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this Article: Provided further, that no Minister under ecclesiastical censure or process shall be entitled to a seat in the Council, and no Minister shall be entitled to a seat unless he has been canonically connected with the Diocese for the six calendar months preceding.

SEC. 2. The Council shall also be composed of lay members, consisting of one delegate for each Parish or church entitled to representation, chosen by the Vestry thereof, except as hereinafter provided. Every such Parish or church having more than one officiating Minister canonically settled, shall be entitled to send as many lay delegates as it has Ministers, and in every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants in the Church: Provided, that only such colored delegates shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this Article.

SEC. 3. The Council shall also be composed of the Colored Ministers having a seat and voice in the Council on the 17th day of May, 1889, and of two clerical and two lay delegates from the Colored Missionary Jurisdiction of the Diocese, as the same is now or may hereafter be constituted by Canon.

ARTICLE III.

Twenty members of the clerical and twenty of the lay order shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE IV.

In all matters that shall come before Council, the clergy and laity shall deliberate in one body, and the concurrence of a majority shall give validity to any measure; but when five members require it there shall be a vote by orders, and a majority of each order shall be necessary to a decision.

ARTICLE V.

The election of a Bishop in this Diocese shall be made in Council in the following manner: The order of the clergy shall nominate and appoint by ballot some fit and qualified clergyman for that office, and the votes of a majority of that order shall be requisite to constitute a choice; and thereupon such appointment shall be presented to the order of the lay delegates, and be considered by them, and if on a ballot it shall appear that the person so nominated is approved by a majority of the lay order, he shall then be declared to be duly elected.

ARTICLE VI.

The Bishop shall be President of the Council, in which character it shall be his duty to give to the Council annually a general view of the state of the church; to call special Councils at whatever time and place he shall think necessary, or when required by the Standing Committee; to preserve order during the time of session; to put the question, collect the votes, and declare the decision; and he may deliver his sentiments on any subject after it has been discussed before a vote thereon. The Assistant Bishop, if there be one, shall preside in the Council in the absence of the Bishop.

ARTICLE VII.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopal Office, the Council, immediately upon their assembling, shall choose by joint ballot a President from among the order of Priests, who shall remain in office until the next annual Council, or until the next election of a President. He shall perform all duties, and possess all the privileges above specified; but he shall not call special meetings of the Council unless applied to for that purpose by a majority of the Standing Committee; and if the Bishop of the Diocese be not present at any meeting of the Council, they shall elect, in the manner aforesaid, a President pro tempore.

ARTICLE VIII.

A Secretary shall be appointed by the Council, who shall continue in office during good behavior. His duty shall be to make minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and to faithfully deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Constitution.

Council which may be in his possession. It shall be his duty to notify through the channel of the public papers, as he may think proper, the time and place for the meeting of the succeeding Council. The Secretary shall annex to the journal of every succeeding Council a list of the clergy, with all alterations therein produced in the preceding year by ordinations, deaths, removals, suspensions and degradations.

ARTICLE IX.

A Treasurer shall be appointed by the Council, who shall continue in office for one year, or until his successor shall be appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and keep safely all money and other property confided to his custody; and he shall disburse and dispose of the same as may be ordered by the Council. He shall annually report to the Council an account showing all money and other property received by him, and the manner in which he has disbursed or disposed of the same.

In case of a vacancy in the office by the death or resignation of the Treasurer, or in case of his misconduct, incapacity, refusal or failure to discharge the duties of his office during the recess of the Council, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese may fill the said vacancy, or remove the said Treasurer, and appoint a Treasurer pro tempore, who shall take into his custody all the money and other property, and all the books and papers belonging to the said office, and discharge the duties thereof until the election of a Treasurer by the Council.

ARTICLE X.

Each Annual Council shall elect by ballot a Standing Committee, consisting of six members, three clerical and three of the lay order, who shall be communicants of the Church in the Diocese, and who shall continue in office until their successors shall be appointed.

ARTICLE XI.

Every Parish within this Diocese shall be entitled to the entire benefit of this Constitution as soon as it shall have signified its ratification thereof, either in writing or by sending a lay delegate to the Constitution.

Council; and such Parish shall thereafter be benefited and be equally with the other Parishes in this Diocese by every rule and Canon which shall be framed by any Council acting under this Constitution for the government of this church in ecclesiastical concerns.

ARTICLE XII.

This Constitution shall be unalterable, except in the following manner: A proposition for any change shall be introduced in writing and considered in Council, and if approved of, the same shall be transmitted to the several vestries of the parishes which shall ratify this Constitution; and if again approved of in the next following Council by a majority, the change shall then take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

Canons.

CANONS

Adopted 1849, and amended in 1850, 1860, 1867, 1872, 1882, 1887, 1890 and 1894.

CANON I.

Of the trial of a Clergyman, not being a Bishop.

SECTION 1. The trial of a clergyman, not being a Bishop, shall be on a presentment in writing, specifying with reasonable clearness and certainty as to time, place and circumstance, the crime or misdemeanor, by violation of the canons or otherwise, charged; the said presentment to be made to the Bishop, either by the Council, or by the vestry of the Parish to which the accused belongs, or by any three presbyters of the Diocese, entitled to seats in the Council; the said vestry, or presbyters, pledging themselves to act as a committee of prosecution. If, however, the presentment be made by the Council, then the Council shall appoint the committee of prosecution and furnish them with such instructions as may be deemed necessary.

SEC. 2. Such presentment being made to the Bishop, and being accompanied by a further statement in writing of the names of the witnesses, and of the purport of their evidence, and by such documentary evidence as may be in their possession, the Bishop shall immediately proceed to the trial, according to the following provisions:

Canons.

He shall nominate from among the clergy entitled to seats in the Council, other than the members of the Standing Committee, eight presbyters, and cause a list of their names and a copy of the presentment to be furnished to the accused, or left at his place of residence. Of the eight presbyters nominated as aforesaid, the accused may choose five, or, in case of his refusal or neglect for twenty days so to do, the Bishop shall select five, and the presbyters so chosen shall constitute a court for the trial of the accused. The Bishop shall also, at the same time, cause at least thirty days' notice of the time and place of the trial to be given, both to the accused and to the parties presenting him, and also to the presbyters nominated as before provided.

SEC. 3. The court shall appoint a President and Secretary—the first always from their own body.

SEC. 4. If the accused appear before proceeding to trial, he shall be called on by the court to say whether he is guilty of the offence, or offences, charged against him, and on his neglect or refusal to answer, the plea of not guilty shall be entered for him, and the trial shall proceed: Provided, that for sufficient cause the court may adjourn, from time to time, and place to place: And provided also, that the accused shall, at all times during the trial, have liberty to be present, to produce his testimony, and to make his defense.

SEC. 5. On the request of the accused, or the committee of prosecution, witnesses may be summoned—if before the meeting of the court—by the Bishop; if during the session of the court then by its President. All testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation, administered by some officer authorized by law. In case the testimony of any witness—whose attendance on the trial cannot be obtained—is desired, it shall be lawful for either party, at any time after notice of the presentment is served on the accused, to apply to the court, if in session, or if not, to the Bishop, who shall thereupon appoint a commissioner to take the deposition of such witness; and such party so desiring to take the deposition shall give to the other party, or some one of them, reasonable notice of the time and place of taking the deposition, accompanying such notice with the interrogatories to be propounded to the witness; whereupon, it shall be lawful for the other party, within six days after such notice, to propound cross-interrogatories, and such interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, if any be propounded, shall be sent to the commissioner, who shall thereupon proceed to take the testimony of such witness, and transmit it under seal to the court. But no deposition shall be read at the trial unless the court have reasonable assurance that the attendance of the witness cannot be procured, or unless both parties shall consent that it may be read.

SEC. 6. The court having deliberately considered the evidence, shall, within ten days after closing the same, declare in a written judgment signed by them, or a majority of them, that the accused is guilty, or not guilty, of the charge or charges, or any of them, laid in the presentment, in the order therein set forth, and also, if guilty, what punishment shall be awarded, which judgment, with all the evidence received, shall be delivered forthwith to the Bishop; whereupon, unless the Bishop see cause to mitigate or remit the punishment, or to grant a new trial, he shall pronounce sentence according to the judgment of the court, and such sentence shall be final. In case a new trial is granted, a new court shall be constituted according to the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. 7. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear before the court, when summoned according to section second of this Canon, and no defence be there made under his authority, the court shall declare him to be in contumacy, and report the same to the Bishop, and sentence of suspension from the ministry shall pass against him for contumacy; but the said sentence shall be reversed by the Bishop, if—within three calendar months—the accused shall tender himself ready, and accordingly appear to take his trial on the presentment; but if he shall not so tender himself before the expiration of the said three months, the sentence of degradation from the ministry for contumacy shall forthwith be pronounced by the Bishop, who shall cause such sentence to be publicly read to the congregations of the Diocese by the respective ministers thereof.

SEC. 8. If at any time the accused shall confess himself guilty of the matters charged in the presentment, or any of them, the court shall proceed to award the punishment, and certify the same, as hereinbefore provided, to the Bishop, who shall, unless he see cause to remit or mitigate the punishment, pronounce the sentence according to the Canons.

SEC. 9. All notices and papers contemplated by this Canon may be served by a summoner, or summoners, appointed by the Bishop, or by the court when the same is in session, and the certificate of any such summoner shall be evidence of the due service of a notice or paper. The delivery of a written notice or paper to a party, or the leaving it at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 10. The accused party may have the privilege of appearing by counsel, in number not more than two, and, in case of the exercise of such privilege, but not otherwise, those presenting shall have the like privilege. If the party accused desire it, the trial shall be in public, and said party shall be entitled to a copy of the evidence if he require it.

SEC. 11. In case of a presentment occurring during a vacancy in the Episcopal Office, such presentment shall be made to the Standing Committee, who shall thereon take such steps as are by this Canon enjoined on the Bishop: Provided, that on receiving the proceedings and judgments of the court, they shall transmit the same to the Bishop of some other Diocese, who shall be requested, and is hereby authorized to act thereon, as if he were the Bishop of the Diocese, and, if he shall concur in opinion with the court, he shall proceed to pronounce sentence accordingly.

SEC. 12. The expenses of such trial, as also those of the investigating committee, preliminary to a presentment, shall be defrayed by the Treasurer out of the contingent fund by order of the Council.

CANON II.

Of the proceedings in the trial of a Layman, after expulsion by the Minister from the Holy Communion.

If any person repelled from the Holy Communion shall allege to the Bishop that injustice has been done, or if, notwithstanding he shall have professed himself ready and willing, in truth and sincerity, to comply with the requisitions expressed in the Rubric, in order to be restored to the Holy Communion, his repulsion shall be continued, he may present his complaint in writing to the Bishop, setting forth the grounds thereof, and desiring that he may be restored to the Communion, and then the Bishop, unless he think fit to restore the communicant from the insufficiency of the cause assigned by the minister, shall nominate two of the clergy and two of the laity, of whom the minister repelling shall select one of the clergymen, and the communicant one of the laymen; and it shall be the duty of the two thus chosen to take without delay the evidence in the case, under oath and in writing, of such witnesses as may be produced by either of the parties, and to certify the same to the Bishop, who, thereupon, unless for his own satisfaction, or for good cause shown by either of the parties interested, he shall desire further evidence, shall proceed to adjudge the case. If further evidence be required, it shall be obtained and certified, either by the same commission, or another appointed in the manner above prescribed, as the Bishop may direct. And when the evidence is thus procured, the Bishop shall adjudge the case, and shall communicate his judgment whenever made to the minister repelling, and to the communicant repelled, which judgment shall be final and conclusive: Provided, that in case his judgment shall direct a further continuance of the repulsion, it shall nevertheless be subject to all the conditions and provisions of the Rubric.

CANON III.

Of the transfer of Communicants from one Parish or Church to another.

Every communicant removing from one Parish or church to another within this Diocese, and desiring to be enrolled as a communicant thereof, shall present to the minister a certificate of regular standing from the minister, or, if there be no minister, from the vestry of the Parish or church from which the communicant desires to be transferred.

Canons.

CANON IV.

Ministers to be careful in admitting to Holy Communion.

No minister shall enroll any persons as communicants in the Parish or congregation under his charge until he has conversed with them on the subject, or unless he shall be satisfied that they have been regular communicants in some other Parish or congregation; nor shall he enroll any one who is known to deny the doctrines of the gospel as generally set forth in the authorized standards of the Church; nor shall he report to the Diocesan Council, as a communicant, any one who has not (without satisfactory reason) communed within the year immediately preceding the annual meeting of the Council.

CANON V.

Communicants to have Family Worship.

It shall be the duty of every communicant in this Church, who is at the head of a family, to live in the daily exercise of family worship.

CANON VI.

The members of this Church to instruct their Families in the principles of Religion.

The members of this Church shall instruct their families, as far as they are able, in the principles of the Christian religion. Parents and sponsors shall be careful to teach their children the solemnity and obligation of their baptismal vow, to cause them to attend the catechetical and other instructions of their minister; and, as soon as they are sufficiently instructed and impressed with the importance and sacredness of their baptismal promise, shall take care that they come to the Bishop to be confirmed by him.

Canons.

CANON VII.

Of the due celebration of Sunday.

All persons within this Church shall celebrate and keep the Lord's day, commonly called Sunday, in hearing the word of God read and taught, in private and public prayer, and in acts of charity, using all sober and godly conversation.

CANON VIII.

Election and Duties of Vestries and Wardens, &c.

SEC. 1. All persons who have attained the age of twenty-one years, have resided in the Parish in which they offer to vote for six months next preceding the election, and are communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church, or regular contributors to the charges of the Parish, shall be entitled to vote at the election of vestrymen for such Parish.

SEC. 2. The election of vestrymen shall be held on Easter Monday; or, in case no election be held on that day, on such other day as shall be designated in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The election shall be held at the Parish church, or some place of worship, if there be one; if not, at such other place within the Parish as shall be designated in the manner hereinafter provided. The voting shall be by ballot. The number of persons to be voted for by each elector shall not be less than three, nor more than twelve, and shall be fixed—where the election is the first in a new Parish—by the Council on its admission into the Diocese, or, before the election commences, by a majority of the qualified electors who shall have assembled to vote at such election; or, in case the election be in an organized Parish, the number to be voted for shall be the same that constituted the former vestry, unless such number be changed in like manner by a majority of the qualified electors so assembled. Only male persons shall be eligible to the office of vestryman; in other respects the qualifications of vestrymen shall be the same as those prescribed for voters. The persons chosen by a majority of the votes cast at such election, together with the minister in charge of the Parish, if there be one, shall constitute the vestry of the Parish, and they shall continue in office until their successors are elected, and qualify as hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 3. In case there be in a Parish congregations not exceeding four in number, apart from each other, but not constituting independent cures, a separate election shall be held for each congregation at its usual place of worship, or, if there be none, at such other place as shall be designated in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The qualified electors of such congregation shall, in the manner prescribed by this Canon, elect three persons, who shall be vestrymen of the Parish. The vestrymen chosen for such congregation shall, together with the minister in charge thereof, be the constituted authorities of such congregation, and shall manage and control the affairs of the same, so far as they pertain alone to the congregation, and not to the Parish at large. The vestrymen chosen by such congregations in the same Parish shall, together with the minister in charge thereof, be the constituted authorities of the Parish, as its vestry, and shall manage and control the affairs of the Parish, either in general meeting, a majority of the whole number of vestrymen in the Parish being present, or in case such meeting be impracticable, or in the opinion of the minister in charge too inconvenient, any matter concurred in by a majority of the vestrymen of the respective congregations, and duly recorded by the register of the Parish, shall be deemed to be the act of the vestry of the Parish. But in no event shall the aggregate number of such vestrymen exceed twelve.

SEC. 4. If there be no Parish church or place of regular worship for the Parish or congregation, as the case may be, the minister in charge of the same, or other person or persons named in the next succeeding section, shall have authority to appoint the place within the Parish at which such election shall be held. If such place of voting be so fixed before Easter Monday, the same notice of the time and place of election shall be required as in the next succeeding election.

SEC. 5. If no such election be held on Easter Monday, the same may be held on any day thereafter (except Sunday), to be fixed by the minister in charge, or, if there be none, by one of the wardens, or by two vestrymen, or, if there be none, by three members of the congregation. Of the time and place of such special election, due notice shall be given during the services held at the Parish church or place of worship on the two Sundays next preceding such special election; or in case no such services be held by posting copies of such notice for two weeks next preceding such special election at the front door of the Parish church or place of worship; or, in case there be none, at two or more public places in the Parish.

SEC. 6. The vestry shall appoint three persons, of whom not more than two members shall be of their own body, to act as judges to conduct and superintend such elections. In case no such judges be appointed, the members of the vestry present shall act as judges of election; and in case none of the vestry be present, or if present, fail to act, the electors may choose three of their number to act as such judges. The judges of election shall judge of the qualification of the voters, and of those elected as vestrymen.

SEC. 7. As soon as may be after such election, the persons chosen to act as vestrymen shall, at such time and place as the minister shall appoint, or as shall otherwise be designated, assemble and proceed to organize the vestry. The register and treasurer of the former vestry shall attend. The proceedings shall be opened with one or more collects and the Lord's prayer by the minister in charge, or in his absence by one of the wardens, or any other member who may be requested to preside over the meeting.

SEC. 8. Every person chosen a vestryman, shall, before he acts as such, subscribe the following declaration and promise: "I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and I do yield my hearty assent and approbation to the doctrines, worship and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church in these United States; and I promise that I will faithfully execute the office of vestryman of ——— Parish, or church, in ——— county, according to my best knowledge and skill." No person shall act or vote as vestryman until he has subscribed this declaration and promise.

SEC. 9. The vestry shall proceed to elect two wardens, a register and a treasurer, who shall continue in office until their successors are elected. The wardens must be communicants and members of the vestry.

SEC. 10. Vacancies occurring in the vestry shall be filled by a vote of the remaining members, and a majority of those who have qualified shall constitute a quorum. The rector shall preside at all meetings when present, and be entitled to give the casting vote in case of a tie, when he is not personally interested. All vestry meetings shall be subject to his call, and in case he fails, at the request of two vestrymen, to call a meeting, such vestrymen, if they deem it necessary, may themselves call a meeting.

Duties.

SEC. 1. It shall be the duty of the vestry to determine upon and elect a Rector ; to co-operate with him in gathering souls into the fold of Christ ; to see that he be properly supported ; that his salary be paid with regularity and punctuality ; to make and execute all contracts for the erection, furnishing and preserving the church edifice and other church property ; to regulate the use of the Parish graveyard ; to employ an organist, and otherwise provide for sacred music, subject to the control of the Rector, and generally as the constituted agents of the Parish or congregation to transact all its temporal business.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the wardens to keep watch over the church property ; to see that it is duly prepared for every occasion of public worship ; to see that the sexton and other employees properly discharge their duties ; to collect the offerings of the people ; to take charge of the font and communion plate ; to provide out of the Parish funds, under the direction of the vestry, a sufficient supply of vestments and books to be used in public worship, and also the elements for each celebration of the Holy Communion ; to attend to the accommodation of the congregation with seats, and to maintain order and decorum in the time of public worship.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the register of the vestry to take charge of all Parish records ; to keep correct entries of all proceedings of the vestry, and when there shall be no Rector, to enter upon the Church register usually kept by the rector, all baptisms, specifying the Christian and surnames of the parents, with the name and date of birth and baptism of the person baptized ; also all marriages, deaths and funerals, with dates and names of parties, and in like manner all confirmations administered in, and communicants lost or gained by the Parish, and furnish a report of the same to the annual Councils of the Diocese.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of all moneys, except communion alms and other special offerings, and to disburse the same under the direction of the vestry, and to make such reports to the Council as are required by its orders. The term "Parish," wherever it occurs in this Canon, shall be interpreted also to mean church or congregation, wherever such a church or congregation is entitled to a separate vestry, unless where the context requires a more restricted construction.

CANON IX.

Concerning Exceptions to the foregoing Canon.

Whereas the preceding Canon, which directs the manner of choosing vestrymen in the several Parishes, is not applicable to the case of churches built and supported by voluntary associations of individuals ; and it is proper that those who hold the sole property of a particular church—as in the case of the Monumental Church, Richmond, and in all similar cases—should provide for its care and management, the choice of vestrymen shall be made by the pew-holders of the respective churches, conforming, as to the time of appointment and manner of qualifying the vestrymen, to the regulations prescribed by the eighth Canon.

CANON X.

Of the Division of Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever the members of the church, residing in a particular portion of a Parish, shall desire to separate from the Parish of which they form a part, it shall be lawful for them to assemble, after public notice given in the church or place of public worship, or posted upon the door of the same, and appoint a committee to take such measures as may be necessary.

SEC. 2. The committee thus appointed shall give to the Bishop and to the majority of the vestry (if there be one) of the Parish from which they desire to be separated, a formal notice of their intention to apply for such purpose, which notice shall contain a description of the proposed line or lines of division, and shall be sent to the Bishop and said vestry at least three months before the meeting of the Council to which the application shall be made.

SEC. 3. Said application shall be made in the form of a petition to the Council, and shall set forth the considerations which are supposed to render the division desirable; whereupon the Council may, if they deem it expedient, proceed to divide said parish, and to constitute the portion thereof applying for separation a new Parish, with all the rights and privileges of other Parishes of this Diocese.

SEC. 4. As soon after the adjournment of the Council as may be practicable, the committee aforesaid shall give at least two weeks' notice to the members of the church, residing in the new Parish, to assemble for the election of a vestry, which elections shall be conducted according to the directions contained in Canon VIII.

SEC. 5. The committee aforesaid, or a majority of those who may attend, shall judge of the qualification of voters, and of the qualification of persons proposed to be elected, and of the election of vestrymen; and those persons whom said committee shall declare to be duly elected, shall be the vestry of said Parish until the election and qualification of the succeeding vestry.

CANON XI.

Of the formation of New Congregations.

When any number of persons belonging to any Parish or congregation, sufficient to build a house of worship and provide for the support of a minister, shall choose to separate from the Parish or congregation of which they have hitherto been a part, they may proceed according to the directions given in Canon X, except that in this case the direction as to a line or lines of division is inapplicable. The Council may, on such petition, constitute the applicants a separate congregation, and authorize, by special enactment, such peculiar provisions as to the right of suffrage, the employment of a minister or ministers, and the manner of holding and managing the property of such congregation, as they may propose, and the Council deem expedient: Provided, That the time of electing and the manner of qualifying vestrymen shall always be conformed to the regulation prescribed in Canon VIII.

Canons.

CANON XII.

Of Mission Churches.

SEC. 1. When any number of persons belonging to any Parish or congregation desire a separate and independent organization, but cannot comply with the requirements of the Canon in regard to the formation of new congregations, they may, until they are so able, proceed to organize a Mission Church upon the following conditions:

They must obtain the approval of the vestry of the Parish to which they belonged, and if there be two or more vestries in the Parish they must have the consent of a majority of the same.

They must have the approval of the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese.

They may have their own vestry and officers, whose manner of election, and whose duties shall be according to the provisions of these Canons in regard to the election and duties of other vestries, except that they shall have no representation in the Council of the Diocese, and shall not call a minister without the approval of the ecclesiastical authority.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the vestry of a church organized under this Canon to give notice of the same to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Diocese, and a list of mission Churches so organized shall be published annually in the JOURNAL.

CANON XIII.

Of Colored Mission Churches.

SEC. 1. The colored people of Virginia who are, or may hereafter be, connected with the Protestant Episcopal Church, shall constitute a Missionary jurisdiction of the Diocese.

SEC. 2. It shall be lawful to organize Mission Churches or congregations composed exclusively of colored persons, within the limits of any already existing Parish, subject to the same conditions and regulations as are other Mission Churches (see Canon XII), and specially those of this Canon, except that consent of the Vestry or Vestries need not be obtained.

SEC. 3. There may be appointed, by the Bishop, one or more Presbyters who shall have general supervision of such colored churches and congregations as the Bishop may designate, and perform such duties as he may prescribe.

SEC. 4. A Convocation shall be held annually at such time and place as may be designated by the Bishop as to the first meeting, and afterwards by the Convocation itself. The colored ministers of the Diocese, in good standing, shall be members of the Convocation, and it shall be the duty of every such minister to attend its meetings. The Vestry of every Colored Mission Church or congregation shall elect one male lay delegate annually, who, upon the presentation of a certificate signed by the minister (or warden, if there be no minister,) and Register of the Vestry, stating that the delegate is not less than twenty-one years of age, and is a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church, shall be entitled to a seat in the Convocation.

The Bishop, the Assistant Bishop (if there be one), and the Presbyters mentioned in Section 3, shall be ex-officio members of the Convocation. The Bishop (or in his absence the Assistant Bishop) shall be President of the Convocation.

SEC. 5. The Convocation shall have power to consult and devise measures for their common welfare, which measures shall take effect when approved by the Council of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. The Convocation shall elect annually two clergymen and two laymen to represent them in the Council of the Diocese.

SEC. 7. Colored congregations, constituted as above provided, may acquire and hold property of their own, as by law provided, but cannot come into possession of the property of any white congregation, except by transfer, under the laws of the State of Virginia; nor shall any white congregation come into possession of the property of any colored congregation, except by like transfer.

 Canons.

CANON XIV.

Of the Evidence of the Appointment of Lay Delegates to the Council.

The appointment of lay delegates to the Council of this Diocese shall be certified by the rector, register, or warden of the proper Parish or Church, in duplicate, and said certificate shall be in form as follows :

This is to certify, That at a meeting of the vestry of ——— in ——— county, held on the — day of ———, 18—, the following named communicants of said ———, viz : Mr. ———, as lay delegate, and Mr. ———, as alternate, were duly appointed to represent the same in the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, to be holden in the city of ———, on the — day of ———, in the year of our Lord —.

—————, Rector.

Register or Warden.

[Return original to Secretary of Council and give duplicate to delegate attending.]

The Secretary shall make out a roll and call the names of all certified to him as duly and canonically elected. The President of the Council shall then appoint a committee, to be composed of one clerical and two lay delegates, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the lay delegates, and who shall report the names of those entitled to seats to the Secretary, and of those claiming but not entitled to seats, to the Council.

Should doubt arise as to the right of any lay delegate to his seat, the matter shall be referred to the Committee on Elections for examination and report.

CANON XV.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. Any vacancy occurring by death, or otherwise, in the Standing Committee, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the remaining clerical members and lay members of the Committee.

Canons.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate,' the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop, as regards discipline, except the pronouncing sentence of suspension, deposition, or degradation from the ministry, shall belong to, and be performed by, the Standing Committee.

SEC. 3. The record of all the proceedings, on a presentment of a clergyman or layman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, before every stated meeting of the General Convention, to draft, with the advice and approbation of the Bishop, a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, to be presented to the General Convention.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, at every meeting of the Council, to submit, in addition to the report of their proceedings, the documents also which have been laid before them during the year.

CANON XVI.

A List to be made of Ministers in this Diocese.

SEC. 1. Within one week before every stated meeting of the Council of this Diocese, the Bishop, or, if there be no Bishop, the Standing Committee, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church, canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective cures, or of their stations as missionaries, or of the colleges, academies, or other seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, or in regard to those who have no cure, or are not engaged in missions or institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only. And such list, corrected as hereinafter mentioned, shall be laid before the Council on the first day of meeting, and the names of the clerical members called therefrom, and appended to the journal, and shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the General Convention.

SEC. 2. The list of the clergy of this Diocese, so prepared by the Bishop or Standing Committee, and annexed according to the changes which may occur, whether by death, ordination, discipline, or canonical removals from or admission into this Diocese, shall be evidence of a clergyman's having a cure or mission, or engagement in a seminary of learning, and no clergyman, while suspended from the ministry, shall have a place on said list.

SEC. 3. The right of any clergyman to a seat in the Council shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Constitution and Canons by the Council itself, whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the clergy to attend regularly at the meeting of every Council. At the opening of the Council their names shall be called over and absentees noted, and at the ensuing stated Council they shall be required to give excuses for their absence.

CANON XVII.

Respecting the Property of the Church.

The vestries respectively shall hold all glebes, lands, parsonage, houses, churches, books, plate or other property now belonging or hereafter accruing to the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, as trustees for the benefit of the Parish or Church, for whose use the same were or shall hereafter be purchased or otherwise obtained; and may improve, demise, or otherwise dispose of the lands or houses allowed for the minister's habitation or use with the minister's consent; and if there be no minister, with the consent of the Bishop; or in case there be no minister, and the Episcopal Office be vacant, then not without the consent of the Standing Committee. The vestry may also use, improve, or dispose of all personal property, and the produce, rents and profits of lands and houses (not appropriated for the occupancy and use of the minister) belonging to the church, in repairing the church and parsonage house for the benefit of the respective Parishes or churches, and may make such rules and orders for managing the affairs and temporal concerns of their respective churches and Parishes as they shall think most conducive to their interest and prosperity. They shall have the sole power of directing the payment of money belonging to the respective churches and Parishes, and appoint a clerk, treasurer and collector when necessary; all which proceedings shall be entered in a well-bound book to be kept for that purpose. But when there are trustees under the act of the Legislature, passed February 3d, 1842, authorized to hold real property, such real property shall not be subject to the provisions of this Canon.

CANON XVIII.

Of Church Property for which there are no Trustees.

The Council shall annually elect a Standing Committee, to consist of two clergymen and three laymen, whose duty it shall be to claim for and on behalf the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, all property, real and personal, belonging to said church or any Parish or congregation thereof, whether said Parish or congregation has been disbanded or not, as to which there are no duly constituted trustees in whom is vested the legal title thereto.

The said Committee shall use all due diligence, by proper legal steps or otherwise, to secure such property to the use and benefit of the said Church, or of the proper Parish or Congregation thereof, and to that end the members of said Committee, or the persons designated by them, are hereby nominated without further action of the Council, to the respective courts to which said Committee may apply, as the trustees for any such property so to be claimed by said Committee.

When any such property shall be recovered by said Committee, it shall be held by the trustees appointed for the use and benefit of this Church, or the Parish or Congregation properly entitled thereto.

CANON XIX.

Offenders to be admonished or repelled from the Lord's Table.

Any member of the Church, being a communicant thereof, conducting himself or herself in a manner unworthy of a Christian, ought to be admonished or repelled from the Lord's Table by the minister of the Parish or Church, according to the Rubric. Gaming, attendance on horse-racing and theatrical amusements, witnessing immodest and licentious exhibitions or shows, attending public balls, habitual neglect of public worship, a neglect of the Holy Communion, or a denial of the doctrines of the Gospel, as generally set forth in the authorized standards of the Church, are practices from which all Christians should abstain. This enumeration, however, shall not be construed to include all the subjects of discipline or admonition in the Church. In cases where it may be deemed expedient by the minister, or may be requested by the accused, the Church wardens, or either of them, shall be summoned to assist the minister in ascertaining the facts of the case: Provided, that if such warden or wardens shall fail or refuse to act within ten days, the minister shall proceed to act under the Rubrics of this Church.

Canons.

CANON XX.

Proceedings for the Expenses of the Diocese.

The Vestries of the several Parishes or churches shall, quarterly, or at every annual Council, as each Vestry shall determine for itself, pay to the Treasurer such sums as may be apportioned to them, respectively, for the purpose of defraying such expenses as may be authorized by the Council.

CANON XXI.

Concerning altering or adding to the Canons of the Church.

No proposed alteration or addition to the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Council, unless at least one day's previous notice be given in open Council, nor until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a committee of at least two presbyters and two laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted during the same Council if two-thirds of the members shall not concur therein; but if the majority be less than two-thirds, it shall lie over for consideration until the next Annual Council.

CANON XXII.

All the former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

Herewith, we respectfully submit a copy of the Charter, Constitution and By-Laws of the Trustees of the Funds of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Virginia, and a corrected list of the officers and Standing Committees—several changes becoming necessary on account of the resignation of the Rev. D. F. Sprigg, D. D., and death of Messrs. F. H. McGuire, C. E. Whitlock and B. J. Barbour, of the Trustees nominated at last Council. We also submit the reports of the treasurers of the various Standing Committees, viz: The Disabled Clergy Fund, Widows' and Orphans' Fund, Episcopal Fund and Bruce Fund, which have been audited and approved.

JOHN B. NEWTON, President.

JAS. M. BALL, Sec. and Treas.

REPORT OF THE VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE.

The report of the Principal of the Virginia Female Institute was then read by the Secretary:

VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE, May, 1895.

To the RT. REV. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D., LL.D.,

President of the Board of Trustees:

Dear Sir: The time approaches for the meeting of the Council of the Virginia Dioceses; I, therefore, make ready my Annual Report.

Wednesday A. M.

Our present session opened September 13th, 1894, with forty (40) boarders and fifteen (15) day pupils. The number of boarders increased to seventy-one (71) during the first few weeks. From various providential causes five (5) boarders were called home at the close of the first term; but two (2) new names were added to the role, February 1st, 1895, so that our number, representing fourteen States, has been well kept up.

Sixteen of our pupils have had the benefit of free tuition in all English branches, and to three assistance has been largely given on their board account.

The school has never been more abundantly blessed. The health of all has been uniformly good; the conduct and bearing of the pupils, as a general thing, above reproach, while spiritually, a most gratifying condition has existed.

A class of twelve (12) was prepared and presented for Confirmation by the rector of Emmanuel Church, April 28th, of this number one was baptized, Easter-even, by Rev. Mr. Jett; four others were confirmed, at Easter, among their own people.

Each year an effort is made to advance the character of our school, and the standard of scholarship has been greatly raised within the past few years, as is proven by the thorough and excellent work done, both by teachers and pupils. Those who know of our work express themselves as well satisfied.

The grounds and enclosures are in admirable order; the buildings, however, need painting; this, it is hoped, can be done in the early summer.

Repeated and earnest solicitations have been made for the co-operation of the Church in an effort to enlarge and modernize the buildings, but as yet without encouragement. The want of an additional hall is constantly felt, as the only assembly room is the "school room," which is not sufficiently large to accommodate comfortably our own numbers when all are called together at one time.

Until our Board of Trustees and our Councils take action in this advancement of their only Diocesan School for girls, it is scarcely worth while to solicit aid elsewhere. Cannot something decisive be done this spring by the Councils of Virginia and Southern Virginia. If this third appeal fails to make an impression, we shall, indeed, have cause to fear that either our needs are considered imaginary and unnecessary, or we are very poor pleaders. I am,

Very respectfully,

MRS. J. E. B. STUART.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

The Rev. J. K. Mason, D. D., read the report of the Committee appointed at the last Council to examine the office of the Secretary, which was as follows:

Wednesday A. M.

The committee appointed at the last Council to examine the condition of the Secretary's office, report that they have done this, and find that the present Secretary received from his predecessor:

1st. A full set of Journals of the Conventions or Councils of the Diocese of Virginia, i. e., Dr. Hawk's Book, which contains Journals of the Conventions of this Diocese from 1785 to 1835, and twelve bound volumes of the Conventions from 1836 to 1892.

2d. That there are no Journals of the General Conventions for the period between 1785 and 1850. That there are twelve volumes (seven of which are bound in cloth, and the rest in paper) containing Journals of the General Conventions from 1850 to 1892.

3d. That there are in the office of Mr. Wm. Ellis Jones about 200 volumes of Dr. Dashiell's Digest of the Councils of Virginia.

4th. There are twenty-four copies of the Journals of the General Convention of 1892.

Your Committee would offer the following resolutions, and would move that they be referred to the Finance Committee:

1. Resolved (The Finance Committee approving), That the Secretary be authorized to have Dr. Hawk's book rebound.

2d. To purchase Bishop Perry's "Half Century of Legislation of the American Church, being the Journals of the General Convention from 1785 to 1835."

3d. To have the copies of the Journals of the General Convention in the office, which are now bound in paper, bound in boards.

4th. That as one-half the volumes of Dr. Dashiell's Book belong to the Diocese of Southern Virginia, that the Secretary be authorized to notify the authorities of that Diocese of this fact, and ask for instructions in regard to them.

The Secretary of the Council asks, through your committee, what disposition is to be made of the volumes of Dr. Dashiell's Book belonging to this Diocese.

The resolutions in it were adopted.

On motion of the Rev. N. P. Dame the following resolutions were adopted:

WEDNESDAY, 8 P. M.

The Council met pursuant to adjournment, the Rev. Hartley Carmichael, D. D., in the chair.

After Divine service, conducted by Rev. Wm. M. Clark, the Rev. Dr. Powers read the report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report that they have aided, in the course of the past year, parishes, churches or missions in the counties of Albemarle, Caroline, Culpeper, Essex, Fairfax, Fauquier, Fluvanna, Frederick, Gloucester, Greene, Hanover, Henrico, King George, King and Queen, King William, Lancaster, Loudoun, Louisa, Madison, Mathews, Middlesex, New Kent, Northumberland, Orange, Page, Rappahannock, Richmond, Rockingham, Shenandoah, Spotsylvania, Stafford and Westmoreland, and have promised aid to churches in Clarke and Warren, leaving only four counties which are not aided or to be aided by us—viz: Alexandria, Charles City, Goochland and Prince William. In this enumeration are included those counties in which any regular work is done by a non-resident minister who is aided by the Executive Committee.

It seems, sometimes, as if we should have to carry the whole Diocese outside of the cities and larger towns. We are satisfied that in some, perhaps in many cases, the people could do more if they would. The best way to help the Diocesan Missionary Society is for such parishes and churches to support themselves if they can. It not only relieves the Executive Committee of an appropriation which may be applied elsewhere, and which is always greater than their contributions, but it gives them the satisfaction of not being dependent upon any one but God and themselves. It may not be amiss to state here the experience of a parish which three years ago was receiving aid from the Committee. Since that time a single church in that parish has called and obtained a minister, promising to pay his salary themselves if he would give them services every Sunday. This has been done, the salary has been paid and more, and God has blessed them with a remarkable increase of communicants. While exceptional causes may have existed in this case which do not operate in other parishes, and while the best efforts of a faithful minister seem often to be followed by little fruit, yet we can but think that in this case the spirit of self-help developed among the people, and of earnest co-operation with the minister, had something to do with the result. God helps those who help themselves. Two or three parishes have become vacant by resignation and one by the death of the minister, but they will doubtless be filled in the course of the year, and appropriations have already been promised them by the Committee.

The work of the Evangelist has been most faithful and efficient, in visiting vacant churches, in having communion in churches in charge of deacons, in helping vacant churches by his counsel and efforts to combine and get a minister, and in keeping us advised of the state of the churches in all parts of the Diocese.

The mission work in the counties of Louisa, Madison, Orange and Greene has been well done by Rev. J. R. Ellis and Rev. E. W. Cowling, and in Albemarle by Rev. H. B. Lee and Rev. A. G. Grinnan, with substantial help in both cases from the Executive Committee.

The Treasurer reports a total of receipts from all sources from May 5th, 1894, to May 13th, 1895, of $7,115.93, which is considerably larger than the receipts of 1893-'4. Of the total receipts, the contributions of the children amount to $2,041.88. The disbursements to parishes, churches and missions, to the salary of the Evangelist and other expenses connected with the work of the Committee, amounted to $7,504.54, and the balance on hand is $1,942.39. The number of ministers helped in the course of the year has been thirty-one; present number, twenty-seven. The appropriations to parishes, &c., range from $50 to $300, the greater number being in sums of $150 and $200. The salary of the Evangelist, whose special work is to serve vacant parishes, to visit churches in charge of deacons and administer the communion, has been this year $1,200, and his collections for the Diocesan Missionary Society have exceeded his expenses by $200, making the charge to the Diocesan Missionary Society $1,000.

The Sunday-schools which have reported one Sunday's collection every month for Diocesan Missionary Society, besides their lenten offerings, are the Sunday-schools of St. James' Church, Richmond; Christ Church, Charlottesville; St. Andrew's Church, Richmond; St. Luke's Chapel, Richmond; Grace Church, Alexandria; and Trinity Church, Fredericksburg; and perhaps one or two others. We do not see why all cannot do this, and it would add a considerable sum to our receipts. The Committee on Sunday-schools at the last Council reported an aggregate of 6,658 Sunday-school children. If these gave an average of one cent it would make, say $67 a month, and this for ten months, outside of Lent, would make $670. And when the Sunday-school of one city church gave, since Council, $53 in this way, the estimate we have given for the whole does not seem too large.

We repeat the suggestion which we have made before, that the other Sunday-school collections, or at least a part of them, be applied to other missionary work. Every Christian parent and teacher must wish the children to be interested in Missions and to be trained to give to missions. Surely the blessing of the first great Missionary, our Lord Jesus Christ, on our Church in Virginia, cannot be expected if we are content to confine our work to our own home field, and let our Christian charity begin at home and stay at home. We thank God for His blessing on our work so far, we thank the people and the children for their contributions, and we pray and hope for better work and a greater blessing in future. All which is respectfully submitted.

PIKE POWERS,

Secretary D. M. S. of Va.

Addresses were then made by Mr. Thomas Potts, Revs. J. R. Ellis and E. S. Hinks.

The offerings of the congregation were then taken for the Diocesan Missionary Society.

The Council, after prayer by Rev. L. R. Mason, adjourned until Thursday at 10 A. M.

CHRIST CHURCH, CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.,

THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1895, 10 A. M.

The Council was opened with prayer, after which it was called to order by Bishop Whittle. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

Bishop Whittle then read his address.

Thursday A. M.

BISHOP WHITTLE'S ADDRESS,

MY DEAR BRETHREN OF THE COUNCIL:

This being the one hundredth session of the annual Council of the Diocese of Virginia, it may be expected that I will say something in this address in reference to the interesting occasion. And I would be glad to comply with this natural and proper expectation did not my physical infirmities prevent me from doing so. But my sight is so imperfect that it is only with great difficulty I can write at all, and I am therefore obliged to confine myself to a simple statement of such items of the affairs of the Diocese as the canon expressly requires me to lay before you. I trust that Bishop Newton will feel perfectly free now and at all times to speak on this or any other subject, and to make any suggestions or recommendations that he may think will help to advance the interests of our beloved church. His report and mine will show an encouraging condition of the Diocese, but while there is much for which we should be thankful, no doubt progress and improvement may be made in many directions. Our first and ever pressing work is to sustain and build up our feeble country parishes, where are to be found the large majority of our churches, and on which the future of the Diocese depends. Hence I would again and again urge on every minister and lay member of the church, not simply the great importance, but the absolute necessity of liberally supporting our Diocesan Education and Missionary Societies.

I have been able during the past year to visit and officiate as follows:

- 1894, May 6.—Christ Church, Charlottesville, confirmed fourteen.
- May 6.—St. Luke's Chapel, Charlottesville, confirmed three.
- May 13.—Emmanuel, Henrico, confirmed five.
- June 5.—St. Philip's (colored), Richmond, confirmed six.
- June 9.—Grace, Rockingham, confirmed none.
- June 10.—Calvary, Shenandoah, Page county, confirmed eight.
- June 25.—Trinity Chapel, Alexandria county, confirmed ten.
- June 26.—Episcopal High School, confirmed two.
- October 19.—St. Paul's, Hanover, confirmed three.

Thursday A M.

October 28.—Weddell Memorial, Richmond, confirmed six.
 November 18.—St. James', Louisa C. H., confirmed four.
 December 30.—St. James', Richmond, confirmed one.
 1895, March 3.—St. James', Richmond, confirmed two.
 March 24.—St. Paul's, Richmond, confirmed twenty-three.
 March 24th.—St. John's, Richmond, confirmed thirty.
 March 31st.—Holy Trinity, Richmond, confirmed ten.
 March 31st.—Monumental, Richmond, confirmed twenty-six.
 April 7th.—St. Andrew's, Richmond, confirmed seven.
 April 7th.—All Saints (1) Monumental, confirmed nineteen.
 April 14th.—Grace, Richmond, confirmed thirteen.
 April 14th.—St. James (1) Holy Trinity, confirmed twenty-three.
 April 21st.—Christ, Richmond, confirmed seventeen.
 April 21st.—St. Mark's, Richmond, confirmed twelve.
 April 25th.—St. George's, Fredericksburg, confirmed three.
 April 28th.—Christ, Alexandria, confirmed twenty-one.
 April 28th.—St. Paul's, Alexandria, confirmed fifteen.
 April 29th.—Fall's Church, Fairfax, confirmed two.
 April 30th.—Vienna, confirmed nine.

The Confirmation in Fredericksburg was the third during the year, making the whole number over sixty.

Vienna, Fairfax, was visited for the first time. The Rev. R. A. Castleman has been laboring there for only a few months, but most faithfully and successfully. Nine were confirmed, and he has enrolled about thirty communicants.

The people hope soon to build a church, and in the meantime, have been fortunate in securing the use of a convenient and comfortable hall in which to hold their services.

The work in this Brother's large field of labor, and indeed in all this part of the Diocese, is very encouraging. I have confirmed more than fifty than are here reported since the last Council, but I close my report with the month of April.

POSTULANTS.

MINISTERS DECEASED.

It is my sad duty to have to report that three of our brethren of the clergy have been called from the Church Militant to join the Church Triumphant, during the past year.

Rev. Charles Minnigerode, D. D., an eminent Christian, pastor and preacher, a native of Germany, but from his early manhood thoroughly identified with the people and Church of Virginia, departed this life at his home in Alexandria, October 19th, 1894, in the 81st year of his age.

He was for more than thirty years the faithful and beloved Rector of St. Paul's Church, Richmond, but had retired for several years from active labor because of feeble health.

During his whole ministry he was prominent and active in all our church work and Councils, and was well known throughout the Diocese.

Rev. Joseph R. Jones, a gentle, quiet, modest Christian character, for many years Rector of the churches at Front Royal and White Post, died while faithfully engaged in the Master's service, at his home in Millwood, August 15th, 1894, in the 65th year of his age.

October 25th, 1894, the Rev. Kinloch Nelson, D. D., Professor of Greek Language, New Testament Literature, Church Polity and Pastoral Theology in The Theological Seminary of Virginia, and also rector of the mission stations around the Institution, was called to cease from his labors, in the 56th year of his age. The Church sustained in the death of this eminent Christian and scholar, a double loss.

For the reason already mentioned, and because it is not necessary, I say nothing more of these dearly beloved brethren and friends.

Thursday A. M.

I have also to report the death, April 6th, 1895, at his home in Fredericksburg, of Mr. W. S. S. Downman, a candidate for Holy Orders. He was a Godly and promising young man, and his death is deeply regretted.

January 1st, 1895, Rev. H. Suter, D. D., accepted the office of Examining Chaplain, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of the Rev. S. A. Wallis, elected to the Chair of the late Dr. Nelson, in The Theological Seminary.

I have great pleasure in announcing that on April 17th, 1895, Miss Mary E. Jones, formerly of Buchanan, Va., was received as a candidate for the order of Deaconess in our Church. She is studying and laboring in the Parish, and under the direction of Rev. R. A. Goodwin, Rector of St. John's, Richmond, and expects to be formally set apart for her work, after due trial and examination, within the year. I trust this may be the beginning of the restoration in our Diocese of this ancient Christian Order of the Church, and that it may not be long before every city rector shall have at least one of such invaluable helpers in his work.

LAY READERS LICENSED.

F. H. Moss and LeRoy Baxley, Leeds' Church, Fauquier; Chas. E. Cary, Ware Parish, Gloucester; L. Carter Catlett, Abingdon Parish, Gloucester; D. M. Chichester, Zion Church, Fairfax; E. Bander, Trinity, Manassas; Joseph Bryan and T. C. Ruffin, Emmanuel, Henrico; William J. Cary, Cople Parish, Westmoreland; James H. Morrison, Christ Church, Luray; Wash. Tennent, St. Paul's Parish, King George; H. I. Lewis and W. A. Trigg, St. John's Church, West Point; Geo. P. Hodgson, St. John's, Fluvanna; M. I. Dunn, St. Anne's Parish, Albemarle; C. I. Nourse, Grace Church, Fauquier.

The Evangelist has performed laborious, faithful and valuable service during the past year, and ought, in my judgment, certainly to be continued in his work.

June 19th, and again July 2d, I attended a meeting of the Trustees of the Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School, Petersburg. This school has a valuable piece of property and an encouraging number of students, but not one, I am sorry to say, from this Diocese.

Thursday A. M.

Any persons who desire to aid in the colored work cannot do better, in my opinion, than contribute to the funds of this Institution, to enable it to meet current expenses.

A good part of the month of June I spent at our Theological Seminary, attending examinations and various meetings, and aiding in promoting its interests.

ASSISTANT BISHOP NEWTON'S ADDRESS.

Bishop Newton then read his address:

To the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia and to the Clergy and Laity:

MY DEAR BRETHREN: In this, my first report as Assistant-Bishop of Virginia, my thoughts turn in grateful acknowledgement of all His goodness and mercy, to Him "in whom we live and move and have our being." Through His over-ruling providence, I have been enabled to fill my many engagements without interruption by sickness or other hindrance. I must also express my warm appreciation of the kindness and needed help extended to me by the Bishop and by the Clergy and Laity throughout the Diocese.

Thursday A. M.

Immediately after my consecration, I entered upon the duties incident to the session of the Council, then assembled in Richmond.

On Sunday, May 21st, at 11 A. M., after service by Rev. James Grammer, D. D., I preached in the Monumental Church, then without a rector; in the afternoon, after sermon by Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., at Christ Church, I confirmed five; at night, preached at St. Paul's, by request of the rector.

May 21st, preached at West Point and confirmed six.

May 22d, read service and preached at St. Peter's, New Kent; confirmed none.

May 23d, Emmanuel, Hanover, preached and confirmed nine.

May 24th, Hanover C. H., preached and confirmed three.

The service at this point was had in the old Courthouse in which I was told Bishop Moore held his first service in the parish. Since my visit, St. Paul's Church, which was burned a few months before, has been replaced, through the commendable zeal of the Rev. S. S. Hepburn and his people, by a neat and comfortable structure, paid for and consecrated.

May 25th, at "Fork," Hanover, preached and confirmed two.

May 25th (afternoon), at St. Martin's, Hanover, preached and confirmed none.

May 26th, at St. Margaret's Chapel, Caroline, preached and confirmed five. Here the hall in which our people held service for several years, is being replaced by a neat church. For which the little flock in this new field deserve hearty commendation.

May 27th I preached in the morning at the "Church of our Saviour," Hanover, and confirmed none; in the afternoon at Trinity, Hanover, and confirmed none.

May 30th, at St. Mary's, Goochland, preached and confirmed five.

May 31st, at Goochland Courthouse, preached and confirmed twelve. At this point the church building has been greatly improved within a few months, and the rector, Rev. Martin Johnson, is to be congratulated upon the evidences of spiritual life awakened in this hitherto discouraging field.

Thursday A. M.

June 1st, I preached at Columbia, and confirmed five.

June 2d, at Bremo, preached and confirmed seven.

June 3d, at Christ Church, Albemarle (in the morning) preached and confirmed five, and at night of the same day, at Scottsville, preached and confirmed one.

June 9th, at Orange Courthouse, at night, preached, and on the next morning, in the same church, preached and confirmed eight; in the afternoon of the same day confirmed in private one.

June 11th, at Madison Courthouse, I preached, and immediately after service confirmed in private one.

June 12th, at Rapidan, preached and confirmed eleven.

June 13th, at 11 A. M., after sermon by the Rev. C. J. S. Mayo, I consecrated Slaughter Chapel, there being present, of the clergy, Revs. Murray, Watters, G. W. Nelson and Hansbrough, the three first taking part in the service; in the afternoon of the same day and in the same place, preached and confirmed two. This is an attractive and convenient chapel, erected by the efforts of the children and friends of the late Philip Slaughter, D. D.

June 14th, at Calvary Church, Culpeper, I preached and confirmed none.

June 15th, at St. Paul's, Culpeper, preached and confirmed eight. The church building had just been thoroughly repaired, and together with its large congregation of earnest worshippers, gave evident signs of spiritual life.

June 16th, at Christ Church, in the same Parish, I preached and confirmed nine.

June 17th, at Culpeper C. H., preached in the morning and confirmed eight. In the afternoon of the same day, preached at "Little Fork" and confirmed one.

June 19th, I attended a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Bishop Payne Divinity School at Petersburg.

June 25th, at St. George's Chapel, Spotsylvania, preached and confirmed two.

June 27th, I attended a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary of Virginia.

June 28th, in the chapel for colored persons at the Seminary, after sermon by Bishop Peterkin, I confirmed four.

June 29th, in the Seminary Chapel, at the request of the Bishop of the Diocese, preached the ordination sermon, and advanced to the Priesthood Revs. F. G. Ribble, Thomas D. Lewis, Charles E. Lee and Thomas P. Baker. Rev. F. G. Ribble was ordained for the Diocese of Southern Virginia, by request of Bishop Randolph. Revs. Carl Grammer and E. L. Goodwin united in the imposition of hands.

June 30th, at "Fall's Church," Fairfax, I preached and confirmed ten. This old church had been recently repaired and improved, and a large addition made to the rector's support, gives rather unusual evidence of material prosperity and spiritual growth. On the same day, at night, I confirmed, in private, one person at Herndon.

July 1st, at Herndon, in the morning, preached and confirmed two; in the afternoon, preached at Chantilly and confirmed seven.

July 2d, at Fairfax C. H., preached and confirmed seven.

July 3d, at Chapel of Good Shepherd, preached and confirmed five.

July 4th, at Manassas, preached and confirmed nine. Here there is every indication of future growth and development.

July 5th, at Hay Market, preached to a densely packed congregation and confirmed thirty-one. At this point there has been developed a most remarkable work, and within the year the number of communicants, as you will find further on in this report, has been doubled.

July 6th, at Grace Chapel, Prince William, I preached and confirmed four, two of them for Hay Market.

July 7th, at Church of our Saviour, Fauquier, preached and confirmed three.

July 8th, at "The Plains," in the morning, preached and confirmed three, and in the afternoon of the same day, preached at Whittle Chapel and confirmed none.

Lee, the rector of the parish, taking part in the service. In the afternoon of the same day, in this chapel, preached and confirmed three. August 1st, at Abingdon Church, Gloucester, preached and confirmed seventeen.

August 11th, preached at St. Margaret's Chapel, Caroline, and confirmed one.

August 12th, read service and preached at the Monumental Church, Richmond, the Rev. E. L. Goodwin, temporarily in charge, having been called away by family affliction.

The history of old Pohick Church for the past thirteen years, its resuscitation and progress, speaks with no uncertain sound in favor of a long and faithful pastorate. When Rev. S. A. Wallis entered upon the work as a deacon it was one of the least promising fields in the Diocese. He left it, when elected Professor of the Theological Seminary, with the church building in good condition, a comfortable rectory, and the number of communicants increased tenfold. The Sunday-school of nearly one hundred scholars, interested and well taught, presented a most cheering outlook for the future.

September 3d, at Dumfries, Prince William, I preached and confirmed none.

December 5th, in Richmond, assisted the rector of St. James in a marriage service.

December 9th, at Hay Market, in the morning, I preached and confirmed twenty-nine. This was the third visit since May to this church, and since then the Bishop of the Diocese has made a fourth. I need not say more of this remarkable work in a country Parish. We earnestly pray that it may stand the test of the great day, when "all hearts" shall be "open," "and all secrets known." At the same church I preached again at night. In both services we were assisted by Rev. G. W. Nelson, who had a few weeks before given the congregation a ten days' mission.

And this closes the statement in figures of my work to May 1st, 1895. What that work has been in the sight of God can only be known when we all stand before the judgment seat to give account of the deeds done in the body. We rejoice to know that the Judge, on that day, shall be the same merciful Saviour who loved us and gave Himself for us!

And now, brethren, turning from the past, let us look to the future with lowly faith and holy hope. We have before us a great work for the Master. There is yet much land to be possessed. We live in stirring times, in an age and amid circumstances which demand all our zeal and energy, our patience and perseverance. There was never a time when the cause of Christ and His Church called more loudly for the loyal devotion and constancy of Christian men. There was never a time of more blessed opportunity. "The field is white unto the harvest." Faithfulness now to Christ and His truth will surely bring a glorious reward.

Although the world is full of evil, and many, "blindly wise," seek to turn men from "the old paths;" although medievalism on the one hand, or rationalism on the other, may threaten the destruction of the Church of our fathers, let us, in the Church in Virginia, cling with unshaken confidence to "the faith once delivered to the saints."

The old gospel has been in the past the only cure for sin and all evils; it must be so in the future. It is the gospel of the ever-living Christ, whose promise has been given to be with his people forever. It cannot fail. Let us preach the word; be instant in season and out of season; feed the sheep; gather in the lambs of the flock.

Let it never be said of us, "The hungry sheep look up and are not fed," "The people perish for lack of knowledge."

The Council then took a recess.

Divine service was conducted by Bishop Newton.

Pursuant to a resolution of the last Council, that "a suitable historical address" be delivered at the one hundredth annual Council, the Rt. Rev. A. M. Randolph, D. D., Bishop of Southern Virginia, made a most admirable address, which is printed in the Appendix.

The Council re-assembled, and was called to order by the Assistant Bishop.

The Rev. N. P. Dame, of the Special Committee appointed at the last Council on Church Finances, read his report:

Friday A. M.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON CHURCH FINANCE.

The special committee appointed by the Council in Richmond last May "to consider the whole subject of Church Finance in the Diocese both as to principles and as to methods, and make such suggestions as may seem to promise improvement in this department of our Church's work," beg leave to report—

The money question, in all its phases, is one that deeply concerns the Church of Christ; and it is of vital importance that the Church should consider it attentively on all sides in the light of our Lord's teaching.

The raising of money has become a recognized department of Church work in every parish and mission station in every Diocese in the land. There are constant and increasing demands for money for all kinds of work everywhere in the Church; and there is constant and apparently increasing difficulty in raising the great and growing sums necessary for the Lord's work, as it is now carried on. So money-raising has come to occupy a large measure of attention, demands much effort and is often a great burden to both minister and people.

This prominence into which the money question has been thrust in the Church has been productive of many evil results.

(1) Driven by the apparent necessity of getting money for her work, the Church has been compelled to sacrifice her dignity, by becoming a common beggar at the door of the rich, stooping even to beg the little children for their pennies, and to countenance all sorts of devices for raising money, some of them of questionable morality, some of unquestioned immorality, and most of them utterly unchristian in their spirit and tendency, and in the motives to which they appeal.

(2) She has laid herself open to the charge—however false it may be—of being mercenary; of seeking not you but yours; of urging the practice of Christian generosity, not that she cares for you, but because she wants your money; of being as eager as the world in the pursuit of the dollar; of courting the rich and neglecting the poor; of being dominated by the money-power; of electing men to her vestries because they have money, and even of having, in some cases, elevated men to the very Episcopate itself because they, or their wives, were rich, and so could better support the dignity of their high office.

And (3) by the manifest importance which she attaches to money, by her pursuit of the rich, by her laudation of those who, out of their abundance, make her large gifts of money, by her consideration for the tastes and convenience of the rich, as shown in the location and furnishing of her church buildings, in her hours of service, in her financial systems, and in nearly all her methods of work and of worship, together with her constant and urgent appeals for money, of which, of course, the poor have but little, she has largely alienated the poorer section of the people from her, and given the Church of Jesus Christ the appearance of being the rich man's institution.

Your committee are persuaded that all the financial troubles of the Church spring from one or the other or both of these two sources:

(1) The undue value that she attaches to money as a means of doing her Lord's work in the world; and

(2) The radically defective system of finance which she employs.

She demands more money than she really needs, and she employs the worst possible method of getting it. If this diagnosis be correct, then the manifest remedy for her troubles in this respect is:

(1) To reduce her expenditures, and

(2) To employ the best method of getting money for her work.

I. There is a Christian attitude towards money, but the Church does not occupy it.

That the Church at large, as well as in our own Diocese, has drifted into an attitude towards riches and rich men, radically different from that occupied by our Lord and His disciples, is patent to all who care to see.

Jesus came into this world in poverty. He lived and labored and died in poverty. This poverty He voluntarily assumed and endured as a necessary means to the end He had in view. "He who was rich for our sakes became poor, that we, through His poverty, might become rich."

We should remember that He came into the world perfectly fitted in all respects for His work of saving men. If wealth could have helped Him in His work, "consecrated" wealth, wealth in His hands who knew best how to use it, He would have been born the heir of all Solomon's wealth. But because it could not help Him to save men, but would have been a positive hindrance to Him in this work, therefore He was born, lived, labored and died in poverty, having not where to lay His head, and lying at last in another man's grave.

Observe again, that when He called to Him, those men who were to follow Him in the work of His ministry, He required them to forsake their occupation and possessions, and to share His poverty with Him. And when He sent them out on their first missionary journey, He sent them with neither gold nor silver nor brass in their purses.

You will recall, too, how consistently he spoke of riches and of the rich, with a sort of pity, if not with positive disapprobation. "Woe unto you that are rich." "It is hard for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God," &c. On the other hand, He commends poverty, or, at least, voluntary poverty, not only by His great example, but also by His words. "Blessed are ye poor," &c. "Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom?"

To unbiassed judges these words and example of Jesus declare in unmistakable terms:

(1) That riches are, if not a curse, at least a misfortune or a hindrance to the man or the church that seeks to do the work that Jesus did; and

(2) That there is a power in voluntary poverty which renders it essential to, at least, the highest success in the work that Jesus left His Church to do.

There is some inherent antagonism between material wealth and spiritual power; and there is immense power in voluntary poverty for the accomplishment of spiritual results.

If this be true, then the church which would be able to say with St. Peter to the crippled sons of men: "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk," must first of all be able to say with him: "Silver and gold have I none."

As a matter of simple history the Church's spiritual power has always been in inverse ratio to her material wealth and worldly greatness.

Your committee offer here the following suggestions:

(1) That the proper authority, the Bishops or Council, be requested to impress on our churches, both clergy and people, the fact that one of the essential conditions of the highest spiritual success in the Lord's work, and the only one which, as a Church, we have almost entirely neglected or ignored, is voluntary poverty for Jesus' sake, with its attendant freedom from slavish dependence on money and the money power.

(2) That the churches be urged to seek that condition of spiritual power with all due diligence.

(a) By practicing, as churches, the strictest possible economy in their expenses, and

(b) By avoiding, as far as possible, those methods of work which involve the expenditure of money, and

(3) That the building of churches, chapels, rectories and parish houses in our Diocese, together with all matters touching their erection, such as the need for the building, the location, plan, cost, furnishing, &c., be put, in some degree at least, under the control of the Bishop, or of a standing committee, and that he or it be requested to allow no such building to be erected in the Diocese until it can be done by the congregation desiring it, without begging a dollar from outside, and without diminishing its fair contributions to the general work of the Church.

II. As there is a Christian attitude towards money, so there is, your committee are persuaded, a Christian method of Church finance, a Christian way of raising, managing and disbursing the Lord's money.

Let us take a rapid glance at the actual condition of things in our Diocese at present. It shows that our Church finances are, as the Southern Churchman eloquently described it not long since, "in a muddle."

(1) In the parishes there is nothing visible that could be called a system. Money is raised for every conceivable purpose, by every conceivable method and by appeals to every conceivable motive.

Some of the methods of raising money in vogue among us are pew rents, the regular weekly offertory, special collections made through the offertory, extra collections such as the Sunday-school, week day and Lenten collections, mite-boxes, direct collections of money outside the offertory, dues from members of guilds and societies of many kinds, bazaars, sales, entertainments, concerts, lectures, teas, suppers, feasts, parties of many sorts, shows, and exhibitions, and last, but not least, begging long and loud, with the aid of every possible device.

Friday A. M.

Some of the motives appealed to are, by actual count, the hope of temporal reward, the hope of eternal rewards, pride in the support of one's Church, fear of public opinion, the desire to be thought generous, common honesty, pay for what you get, sense of duty, debt to God, debt to the Church, the authority of the Church, the spirit of emulation, the command of Christ, the love of Christ, &c., &c.

Of these methods it may be said generally that most of them are very unsatisfactory to those who employ them; they do not bring the money that is needed, but they do often bring the Church into contempt, and inculcate hopelessly unchristian, and sometimes immoral principles.

(2) Our Diocesan financial affairs are naturally in somewhat better shape. We have four or five societies or funds, each with its own treasurer, and (with the exception of the Bruce Fund) depending, for its income, upon the contributions of individuals or congregations in the Diocese. These funds are in every case, so far as your committee are informed, in the hands and under the management of men of approved integrity and of eminent business ability—men who have shown themselves wise and successful in the management of their own business.

But it should be remembered, as St. Paul has taught us, that there are two sorts of wisdom among men: the wisdom of this world, and God's wisdom: both of them true wisdom, but radically different, and each of them looking like foolishness to the other. These two kind of wisdom, when applied to the affairs of life give us two kinds of business, and two types of business men.

The object of the business man of this world, in reference to money, is to get it, to accumulate it, to keep it safe, to increase it, and so to invest it that it may yield good interest.

The object of Jesus, the ideal business man of the other type, in dealing with money, is to produce certain effects on the inner character of men, to make them Christ-like, loving, generous, humble, full of faith and dependence on God.

Now, if it is the object of our Diocese to raise money, accumulate great funds, keep them safe, and invest them securely and wisely, then she ought to call to her aid, and be guided by the counsel, of successful business men of this world. But if it is her object to help her people to become Christ-like in character, she can learn nothing whatever from the wise and prudent business men of this world. Her wisdom is to sit at the feet of Jesus and learn of Him the value of money in His work, how to raise it, and what to do with it.

For instance, it is regarded as the highest wisdom of one sort to accumulate invested funds and to support the Disabled Clergy, the Widows and Orphans of the Clergy and the Episcopate, on the interest of these funds, so as to relieve the churches of the necessity of contributing to these objects.

That this is deemed a wise course to pursue is evident from the fact that good business men who have charge of their financial affairs are trying to do the same thing in all the other Dioceses of the Church.

But your committee very seriously doubt whether this course accords with the wisdom that pervades the New Testament. If giving is a means of grace, regular, constant giving, if it is a peculiar privilege to consider and care for God's poor, then surely it is not wise to deprive us of the necessity of contributing to the support of our Widows and Orphans and Disabled Clergy. It is, at least, very certain that large numbers of the contributors to these objects wish every dollar given each year to go to them each year. And they regard every dollar of that money that is kept back from them and is invested in stocks and bonds as money sadly misused and grievously diverted from the object for which it was given. It is also very certain that the great majority of our people would far rather have our Bishops supported on their yearly contributions of the people than on the interest of invested funds. It would help to keep them, what they are now, near and dear to the people and free from Episcopal arrogance and pride.

Your committee are persuaded that there is a far better system of church finance than any which we now possess. It is the system which has our Lord's sanction, if nothing more, and which may most properly be called the Christian system.

Despite the fact that our Lord and the early Church cared little or nothing for money, had little need for it, set small store by it as a power for good in the Lord's work, and made almost no effort to collect it, yet they had something to do with it, and as we should have expected, they dealt with it in a thoroughly systematic way.

There are in the Gospels five or six passages, and very many more in the Acts and Epistles, which cast light on our Lord's manner of dealing with money.

Given as briefly as possible, without their context, the passages from the Gospels are as follows:

(1) "Judas Iscariot saith, why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence and given to the poor. Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief and having the bag took away what was put therein." St. John xii: 4-6.

(2) "Now no man at the table knew for what intent He spake this unto him. For some thought because Judas had the bag, that Jesus said unto him Buy what things we have need of against the feast; or that he should give something to the poor." St. John xiii: 28, 29.

(3) There went "with Him the twelve and certain women which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary that was called Magdalene, and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's Steward, and Susanna, and many others which ministered unto Him of their substance." St. Luke viii: 1-3.

(4) "For His disciples were gone away into the city to buy food." St. John iv: 8.

(5) "They say unto Him shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread and give them to eat?" St. Mark, vi: 37.

From these well known passages and their context we may fairly draw the following inferences:

(1) That Jesus and His little company of Disciples had a common purse, bag, box, fund, or treasury, of which Judas was the keeper.

(2) That this fund was supplied by the purely voluntary contributions of His friends, without any begging or asking on His part.

(3) That out of this fund they met the ordinary expenses of the little company when they had any, and made contributions to the poor; and

(4) That while Judas was the treasurer of this fund, it was really Jesus money, and was properly disbursed only by His order.

Your committee submit that we have here clear and distinct outlines of a simple and practical system of Church finance: (1) the one Lord's treasury; (2) the sources of supply; (3) the purposes for which it was used; and (4) the authority required for any expenditure of it.

This is the system which Jesus used while He was on earth. It appears clearly in the Acts and Epistles; and we have much reason to believe that it was employed in the early Church until she began to leave her first love. It should be sufficient for us, however, to know that it had the sanction of Jesus, if it was not originated by Him.

Let us try to conceive how this system would look in modern setting.

1. In the Parishes, we should have in every congregation one, and only one, treasury, the Lord's treasury we should call it, into which would go all the gifts of the Lord's people to Him.

We would not take up special collections for Missions, or for the poor, or for any other object, except in the rare case of some great and special distress, like that caused by the famine in Judea in the days of Claudius Cæsar, and which led to the only special collection of which we have any record in the New Testament. Still less would we resort to any other of the hundred and one modern devices for raising money for the Lord's work.

We would diligently teach His people, as the Master taught them, that if they are Christians they are stewards or trustees, holding all their possessions at His disposal. We would teach them that He wants them to give, and to keep on giving, to acquire the habit and to cultivate the spirit of giving, just as they are to pray; that He wants them to give according to their ability, to give all that they can give, regardless of the uses to which He will have His money put; that He wants them to give freely, systematically, cheerfully, proportionately, a definite percentage of their income, the larger the better, and surely not less than a tenth; and that He wants them, each one, to give thus on the first day of the week into the Lord's treasury ("in store").

Then we would give them an opportunity once a week, on Sunday, to cast their free will offerings into the treasury, just as we do now, by passing plates around among the people at the services. And then we would formally and reverently present the people's gifts to Jesus, just as we are now required to do by the rubric in the regular service of the church.

On some day in the week or month or quarter, the minister, wardens and vestry would meet to disburse the Lord's money as nearly according to His mind as we could come from the closest study of the New Testament. For instance: He paid the simple expenses of the little company of disciples out of this fund; we would, therefore, be justified in paying the simple expenses of the Church, most economically administered, out of His treasury. He paid their expenses when they were on their missionary tours; we may, therefore, spend some of His money on missions. He gave to the poor out of this fund; we may do the same, &c. In a word, not a penny of the Lord's money should be spent for any purpose for which we could not show a fair precedent out of the New Testament.

2. This system is capable of application to the Diocese and to general Church, as well as to the parish.

As every congregation would have a Lord's treasury, so would every Diocese; so would the general Church in the United States. From each congregation a certain proportion of the offerings would go to the Diocesan treasury, to be disbursed by the Bishop and his council for the various departments of work in the Diocese. And from each Diocese a certain proportion would go into the general Church's treasury of the Lord, to be used as indicated above, in that larger field, for expenses, for the poor, and for missions in all the world.

Under this system there would be few invested funds, and they would not be given into the hands of irresponsible close corporations, but would be held by the Diocese or Council itself, duly incorporated for that purpose.

Your committee would offer in this connection the following suggestions:

(1) That the clergy be requested to teach their people the principles of Christian giving, and to enforce the practice of these principles as they would teach and enforce any other principles of Christian living.

(2) That the Council affectionately urge on the Churches the adoption of the Christian method of Church finance: the one Lord's treasury, supplied

Friday A. M.

y the weekly, systematic, proportionate free will offerings of the Lord's people, and disbursed as nearly as possible according to the mind of Jesus as expressed in the New Testament: for the simple expenses of the Church, for the poor, and for missions.

(3) That all other plans and devices for raising money for Christ's work, including all kinds of begging for money in the Lord's name be forever banished from our Church; and

(4) That those having charge of our Diocesan funds be requested to adjust their methods into accordance with the Christian system of Church finance.

Mr. Joseph Bryan read the report of the Committee on Finance:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Committee on Finance report that they have examined the accounts of Mr. James T. Gray, Treasurer, and have found them well and accurately stated, and his disbursements sustained by proper vouchers.

They find that the total amount received for the year ending May 13th, 1895, from the quotas assessed on each Parish for the General expenses of the Diocese, including the salaries of our Bishop and our Assistant Bishop, amounted to $7,140. There were also received some interest items which, to the amount of about $150, may be reasonably relied upon to supplement the Contingent Fund for the coming year.

Friday A. M.

The total absolutely necessary expenses of the Diocese, including the salaries and expenses of Bishops and Secretaries, the Examining Chaplains, the printing of the Journal and the small sum expended for stationery and extra printing, amount to $7,227.57.

There were, last year, some other extraordinary expenses incident to the consecration of Bishop Newton, which, with the repairs and insurance of the Episcopal residence, make the total expense $7,414.41.

It will thus be seen that even with the most economical management our indispensable expenses exceed our income from the Contingent Fund. No provision whatever being made, therefore, for any extraordinary, though almost inevitable, expenses.

The necessity, therefore, for the full and prompt payment of the Contingent Fund by the respective Parishes, was never so urgent as now. It should be remembered that our Assistant Bishop receives no allowance for house rent, and out of his salary has to pay for this prime necessity, which, even in any well regulated, self-supporting Parish, is provided for the minister. It is most desirable that a similar provision should be made for our Assistant Bishop, and this can be done, but can only be done by a fuller payment of the quotas due by each Parish.

Your committee desire to repeat what was said in the report of the Finance Committee of the last Council, that "the church does not lay an assessment on each communicant, but fixes the assessment upon the various Parishes at the rate of one dollar for each of its communicants, and that those who are able are expected and urged to contribute whatever may be necessary to pay the assessment upon their respective churches, that there may be no deficit."

If this is done, we will not be met with what promises to be an ever occurring deficit.

Your committee suggest that in the several parishes the collection of the contingent fund be not delayed until a few weeks before the Council, but that semi-annually a collection approximating in amount fifty cents for each communicant, be made, say in the Fall and in the Spring, in such way as the rector may deem most judicious.

As heretofore, the treasurer will keep his accounts open until the middle of June for the receipt of assessments, and all payments made before that time will be received and credited as if paid now.

There has been referred to your committee the report of a committee appointed at the last Council to examine the condition of the Secretary's office, in which report the expenditure of sums not exceeding ten or fifteen dollars for the purchase of certain books and rebinding of others mentioned in said report is recommended. Your committee recommend that the Bishop be authorized to make said expenditures whenever, in his judgment, there are funds in the hands of the treasurer available therefor. Your committee recommend that the sum of twenty-five dollars be paid to the assistant Secretary of this Council for his services. They further recommend that the sum of fifteen ($15) dollars be paid to the sexton of this church for his services.

Rev. O. M. Yerger read the following paper on the death of Rev.
T. L. Hynes:

A MINUTE.

It is with deep regret that the Council has just learned of the unexpected leath of our brother, the Rev. J. T. L. Hynes, Rector of Beckford Parish, Mount Jackson, Shenandoah County, Virginia.

Mr. Hynes has been with us only a few years but has endeared himself to those who knew him by his uniform courtesy and Christian character.

In his death we lament the loss of a faithful and efficient minister, brother and friend.

The Council expresses its heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved wife and children.

NELSON P. DAME,
O. M. YERGER.

This minute was adopted by the Council with a rising vote:

The Secretary was directed to send this minute to his family.

Friday A. M.

Mr. L. M. Blackford read the report of the Committee on the Brotherhood:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BROTHERHOOD.

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to submit the following report:

The decline to less than 200 members since the division of the Diocese is even greater than might have been expected and is to be deplored, yet the fact that the collections so nearly correspond with this figure, is encouraging. That the number should be, and by proper effort can be, readily trebled or quadrupled, your committee is satisfied.

The report of the Treasurer, filed herewith, announces the death, in the past year, of two honored and beloved members—Drs. Minnigerode and Nelson—for each of whom, unfortunately, collections so far reach only $190.00. The recent appointment of agents in six Richmond churches and a cheerful hope of soon securing many more in the Diocese at large, are reported by the Treasurer, so that the outlook, all things considered, is not discouraging.

Completing, as it does, at this Council the twenty-fifth year of its existence, the Brotherhood may claim to have effected, in proportion to its disbursements, as much good as any organization in the Diocese. Your committee, in conclusion, can only urge once more upon the clergy and laity its more zealous and constant support.

L. M. BLACKFORD,
JOHN G. WILLIAMS,
J. M. G. MCGUIRE.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE BROTHERHOOD.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., MAY 15TH, 1895.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia:

It becomes my painful duty to announce the death of two of the clergy since the last meeting of the Council, Rev. Charles Minnigerode, D. D., and Rev. Kinloch Nelson, D. D., who were members of the Brotherhood.

$189.95 has been collected for the heirs of Dr. Minnigerode, and $190.04 for the heirs of Dr. Nelson, and other assessments are in process of collection.

I have succeeded in getting an agent for the six churches in Richmond, who had none recently, and hope soon to have an agent appointed for all the churches in the Diocese and thereby get the Brotherhood on a higher footing than ever before.

into practical shape and be brought before the Council for action. And that said committee be requested to report at this session of the Council if pos-

Resolved, That the Council recommend to the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society that they continue the appropriation for the salary of the Evangelist.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin read the report of the Committee on the State of the Church:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Committee on the State of the Church would respectfully report—

As we, who are assembled in the one hundredth annual Council of the Diocese of Virginia, look back upon the way the Lord our God hath led our Church through the one hundred and ten years of its existence as a Diocese, we have manifold and abundant evidence that this Church is dear to God. One hundred years ago clouds and darkness were round about her, and many who were accounted wise in their generation predicted that the Protestant Episcopal Church would soon be extinct in Virginia; but He who can bring light out of darkness and make the weak to be strong, had ordained that this Diocese should have a very different history.

In Colonial days this Church had given the light of truth to those who had been and were to be most influential in founding this government, and God designed that she should train many more who would be strong through the truth to develop and defend the principles which were destined to give the light of liberty to the world. But God had planned for the Church in Virginia "greater things than these." From her fold were to go missionaries who would carry the gospel of the grace of God to the dark places of the earth, and by being faithful unto death in far off lands, would kindle zeal and love in the hearts of others. Within her borders was to be built a School of the Prophets where hundreds of faithful men, who loved the Lord Jesus Christ, would be trained to preach salvation from sin by faith in a crucified Saviour, and not by the works of the moral, ceremonial, ecclesiastical or ritual law, in all parts of this great country and in distant lands. This Church was to furnish Bishops to many Dioceses. She was to exert a con-rative influence in the Councils of the General Church by standing firm "the faith once delivered to the saints." God loved this Church, and the Godly bishops and ministers to be over His people, who were faithful shepherds to feed the flock.

Friday A M.

The weak and discouraged remnant of one hundred years ago has become the bands. The Bishops of the three Dioceses in Virginia were side by side in this Council. With thankful and hopeful hearts we can say: "Hitherto the Lord helped us."

The reports which have been made to this Council show that the blessing God has been upon our Diocese during the past year. We hear of "showers of blessing" in some places, and from no part of the Church has the dew of his grace been withheld. Our Bishops report that more than 100 persons have been confirmed during the year, and four new churches have been consecrated. Increased contributions have been made for Diocesan Missions. The children's lenten offering amounted to more than $2,000.

The Woman's Auxiliary has accomplished untold good. The work of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, organized in many of our congregations to pray and work for the salvation of young men, cannot be measured by statistics. There is peace and harmony, love, zeal and within our borders.

But we must not be "at ease in Zion." "There is yet much land" in our Diocese "to be possessed." Possibly at no time in our history have the conditions for the extension of our Church been better in Virginia. There are many towns, villages and country neighborhoods where our Church can be established, to bring direct and indirect good to all the people, if ministers be supported. Probably there has not been a time since the first Council of this Diocese assembled when there was as little prejudice against this Church. We must have ministers, and they must be supported. To this we would call special attention to the necessity of increased contributions to our Education Society and to the Diocesan Missionary Society.

The great majority of our candidates for orders come from the country, and most of them must be aided by the Education Society.

Our country churches while increasing in numbers, when ministers are aided to live by the help of the Diocesan Missionary Society, are, in many cases, decreasing in financial ability. The town and city churches are retarded from the country parishes. If we are truly grateful for past blessings, and present opportunities, let us show by our works increased interest in these two important societies.

We have a vast field for missionary work among the colored people of our Diocese. Virginia was the first of the colonies, and, we believe, the first people in the world to protest officially against the slave trade. Ours was at that time the only church in Virginia. The slave trade was forced upon

Untold evils followed in its train. We have the descendants of these slaves among us. They did not come willingly and we should not hold their descendants responsible for the evil. God permitted them to come that we might do them good. May the old Diocese be faithful to her duty.

We rejoice with our Bishop that the first step has been taken in our Diocese towards the restoration of the apostolic order of deaconesses.

A large number of Sunday-school scholars is reported. These children are the hope of the Church of the future. We should see that they be taught, so soon as they be able to learn, that they are members of the Church. We should see that they be grounded in the doctrines of the gospel as set forth in the Catechism, and that they be taught to love the services of the Church.

We believe there has been much improvement of late years in the music in our churches, but we think much more can be done to secure congregational singing, and thus increase the interest and spirituality of our worship, if the ministers will exercise the authority, and feel the responsibility, given them by the Canon, to give order not only what hymns, but what tunes are to be sung.

With so much to thank God for in the past, and so many present blessings, we must not forget that the duty of contending for the faith is ever a present duty of the Church Militant. "First pure, then peaceable," is the inspired rule we must follow. In this age of sentimental Christian love we are sorely tempted to forget that while every man may believe what he will, he cannot honestly teach, as a minister of this Church, what this Church has condemned as error, nor can he deny what this Church has affirmed, and what he promised to teach before he was admitted to the ministry of this Church. The Christian conscience of our age is very elastic, and it is for us to protest that no man can honestly teach Romanism or Rationalism while he wears the robes of office of this Church. The Prayer Book is our only standard of worship. The thirty-nine articles and the two creeds cannot be denied. The Holy Scriptures are inspired, and contain all things necessary to salvation. We believe that special attention should be called at this time to the doctrine of this Church. There are subjects classed under the head of Doctrines which, because the limitations are not clearly defined in Holy Scripture, may be called matters of opinion; upon these we do not touch. There are others which are clearly set forth as the "Faith once delivered," and are essentials of the Gospel of salvation—that Gospel of which St. Paul writes: "Though an angel from Heaven preach any other Gospel, let him be anathema." It is preaching "another gospel" to deny the great doctrine of the atonement. This is being done to an alarming extent by some who were ordained to teach the truth as this Church hath received the same.

In more than one pulpit the Incarnation and Resurrection of our Lord, as this Church holds these truths and as they are set forth in Holy Scripture, have been assailed. The virgin birth of our blessed Lord, and the Resurrection of the body, are denied. And as a consequence, the exceeding sinfulness of sin is not pressed upon the attention of men, and the absolute need of pardon through Him who was made sin for us is not preached.

Friday A. M.

We are thankful that, so far as we know, the Church in Virginia is sound, as heretofore, upon these great fundamentals; that from all our pulpits the truth is taught of an incarnate, crucified, risen and ascended Lord Jesus Christ, as the only name given under Heaven among men whereby we must be saved; but we feel called upon to protest against these denials of the faith wherever and by whomsoever made. And we pray that the God of our fathers, who has blessed our Diocese in the past and who is graciously blessing it at the present, will defend us from false teachers and keep us steadfast in the faith.

Rev. R. A. Castleman read the report of the Committee on Sunday-Schools:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

There is no need to urge upon so intelligent and earnest a body as this the great importance of Sunday-schools in the life of the Church; its twofold mission to train up the baptized children to a realization of the obligations their birthright thus acknowledged, and to gather in from the streets of the cities and the lanes of the country the lambs without a shepherd. We fear there is always need to urge upon parents not to make the Sunday-school the substitute for that home-training in the ways and the Word of the Lord, which is a sacred trust not to be delegated to any other. A comparison with last year's statistics shows a falling off in every point but one, as follows:

	Teachers.	Pupils.	Contributions.	Pupils Confirmed.
1894.. . . .	1,043	7,334	$4,008.27	154
1895.....	826	6,674	3,813.80	218

Decrease . . .	217	660	$194.47	Increase . . . 64

This apparent loss we are inclined to attribute to the fact that fewer parochial reports have been presented this year than last. The handsome contribution of the children to Diocesan Missions is a cause of thankfulness, particularly as being an evidence of deep interest, present and prospective, in the maintenance of the Church's work here in our beloved Diocese.

Friday A. M.

We confine ourselves to a few leading principles and we trust practical suggestions.

No system of instruction, however elaborate and in other respects thorough, should be allowed to displace the plain words and teachings of the Bible itself, and next to that of the Church's Catechism.

We can but emphasize the warning of last year's committee that we allow not our Sunday-schools "to be regarded as a mere money-raising agency—a mine to be worked for the gold that is in it."

In which connection we urge most earnestly the principle, that the Church ought to support the Sunday-school; the people who will not, or cannot, do the active work, should at least provide for the maintenance of the school. The children should not be called upon from their contributions to provide for the expenses of the school; but in their offerings be taught, as far as possible, the principle of Christian missions. A due proportion in giving should be inculcated. To which end, the offerings of one Sunday in each month devoted to each of the four great branches of the work (Parochial, Diocesan, Domestic and Foreign) would, where practicable, largely conduce. In any case, we commend to all the Churches the recommendation of the last Council (already followed to good effect by several Churches) of giving the contributions of one Sunday in each month to Diocesan Missions. Certainly all of the Sunday-schools could give the offerings of one Sunday in each quarter.

The children should be kept informed in advance of the objects to which their gifts are to be devoted, and from time to time be told the results of their contributions.

The relations of the minister to the Sunday-school should be carefully considered and conscientiously fulfilled. He must avoid the extremes of neglect and of too much interference. He should, by his frequent presence and kindly interest encourage the pupils and stimulate the officers and teachers—his co-workers—to the faithful fulfillment of their ministry; but not take the whole burden of responsibility upon himself.

The absence in so many reports of any statement as to the number of catechisings, indicates, we fear, a far too general neglect of this the pastor's peculiar duty. We are quite conscious of the difficulties in the way of so many of our over-worked clergy, yet think it possible to almost all to have, at least once a month, a catechising of the Sunday-school for fifteen minutes before the hour of Divine service; and are sure that such a practice would be very helpful to the Sunday-schools and to themselves.

The discontinuance of so many of our Sunday-schools in winter is, we fear, a fatal mistake. This annual stop and start afresh method is very hurtful. The element of continuity is of greatest value in this as in all matters of organization. The difficulties in some cases seem insurmountable, but the effort to overcome them is worth the making, and is often greatly blessed. Success consist not in numbers but in spirit; a few regularly present and faithfully taught will soon draw to themselves many more. Let our lay people ever bear in mind that they have a mission and a ministry as well as have the clergy; and that the call to service and to sacrifice is as strong upon them as upon their pastors.

Let those who cannot actively work in the Sunday-schools bear them upon their hearts, show what practical interest in them they can, and at least offer to our Heavenly Father earnest and constant prayer for wisdom and fidelity for those who are bearing the burden and heat of the day.

From prayers will come enkindled interest, and from enkindled interest, active participation.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. CASTLEMAN, Chairman.

The pastors of the various churches of the city, through the Rev. H. B. Lee, extended an invitation to the clergy of the Council to preach in their pulpits next Sunday morning.

The thanks of the Council were returned by a rising vote.

Rev. J. W. Johnson offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council expresses its continued interest in the work of the Church among the colored people of this State, and recommend to the rectors and Churches of the Diocese the wisdom of setting apart a certain day upon which a collection shall be taken up and forwarded to the Bishop as the Treasurer of the Diocese for this work.

The Council took recess until 4 P. M.

FRIDAY, 4 P. M.

The Council re-assembled, and was called to order by Bishop Newton.

Major John Page offered the following:

Friday P. M.

Resolved, That Thursday be inserted in Article I of Constitution where Wednesday now occurs.

Rev. G. W. Nelson offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be requested to urge upon the members of the Council to remain over Sunday, and that the Bishop make an address Sunday night.

A motion to adjourn was made and lost.

Rev. H. B. Lee raised the point that the substitute of Mr. Nelson was not in order.

The chair sustained the point and ruled out the substitute.

The motion of Major Page was put and lost.

After reading the minutes, singing the hymn "Blest be the tie that binds," and prayer by the President, the Council adjourned sine die.

F. M. WHITTLE, President.

EVERARD MEADE, Secretary.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ADDRESS OF RT. REV. A. M. RANDOLPH, LL. D.,

ON THE 16TH OF MAY, 1895, IN CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., BEFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA; DELIVERED BY INVITATION OF THAT BODY UPON THE OCCASION OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE ONE HUNDREDTH COUNCIL OF THE CHURCH IN VIRGINIA.

Before I begin my subject, I hope that I may be permitted to say that I feel it to be good to be here, to look into so many familiar faces, to think of my privileges in ministering to you in the years that are past and to look forward to the renewal of happy associations in the years to come. I suppose on an occasion like this you will expect me to speak of principles first, and of events only as they are illustrations of principles; and also to take you back to the springs of our Church life and legislation, so that we may account for the direction the stream has taken ever since.

The prophets and lawgivers of the Old Testament were inspired to educate the people of Israel to look at their past and to remember its lessons. That seems to be a principle of the Divine education of the race revealed in the Bible. "Hearken unto me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the Lord; look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. Look unto Abraham your father, and Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him." That principle, expressed by the Prophet, runs through the training of all the Old Testament people, and is the religious foundation of history for all nations and all ages.

I suppose that every student has realized that it is impossible to reach any adequate understanding of the present, either in religious or in political institutions, without tracing and finding their roots in the past. We cannot form a sound judgment of the value and the meaning of institutions until we get down to the firm basis of right and of popular love and experience upon which they rest, and which have given them their long tenure of life.

Miscellaneous.

Studying history is not like studying genealogy or geology. In both of these studies we begin at the present and go back to the past. We begin at the surface and go down to the lower strata. But in history we begin at the lower and come up to the higher. We begin at the beginning and work up to the present, and at each stage of the development of society we see the sentiment of justice, of right, or duty, or the sympathy, or the antipathy which gave birth to the institution at the beginning, holding and perpetuating it until we find it stronger to-day by reason of the deep roots that penetrate the soil of past generations. If we would study theology or Church history we do not begin by taking some doctrinal expression or ritual form of to-day or yesterday and finding out from that what was the doctrine and the form at the beginning. Our opinions upon such things are about as valuable as those of a reporter for a daily newspaper if we study them in that way. If we want to know about the doctrines of Christianity, about the will and the purpose of Christ in reference to the organization of the Church for the propagation of Christianity in the world, we will know nothing unless we go back to the New Testament, to the upper chamber at Jerusalem, to the Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles, and to the growth and development of the forms of Christian organization for the first three centuries. We must begin at the beginning if we would get anything like foundation principles from the study of history.

There is another valuable lesson that we learn from the study of the past, especially in the history of religion and of churches. We learn the fallacy of a principle which has done and is doing service still in the cause of ignorance, of error and of superstition. History teaches us that the past is like the present in its sins and its errors and its wanderings. It teaches the identity of human nature in all ages. It teaches us that the past has no more claim to infallibility than the present. The past has no mortgage on the right and the property of the present in the truth and in the freedom to search for the truth. As one has said, "To be a slave of old traditions is as great a folly as to be a slave of new quackeries; but the fault is in the slavish use, not in the old traditions or in the modern nostrums, and the former error is perhaps the less pardonable, as it is a sin against greater light."

Miscellaneous.

And then another lesson that we learn from the study of history general, and especially from the history of Christianity, is a lesson of tolerance, a lesson of patience, a lesson of sympathy and of fairness in making up our minds and forming our judgments. And that, perhaps, is a greater lesson for practical use and for our efficiency in dealing wisely with the present than any other that we could learn. Removed as we are, in the study of the history of the past, from the passions and the interests and the bitterness of the controversies of other generations, either in Church or State, we have a chance to see what they could not see. Even in our own short lives we are conscious of changes in our feelings upon public questions where we once deemed the slightest compromise as treachery to the truth. We have all learned that there are very few questions where nothing may not be said on both sides; very few where all the wise are on the one side and all the fools on the other; very few where there is not ignorance and obstinacy in the rank and file, and often the leaders of opposing parties upon all questions. We have learned that those who have the truth are not always tolerant in their advocacy of it, and, because they are not, the truth suffers and is wounded in the house of its friends. On the other hand, we have seen the advocates of toleration and the self-appointed exponents of freedom of opinion more contemptuous of opposition than the narrow-minded people who are the objects of their sweeping condemnation. History delivers these lessons upon human nature as revealed in the controversies and the struggles of the past in Church and in State. And then what a good thing it is to learn from history, respect for those who differ from us, and kind consideration of conscientious opposition. How it civilizes and renders us more efficient for dealing with men and with the complex problems that present themselves in religion and in life.

It is humiliating, and yet it is salutary, to learn how good and evil mingle in the best men and find their way into the motives that move the best of causes. It is hard to see men that we love in the wrong, and they often are in the wrong, and it is our duty to see it when they are. It is hard to acknowledge that the people against whom we have a prejudice, or at least who are uncongenial to us, are in the right. Patrick Henry was not the ablest but perhaps the most attractive man and the noblest spirit that adorns the story of our revolutionary struggle for independence. He begun his career and won his first triumph as an orator by his splendid advocacy of a wrong which was absolutely indefensible upon any principle of justice and of law; and yet how hard it is, when we read the story, not to sympathize with the splendid courage and fervor of the young orator, and with the judge and the jury who lost their heads as they listened to him, and with the crowd who bore him in triumph on their shoulders. But the triumph was a blow to justice, and that always demands retribution and sows seeds which last long and are hard to kill.

The Episcopal Church in the colonies, as in the mother country, was the Church established by the Government and supported by the taxes of all the people. Its members had no idea of any Church but that, no conception of the possibility of a Church without that. Who will wonder at them then for regarding themselves as persecuted and oppressed when, after the Revolution, the crash came which stripped them of the revenues of a State Church, and in its stead established religious equality? No wonder that they thought that the world was then coming to an end and that Christianity was lost. We can sympathize with the thousands of noble men and women in the Church who believed thus, and we are repelled by the bitterness and the coarseness with which the Church was assailed by Christians under other names; but who doubts to-day that those who were instrumental in destroying the establishment in Virginia were right and those who upheld it were wrong? In the complex affairs of human history we must be prepared oftentimes to find our friends in the wrong and those whom we call our foes in the right. We must be prepared to respect conflicting views and to give equitable consideration to conscientious opposition; if we do not, all that history will do for us will be to confirm us in our preconceived opinions, and we will use it to prove our side, but it will teach us nothing. It will administer no discipline to our characters or illumination to our understandings, and we will find in it no light to warn us against the dangers which have brought disasters in the past.

The greatest historic interest of the settlements in the colonies and in the original thirteen States is to be found in the fact that they were small and distinct and independent communities. Both in Church and in State they were little children, and they grew to what they were to be; grew in isolation, as it were: and in some senses isolation and privacy are as necessary for the growth of ideas and institutions as for the growth of children. The difference, for example, between the older States of our country—Virginia, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania and Maryland—in ideas of government, in political and religious education, and the newer States, is to be found in the fact that the older ones grew from infancy, and the new ones were, so to speak, born grown up. They had not the schooling and the wholesome discipline of childhood. They had their constitutions and their politics ready-made for them, and they took them ready-made without thinking what they meant, without grasping the principles which they embodied. The older States worked them out, fought over them in the arena of political and ecclesiastical discussion. They had upon them all the responsibility of striking out a new path in government, to meet the exigencies of their conditions, and that necessity stimulated and developed in them an understanding of the ideas at the bottom of institutions. This is the reason why the older States and Dioceses are far more interesting in their history than the new ones. You admit a State into the Union to-day. That State has only copied its State Constitution from the older ones. You admit a Diocese; it is the same thing. They take their constitution and forms, wholesale, ready-made, like a boy brought up in luxury, inheriting a fortune from a father, whose wisdom and energy and financial ability gained it for him. The boy knows nothing, and oftentimes the fortune is wasted.

Virginia was separated from the world in her colonial life and her earlier days as a member of the National Confederation, as we cannot imagine now. Step by step she grew in public sentiment and in knowledge of law and government. Her public men had time to think, were obliged to think. Their conditions for thinking and for pure free life, and honest calm conclusions, were in some respects more favorable than those of the modern public man. Something of privacy is surely needed for healthy growth. For men or for communities to have the world staring at them through the spectacles of the telegraph and the newspapers helps to make them self-conscious and artificial and corrupt in motive. Public criticism that is healthy and natural is an antiseptic to corruption, but sensationalism is depraving to society and to the individual. It is well to bear this principle in mind, that we may understand some features in the early history of Virginia, both as a colony and a State, which otherwise seem unaccountable. The period gave birth to some of the noblest women and to many of the wisest political thinkers the world has ever seen. Their environment contributed to their greatness. They lived out of the glare and out of the publicity of our complex civilization. There was nothing like so much waste and more of concentration in their lives than there often is in our life. They grew, and growth is a slow and silent process.

The Council here is the one hundredth Convention of our Church in Virginia. In the year 1795 there was no Convention, and between 1799 and 1812 there were many years when the deep depression of the Church led to and perhaps compelled, from poverty and hopelessness, the abandonment of conventional meetings. The failure in these years makes this the one hundredth annual Convention.

The first Convention of this Church in Virginia assembled in Richmond on the 18th day of May, 1785, two years after the close of the war of the Revolution. It was composed of thirty-six clergymen and seventy-one laymen. Among the clergy who answered to the roll-call were: Devereaux Jarratt, from Dinwiddie; David Griffith, from Fairfax; Alexander Belmain, from Frederick; John Buchanan, from Henrico; and James Madison from James City; and the list of the laity contains names of individuals and of families among the familiar and most distinguished in the history of that generation.

In the year before, an act had been passed by the General Assembly of Virginia to grant to all churches applying for it an act of incorporation. The Presbyterians opposed with bitterness the act and the principle of the incorporation of churches, but, with Mr. Henry and other able advocates, it was passed by a two-thirds vote. and, under the general law for the incorporation of churches, the clergy of the Episcopal Church petitioned the Legislature for an act of incorporation, which, under the supervision of Patrick Henry, was promptly passed by that body.

This act of incorporation was the first Constitution and the fundamental law of the Episcopal Church in Virginia. The State provided the Constitution for the Church, defining all the functions and the powers and the limitations of the governing bodies. Upon the basis and under the authority of this fundamental law this first Convention was organized and clothed with power for ecclesiastical legislation.

The Church had been disestablished and the bonds between it and the State had been severed, never to be reunited; but we may detect, in this act of incorporation, the principle, in the minds of those early churchmen, that the State must be behind the Church as the fountain of its authority in its governmental capacity. The idea of the Church, as a voluntary spiritual brotherhood, under its Divine Founder, and under the authority committed by him to the spiritual sovereignty of His people; and the idea of the function of the temporal government as limited to the protection of the rights of property used for religious purposes, and to the protection of the constitutions and laws of the churches, in so far as they were not in violation of the civil law—these principles had not yet dawned upon the minds of the Church in Virginia, though many of its ablest members in the State believed them and were largely instrumental in the passage of the celebrated act of religious freedom, enacted, a few months after this first Virginia Convention adjourned, by the General Assembly.

As we look back, over one hundred and ten years, to that Convention of 1785, which is the mother of all our Conventions and Councils ever since, to the history that was behind it, and to the prospect that was before it, to the problems it had to solve and to the almost utter lack of light it had to solve them, we cannot but see in them a body of faithful and manly men. They issued an address to the members of the Church, and one expression in that address is significant as an evidence of the hold of the Episcopal Church upon the masses of its people, and of one cause, among others, of the tenacity of that hold. The glebes had not been confiscated, and were not until seventeen years later. In making their appeal to the hearts of the people they say: "Of what is the Church now possessed? Nothing but the glebes and your affections." They were certain that the people loved their Church. It might seem to one who is a stranger to the hold of the Prayer-book upon Episcopalians in their homes and in the sanctuary of worship, in the training of their children around the fireside, and in the house of God on Sunday; it might seem difficult to understand why these people clung to their Church with such tenacity and fidelity.

The Church was an Episcopal Church in name, but without Episcopacy. Confirmation was a law and a privilege and a duty, but none of them had ever been confirmed. Not one of these men who sat in that first Council had, except the clergy, conformed to that institution which they were taught was an apostolic right, and, by the law and the traditions of their Church, the door of entrance to the Holy Communion, which is the bond of membership in the visible and the invisible Church of Christ. From the year 1609 to 1785 they had seen thousands of men, of all classes, brave the ocean in their little ships, impelled by the love of adventure, in search of home, of freedom, of wealth and of power. Nobles and gentlemen had left their homes and their dignities in the mother-land, and had crossed the sea upon missions of duty, of honor and of humanity, but no Bishop had given up his palace for the dangers of the sea to visit these children in hundreds of churches in America. The missionary spirit in these successors to the Apostles was not adequate to the trials, the dangers and the sacrifices supposed to be involved in a work which, if they were loyal to the Church from which they received their commission, and loyal to Christianity, as they professed to believe it, they must have acknowledged and felt to be a duty. The Bishops had done nothing to make these Episcopalians love their Church. The devotion and fidelity of all orders of the ministry to their high calling are powerful factors in the strength of the Church among the people. Thank God, we live in an age when, as far as I know, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church are, as a rule, abundant in labors. They do not spare themselves. They are not cowards about work. But surely those sheep in the wilderness of our colonial Church must have had hard thoughts about their chief shepherds who ruled them, but never came to see them, and to greet them, and to bless them in the name of Christ and his Church.

And then what confusion and what inefficiency in the discipline of the Church over its clergy and laity at a time and under conditions when the lack of such discipline would be fatal to its progress and influence for good upon the people of this new land. Much of what we hear of the immorality and the worldliness of the colonial clergy, both from friends and foes to the establishment, may be only specimens of irresponsible and cruel judgments of persons utterly careless of investigating the facts relative to the slanders which they uttered and often put on record. Even in this generation, which had two centuries more of training in the Christian laws of social order and brotherhood, how reckless are the majority of people in pronouncing judgments upon characters and upon questions where there is absolute neglect of the slightest attempt to ascertain the facts. Among clergy and laity, it may be that you and I have heard the evil report of our brethren retailed in a tone which savors of the disposition to evil speaking, which is the special characteristic of one phase of society, because it belongs alike to all, and which is the antithesis of St. Paul's definition of Christian love in relation to the control of our tongues, when we speak of each other, that it "rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth." The rivalries of an institution, especially in the rivalries of churches, are apt to exaggerate the faults and the foibles of its representatives, and besides the Christian bodies of other forms of organization which had grown up in the colonies, who looked upon the establishment as a denial of their religious and political rights, there were a large body of the most intelligent members of the Church itself who had lost faith in the principle and in the practical working of a State Church. All these would listen, we may suppose upon the general assumptions of human nature, to the evil report of the colonial churches. And then there were no courts of investigation for ecclesiastical offences—no tribunals to which the clergy could appeal for their vindication, and to which the vestries could appeal for their condemnation. The Bishop, the centre of the disciplinary machinery of the Church, was thousands of miles away, knowing nothing, and, perhaps in some cases, caring nothing for the quarrels of ministers and vestries among a semi-barbarous people, as he chose to regard them. But, making due allowance for all these considerations to account for slanders and irresponsible imputations upon the clergy, there can be but little doubt that, while there were fervent men and spotless gentlemen among them, the general standard was low and cold and formal, and, as a class, they were powerless to remedy evils and to win the people. Many of them were doubtless adventurers and ecclesiastical waifs who sought a refuge in this new world when they were driven away from the old. The Bishop of Derry and others testify that several clergymen who had been driven out of their Dioceses found good livings in the American colonies.

So this little Convention of clergy and laity looked out upon the Church they were to represent and to legislate for, with the respect of the people outside of it forfeited, with the incubus of the establishment, or rather its traditions, arraiguing all other Christians against it, and paralyzed for manly self-exertion and Christian sacrifice by the long lethargy engendered by the nursing care of the State. But still they said that the people—the mothers and fathers—loved the Church. It must have been the Bible and the Prayer-Book in their homes, and taught to their children by godly mothers, that held their love and loyalty during those dreary years.

The Convention legislated for the support of the clergy by a system of voluntary contributions—the first legislation upon that principle in the Episcopal Church—a long step in its emancipation from bondage and in assuming its place beside the great Protestant Churches upon the continent of America. It also passed laws for the discipline of its clergy, and it elected a Standing Committee.

It seems that a Standing Committee has its origin in the conception and the recognition of the principle that the people constitute the governing power in the Church. The legislative power is exerted by the people through the Convention which they elect to represent them. The Convention is composed of the clergy and laity as representatives of the body of the Church, and, as coming from the people, they elect the Bishop, and the Bishop, through them, is created by the people. The Standing Committee is elected by the Convention to discharge certain judicial and executive functions in co-ordination with executive and judicial function in the Episcopate. The Episcopate is alone as the clergy are alone, only in the discharge of ministerial and spiritual functions and duties. They both come from the people and they exercise governmental powers and functions as representatives of the people.

The difference between the governmental powers of the Bishop and those of a member of a Diocesan Convention, or of a Standing Committee, in relation to the sovereignty of the people from which they both come, is only a difference as regards the term of office for which the powers are confided to them. In the case of a Bishop the power is a permanent trust, confided to him by the people when he is elected by a Convention and his consecration is consented to by the people in all the Dioceses. In the case of a member of a Convention, or of a Standing Committee, it is a temporary trust and goes back to the people when the term of office in either case expires. This difference explains the principle underlying the constitutional provision for the composition of the General Convention consisting of co-ordinate branches: one a House of Bishops, representing the permanent trust of power from the people, and the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, representing that same power, to be exercised during the term of the existence of the legislative body. When that term expires the power goes back to the people and comes from them again with each Triennial Convention. The power in the House of Deputies is direct from the will of the people every three years. They represent the changes in the popular will—the growth of ideas and principles in the popular mind. As such they are directly responsible, and therefore responsive, to the will of the people. They constitute the hand by which the will of the people holds and controls the supreme legislature. Therefore, co-ordinate power with the House of Bishops, which means not only power to originate legislation, but power to veto legislation coming from the other House, is confided to them by the Constitution. But, for certain judicial and representative functions, co-ordinate with the power of the Bishop, the sovereignty of the body of the Church needs a permanent organ for its expression and its application to government. In a Diocese, for these purposes the Standing Committee, elected by the Diocesan Convention each year, constitutes that organ. A Bishop admits a postulant for the Holy Ministry, but this is all that he can do. Before that postulant can become a candidate for Holy Orders he must pass the judgment and receive the consent of the Standing Committee. The same is true at each stage of his advance from candidacy to Deacon's orders and from Deacon's orders to the Priesthood. At each stage the Standing Committee has the power to close the door of the ministry and to shut him out. Thus, for the creation of the ministry itself, the Bishop and the Standing Committee, representing the people, are co-ordinate powers in each Diocese. Again, for the creation of Bishops, upon the same principle, the House of Bishops and the Standing Committees in all the Dioceses are co-ordinate powers. As the Standing Committee in the single Diocese has the power to close the doors of the orders of the ministry, the majority of Standing Committees in all the Dioceses has the power to close the door to the Bishopric and to say whether or not a Bishop-elect shall be consecrated. In the interval between the sessions of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, every three years, the Standing Committees of the Dioceses constitute the permanent organ for the voice of the people in the creation of the Bishops of the American Church. Thus the will, the judgment, the religious principles of the people are kept in constant circulation through all the functions of Church government from the head and through all parts of the body. That is the governmental philosophy of the functions of the Standing Committee, and these principles found their earliest expression in the election of a Standing Committee by the Convention of this Diocese in the year 1785.

The theory running through the whole organization is that the spiritual sovereignty of the people is the source and the fountain of the governmental powers of the Christian Church. The American Church, in planting its organization upon that principle, separated itself from the Church of England by a revolution as complete, so far as its government is concerned, as that which separated the American colonies from the personal government of the kings of England, and erected them into a government based upon the popular will, as expressed in the election of presidents and legislatures and congressmen by the suffrages of the people.

The next Convention met in the following May, 1786, and elected David Griffith for their Bishop, and thus completed the discharge of their functions and asserted the doctrine of the American Episcopacy that Bishops come from the people, and in their functions of rule and administration are limited by and amenable to law, having its fountain in the voice of the people.

Such principles, involving such a revolution in ideas of government, must have been growing a long time before these laymen and clergy expressed them in laws for the government of the Church. They had been convinced of their truth long before they formulated them into laws. The democratic principle in government had been growing in the colonies almost, we may say, from the landing at Jamestown. Held down by traditions, by law, by kingship, and by aristocracy, yet it was in the minds of men growing all the time, and the new land, with the ocean stretching 3,000 miles between it and the old country, where the kings and the aristocracies lived, was a good place for democratic ideas to germinate and to grow. God planted these people here, where the great Christian principle of the worth of that individual soul, of the liberty of each soul to approach God through Christ without the mediation of priesthood, or the intervention of caste, or the dominion of external authority over the conscience, where these principles of primitive Christianity, so long overlaid by the tyrannies of human powers and the night of human ignorance, might have a goodly soil and the free air of heaven to grow, and they did grow.

A few months after that first Virginia Convention of the Church adjourned, an act was introduced into the Legislature of Virginia for the establishment of religious freedom, and it passed on the 16th day of December, 1785. It was the first act of religious freedom that was ever passed in any legislative assembly upon the face of the earth.* Acts of toleration had been passed in England and New

*The celebrated Bill of Rights, written by George Mason, was passed June 12, 1776. It embodies the same principle as the act for the establishment of religious freedom, written by Mr. Jefferson and passed in 1785; but that was simply a declaration, which left the statutory provisions and Common Law doctrines concerning the Church unrepealed and unaltered. The last section of the Bill of Rights presents the principle of the right of all men to the free exercise of religion in a very striking way, and is as follows: "That religion, or the duty which we owe to our Creator, and the manner of discharging it, can be directed only by reason and conviction, not by force or violence; and therefore all men are equally entitled to the free exercise of religion according to the dictates of conscience, and that it is the mutual duty of all to practice Christian forbearance, love and charity towards each other."

England, but toleration is not freedom. Toleration implies a right on your part to deny to me my freedom, but out of Christian charity and largeness of mind you sacrifice that right for my benefit, and as a concession out of your own goodness. Religious freedom is a different principle from that. As an act for the establishment of religious freedom, as defined in the preamble of the law, it was absolutely original in the annals of legislation.

Thomas Jefferson was the author of that remarkable document. It begins in these words: "Whereas, Almighty God hath created the mind free, so that all attempts to influence it by temporal punishments or burdens or civil incapacitations tend only to beget habits of hypocrisy and meanness, and are a departure from the plan of the Author of our holy religion, who, being Lord of both body and mind, yet chose not to propagate it by coercions, as was His almighty power to do: that the impious presumption of legislators and rulers civil as well as ecclesiastical, who, being themselves but fallible and uninspired men, have assumed dominion over the faith of others setting up their own opinions and modes of thinking as the only true and infallible, and as such endeavoring to impose them on others hath established or maintained false religions over the greatest part of the world and in all time." That is the beginning and this is the close: "That to suffer the civil magistrate to intrude his powers into the field of religious opinions and to restrain the profession or the propagation of principles on suspicion of their ill tendency is a dangerous fallacy, because he, being the judge, will make his opinion the rule of judgment, and approve or condemn the sentiments of others only as they shall square with or differ from his own; that it is time enough for the rightful purposes of civil government to interfere when principles break out into overt acts against peace and good order; and finally, that truth is great and will prevail if left to herself; that she is the proper and sufficient antagonist of error, and has nothing to fear from the conflict unless by human interposition disarmed of her natural weapons—free argument and debate—error ceasing to be dangerous when it is permitted freely to contradict them."

Then follows the law establishing religious freedom. There is something pathetic in the comments of the Rev. Francis L. Hawke in these noble words of Jefferson. They illustrate the domination of a personal prejudice overshadowing a broad and beautiful mind. Hawkes, who was himself a political thinker, would have been first to confess that Jefferson as a man of intellect and of genius for government was the most gifted statesman that the country has produced; but he listened to the ignorant clamors of ecclesiastics against the man who, as they supposed, had destroyed the Episcopal Church and deprived them of their livings. And then, without investigating the grounds, he had absorbed the traditional imputation upon him of the Federalists, that he was an enemy of Christianity. He was only following the example of many ministers of the gospel and good men of our and other churches—who have enjoyed the benefits and the blessings of religious freedom, of which Jefferson was the great champion, in reviling his memory.

The abuse that Jefferson received may have precipitated him into errors, and sometimes a tone of bitterness towards the representatives of Christianity of his day, who in their lives and in their spirits were in too many instances a reproach to their profession. Whatever may have been his critical opinions upon the doctrines of Christianity or the history of the Christian Church—and upon these questions we have no reason to believe that he made the slightest claim to be an authority—we know this much, that he could not have gotten the principles of this act of religious freedom from any one of the prevailing schools of skeptical thought of the age in which he lived. The theories of government propagated by Rousseau were dreams of individual liberty, which have been proven to be in the attempts to realize them in the French Revolution, destructive of government and subversive of liberty and ruin to all moral relations. Jefferson saw that as clearly as you do. He did not get his ideas from the positive philosophy of the eighteenth century, nor from the doctrine of that was materialism, and the outgrowth of the denial of free agency and the assertion of the law of necessity; and if there was anything repulsive to the mind of Jefferson, it was that system of speculative thought represented by the ingenuity of Calvinistic speculation. Unconsciously to himself, perhaps he got his principles of religion from his mother, who taught him in the New Testament. Jesus Christ had said: My kingdom is not of this world," and had told Peter, who drew his sword in the garden of Gethsemane, "Put up thy sword; they that take the sword shall perish by the sword." Jesus Christ had said to his disciples, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The inspired Paul had said, "Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision," neither high nor low, neither affirmation nor negation, neither Episcopacy or non-conformity, "availeth anything but a new creature" in Christ Jesus. This is the fountain of religious freedom, and of spiritual responsibility to God, of each soul that is born into the world under the light of Christianity.

Who doubts to-day that the enactment of that law and the principles of that declaration of religious freedom were blessings to all forms of Christianity and to the propagation of religion in Virginia, and to the Episcopal Church more, perhaps, than any other? If it had remained an establishment it would have died. It was almost dead when the emancipation from the burden came. My friend, the honorable Mr. Venable, of Virginia, in an address on "Democracy in Virginia," after some kind and just words about the colonial Church, says: "In the established Church all friends of free government saw an opponent to every principle of enlightened freedom. Their hostility was not directed against the Church itself, so much, as against the power it drew from its alliance with the State." And those words are true. When Bishop Meade asked Chief-Justice Marshall for a contribution to restore an old church, he replied, "I will give you the ten dollars, but it is no use. The Episcopal Church is dead and cannot be restored."

There were many good men, perhaps the majority of the era of which I am speaking, who misinterpreted the providence of God in his dealings with the old Church of that generation. Men of means, who could support a clergyman from their own incomes, thought, when the revenues from the Church were cut off by the disestablishment, that hope was gone. And when the glebes were confiscated they concluded that the end had come. Preposterous conclusion; for the glebes under the new state of things would have cost the Church far more than they could possibly have contributed to its temporal welfare, and that was even then comparatively little, and now it would have been next to nothing.

Miscellaneous.

It seems to be the law of all revolutions, that we see the worst of them at first. We here thirty years ago thought that liberty and peace had gone from our Southern land. We have learned better to-day, and things are far better than we ever dreamed they would be, and doubtless better than they could have been without the tribulation of the conflict. All changes seem to tend towards disintegration. Seventy-five years ago Sir Walter Scott could not speak, without tears in his eyes, of the projects of the Liberals for reforming the corrupt Parliament and introducing a popular element in the corporations. He honestly believed that all honesty, loyalty and chivalry in England would be lost if his great kinsman, the Duke of Buccleugh, should be reduced to the privileges of an ordinary citizen, and that when the King's right to lead a useless and licentious court at Brighton was questioned by some "atrocious Radical" it was a fearful sign of the insubordination and depravity of the times. If the corporations of England are controlled by the popular element, and it is safe to say that the municipal government and the management of the business interests of the English people are equalled for wisdom and stability in the modern world.

The great reforms in England during this century, such as the emancipation of the Jews and the removal of disabilities imposed by the English Church upon the Roman Catholics and dissenters have strengthened and widened the spiritual influence of that Church. The Irish Church is free, and in my judgment the English Church will be free from the bonds of the State before another century has passed away; and when the emancipation comes, the philosopher of history will trace its genesis to these first Conventions of the American Church and the act of religious freedom of the Virginia Legislature.

I have taken you to some of the springs of the streams of our Church life and legislation in Virginia. I might point you to others which had a wide and beneficent influence upon the religious character of the Church and her people in Virginia, and upon the Christian civilization of the whole country. The legislation of those early Conventions announced the principles and laid out the lines upon which we have been building ever since.

The solicitude of the Church for the education of her children, and especially her sense of the importance of an educated ministry, appear in resolutions and provisions to that end in Conventions from 1786 to 1794; and after the dark, sorrowful years from 1812 on to the time of Bishop Meade and to the birth of our Seminary and our High School. They held the conception of the meaning of laws for the discipline of clergy and laity as designed to be obeyed and to be executed, and not as sentiments entombed in dead statutes, to be forgotten when inconvenient, or from favor, or upon the fallacy that the public process in the punishment of offences entails evil greater than their immunity from law—a pagan, antinomian, red republican conception of the meaning of law. Legislation expressing that principle appears in all the proceedings of the early Virginia Conventions, from 1787 to recent years.

I might point you to the stand that the Virginia Church has taken in the Diocesan legislation and upon the floor of the General Convention from the first, in 1786, down to our own generation, upon the principles of the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century and the churchmanship of the New Testament in the first century. God grant that no bribes of the world, no clouds of ignorance, no illusions of human nature may tempt her to leave her foundations upon the rock of a free gospel and the Living Word and build it upon the sands of human traditions.

It has not been my purpose in this address to speak of the founders or even allude to the names that adorn and illustrate the history of our Church life and legislation in Virginia—of Hunt and Whittaker in 1609 and 1612 and 1620, of Jarrett and Buchanan in 1750 and 1790, and of that band of forgotten heroes of our faith, clergymen and laymen, whose names have dropped out of the records and memories of men, but are not forgotten by Him, the Head and Bishop of souls, who holds in His memory every brave sacrifice, every faithful performance of duty, every true word spoken, and every true life lived for Him, and in the love of humanity, for whom He died and for whom He lives forever. I might have spoken of your Bishops—of Moore, so loving in Christ and for Christ, and out of the fountain of his love bringing the streams of hope and revival to the scattered flocks and the desolated churches in Virginia. Of Meade, so firm and gentle, so brave and strong with men, so humble and childlike with God; a man of truth, a man of duty, a goodly gentleman and soldier of Christ whose memory, for our children's sake, we must keep green forever. Of Johns, whose grace and fervor and abundant labors are still fresh in the memory of the present generation. Of Sparrow, whose name we place in the front rank of Christian philosophers and thinkers; our teacher, whose memory to us, who sat at his feet and learned of him in the happy years of our seminary life, comes to-day with gratefulness to God for so good a gift to our generation. I could not close my address without a mention of these names as specimens of many others, of clergy and laity, which will always live upon the pages of the history of the Church in Virginia. My time has gone and I will not keep you longer from the duties of legislation in the Council for which you are assembled.

For ten years I was a helper and a fellow-worker with your Bishop in his sacred duties as Chief Shepherd of your churches and congregations. I have received gracious welcome and kindness in your sweet homes, and have laid my hands in Confirmation upon the heads of your precious children and of many, so many, of whom you love. I cannot forget this, and I may venture to hope that sometimes you will think of it too, and when the thought comes to you, that you will ask God's blessing upon the work He has given me to do in that sister Diocese which is bound to you by all the living ties of a common family life, and which shares with you the memories, the principles, the hopes and the inspirations for the future which come to us from our common history in the past.

To my dear brethren, the Bishop and the Assistant Bishop of Virginia, I extend my loving congratulations on this the anniversary of the hundredth Council of your Diocese. To my friends of the clergy, than whom I know of no body of men more devoted and more self-sacrificing in the work of the Christian ministry, I must say in a word what has helped me in my own ministry, and I humbly hope it will help you as you go on again to bear the burden and heat of the day in the work God has given you in the fields of your Diocese. You must preach the gospel—not something suggested by it, but germane to it, but the gospel itself. That is what men want and that is what they will listen to. You must preach the doctrines of Christianity as the foundation of the ethics of Christianity. If you preach the ethics without the facts and the doctrines, your people will lack a foundation for their faith and will be swept from their moorings when the floods come in, and the floods are always coming. You must be patient with men as you preach to them. If they will not listen, if they will not be won, if they seem to you to be the victims of inveterate illusions and delusions that hide the gospel from them, still you must be patient. You must remember the lessons we have been learning from the history of the Church in Old Virginia—lessons of tolerance, lessons of human and of Christian Brotherhood under all variations of opinions and ecclesiastical forms. You must remember that God made men's minds free for the discipline of their souls, and for their education in the knowledge of Him and His salvation. You must be patient with them, as God is patient with you and with all his wandering children in the midst of this naughty world.

You must think of the tradition which comes out of the twilight of history, from the noblest figure that is portrayed in the first book of your old Bibles. The touching tradition is this: "When Abraham sat at his tent-door, waiting to entertain strangers, he espied an old man, stooping and leaning on his staff, weary with age and travel coming towards him. He received him kindly, washed his feet and provided supper, but observing that the man ate and prayed not, nor begged for a blessing on his meat, asked him why he did not worship the God of Heaven? The old man told him that he worshipped fire only, and acknowledged no other God; at which answer Abraham grew so zealously angry that he thrust the old man out of his tent and exposed him to the terrors of a wild night. When the old man was gone, God called Abraham and asked him where the stranger was; he replied, 'I have thrust him away because he did not worship Thee;' and God answered him, 'I have borne with him these hundred years, though he dishonored me, and couldst thou not endure him for one night when he gave thee no trouble?' Upon this, saith the story, Abraham fetched him back again and gave him hospitable entertainment and wise instruction. Go and do thou likewise, and thy charity will be rewarded by the God of Abraham." My brethren of the ministry, we must be patient with men as God is patient with us.

And you, my brethren of the laity, must remember that the Church is yours, that your ministers come from you, and under God you have placed them as watchmen and stewards and messengers to your souls. You must take care of them. By your sacrifice you must lift them above care—anxious care for themselves and their families—that they may be free to give all their powers and faculties to your service for Christ's sake. You must pray for them, and in answer to your prayers the lambs of your flocks will be gathered into the folds of your churches, and those that are out of the way will be won to come home again, and the waste places of your Virginia will be built up again, and the great gospel will have free course to the hearts of your people throughout all your borders.

God bless you. God bless the old Church in the three Virginias. God bless it, and keep it pure in all the Dioceses of our great, our common, our beloved country.

REPORTS OF PROFESSORS OF THE SEMINARY.

REPORT OF THE DEAN.

To the Trustees of the Theological Seminary of Virginia :

As Dean of the Seminary I would report that the present session has been a satisfactory one. I think there has been an unusual spirit of study and devotion among the students.

During the first part of the session I met the Senior Class in Hebrew in the prophecies of Isaiah, until Prof. Wallis took them off my hands.

The Middle Class has studied in Hebrew with me, this session, the books of Jonah, Joel and Malachi, and the Messianic and other Psalms.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. PACKARD.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submits the following report of the studies pursued in his classes during the current session:

The Junior Class, for part of the session reciting once a week, have studied Chadbourne's Natural Theology, and have passed their examination on it.

The Middle Class, reciting five times a week, have studied Butler's Analogy, my outlines of Theology, with Knapp as reference; in connection with this, a study of the doctrinal contents of the Epistles of New Testament. The Analogy has been finished with examination, and they are in review of the remaining work. To these have been added, during part of the session, recitations twice a week, as in connection with the issues of the day, "Mead's Supernatural Revelation." Also Essays in Systematic Divinity and exercises in the construction of sermons.

The Senior Class, with three recitations per week and the Wednesday evening exercises, have studied the Articles with Boulton, with references to Burnett and Browne. They have also, in Natural Theology, studied "Hopkin's Outline Man," and Homiletics, in Dr. Broadus' Book with exercises.

I have also gone over with this class, the history of the Prayer-Book, as to its sources, material, as also its changes in the Church of England and in this country, using Dr. Butler's History, Canon Barry's Student's Prayer-Book, and the more elaborate work of Blakeney, in the way of reference. Along with this, a course of lectures on Liturgics, and one on Christian Ethics.

As additional, to the ordinary course, I have given to this class, with the usual text-books, instruction in Church Polity and Pastoral Theology.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY AND CANON LAW.

Owing to a prolonged illness in the summer I was unable to return to my professional duties until January, 1895, and by the kindness of the Trustees, my classes were taught by others until that late. I desire to express most earnestly my appreciation of the generosity of the Trustees in prolonging my vacation in this way, and my sense of their considerate kindness in leaving it to me to decide when I was equal to resuming my tasks. I have reason to believe that, as a result of their indulgence, I will be able to begin my work next year stronger than I have ever been.

Some acknowledgment is also due to the kindness of my colleagues who have so cheerfully undertaken the additional work that my absence threw upon them. Of Dr. Walker, in particular, much additional preaching was required, and many demands were made. He has placed me under many obligations.

During the first month of the session my classes were taught by Mr. Wallis and Dr. Walker, and after Mr. Wallis was elected to succeed the late revered Dr. Nelson, they were taught by Mr. Clark. Under these teachers they made progress, which in view of the providential interruptions in the first part of the session, was remarkably creditable to the classes and to their instructors. When I returned I found that the Seniors had completed the second volume of Perry, the Middle Class had gone through the second volume of Smith's Ecclesiastical History, and the Juniors had finished the course in Old Testament History. The examinations on all these portions of the course were conducted by Mr. Clark.

Since that time I have carried the classes through the curriculum that is outlined in the catalogue. The only change that I have made is to substitute for Fisher's History of the Christian Church, the same author's History of the Reformation, which gives a fuller account of the era that we studied in the former volume.

I have been greatly assisted in my work by the improvements in the library. The essays of the students have shown that they have availed themselves more largely of its resources than they were able to do in the past.

Respectfully submitted,

CARL E. GRAMMER.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO TRUSTEES (1895).

Rt. Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D.,President of the Board of Trustees:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—As Principal of the Episcopal High School, I have the honor to submit the following report:

The whole number of pupils, including nine day scholars, entered this session is one hundred—fifty-seven being from Virginia and West Virginia. The session has been a fortunate one as to health and in respect to conduct and diligence. I have never known a better tone among the boys, nor found them more amenable to control and to good influences. Nineteen clergymen's sons have been received.

The agencies and influences in behalf of the Christian nurture of my charge during the past session, in so far as exercised by myself and my co-workers in the school, have been as before. Beyond this, the aid of Mr. J. S. Alfriend, of the Seminary Middle Class, who has had charge of our Friday night devotional meeting, has been most acceptable. Of his valuable services and of those of my faithful corps of assistants I desire to record grateful appreciation. The number of communicants among the boys, including a class of eight recently confirmed, is forty-one.

As respects clergymen, owing to the death, Oct. 25, of the Rev. Kinloch Nelson, D. D., and the reduced strength otherwise of the Seminary Faculty, we have been this session without most of the help common for so many years—help which we expect, however, hereafter to be again able to secure.

The loss to the school of Dr. Nelson, its faithful and beloved pastor for eighteen years, demands more than a passing record. His stated ministrations here included a monthly Sunday night service and sermon, a monthly meeting with the boy communicants, a weekly night service during Lent, and the examination and admission of candidates for confirmation. His informal care of the spiritual interests of his charge was in value scarce inferior to his regular offices. It is not easy to imagine a man better fitted for such a position. His feeling toward boys and his knowledge of them were remarkable, and the mingled tenderness and dignity of his nature were at once recognized by them. He was an expert in base ball and foot ball, a frequent umpire or referee, and, without sharing them, such an unaffected lover of these and kindred sports that interest on his part in this important element in boys' life was always secure, and the fact that it was so increased his influence. He possessed in an extraordinary degree their confidence and affection; a modest testimonial of which in the shape of a tablet in the School Chapel, where he so long ministered, has just been erected.

Respectfully yours,

L. M. BLACKFORD.

Secretary's Report of the Virginia Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, May, 1894, to May, 1895.

Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D., President ex-officio:

The close of another year of busy work, accomplished by the "Virginia Branch," is here presented in this fifth annual report of money, which has been widely distributed, and of boxes which have been chiefly sent within our own Diocese, in many cases turning positive want into solid comfort, and enabling the missionaries to stand true to their field of labor. If the sole idea of the Auxiliary was to contribute money and boxes to missions, that would depend on the fluctuating conditions of the financial world, and the troublous times of the past year would seriously have affected our missionary work, but prayer and interest and education in missionary knowledge do not appear in any written report, yet show themselves in many tangible ways, and have done much to increase missionary gifts. One of the most encouraging features of the year has been a large accession of new members to parish lists, and the organization of ten new Branches, for each new Branch, means another link in the great chain of human interest and sympathy, which is binding the women of Virginia with its triple cord of love and prayer and service, so that our foundations, "built upon the Chief Corner Stone," have been broadened and our efficiency increased by bringing the women, in widely scattered parishes of the Diocese, into closer relation by the unifying principle of a common interest in, and united effort for, the missionary work of the Church. Each annual meeting has proved the rallying ground of the working forces of the Branch, as they met to plan future work, or better organization, or "pour united prayer" for a Pentecostal baptism, while they caught inspiration and enthusiasm to thrill and vitalize flagging zeal. Having reached, as an organization, one of the mile-stones along the line of progressive and aggressive effort, it is well to take an object-lesson from the past, to learn what may help in the future, and answer by facts and figures the question, "Is the Woman's Auxiliary a power for good?" The statistics gathered from the reports of five years show a clear gain in missionary giving, while the parish has not suffered nor the fears of the doubting been realized. In June, 1890, Bishop Whittle appointed two officers to organize the "Virginia Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary," with these results: 1st. Annual meeting, 1891, seventeen Branches report in boxes and money, $4,000; distributed to foreign, domestic and diocesan work. 2d. 1892, thirty-one Branches and eleven Juniors, $5,300; then came division, by which Virginia lost one-half in numbers and resources, yet in 1893, to the credit of the Branches be it said, through their zeal they report from seventeen Branches and five Juniors, $4,460. In 1894, financial depression caused pressing parish needs, yet from twenty-two Branches and five Juniors, the figures stand $3,900, and now in 1895, from twenty-six Branches and five Juniors $3,889.13, and this amount from one less than one-third of the parishes in the Diocese. Total (in five years), $22,534.13! Allowing for all errors in reporting money formerly sent through other channels or other mistakes, yet these figures emphasize the fact of positive gain, for the missionary work of the Church, of at least $10,000 over former contributions, and represents, in most cases, the consecrated money of "self-denial."

Miscellaneous.

LET IT BE DISTINCTLY UNDERSTOOD that the money above reported does not pass through the hands of the Diocesan officer, but is sent direct from each branch to the respective treasurers of the Board of Missions or to the missionary himself. If asked "how can these things be?" the answer is simply this: By the power of united effort; by systematic giving; by an intelligent knowledge of missions; above all by "unceasing" prayer for missions, so developing the highest idea of the Auxiliary spirit, and bringing the reflex benefit to each member; for out of our ranks has gone one woman to the foreign field and two others are now ready to go. The inspiration of Divine fellowship and the economy of force, in association with others to whom they are allied in the Auxiliary, and again through them to the great Church, prove potent factors in the Virginia Branch, which is only the organized expression of the missionary work of the Church-women of Virginia. The Auxiliary teaches that parish interests should not exclude missionary zeal, while she learns that her missionary zeal must not be blind to parish needs; that the centripetal and centrifugal forces of united action, being equal, she is ever going out to the world—yet again drawn home, like the planet, as we revolve 'round the centre of our system and the source of our power, the "Sun of Righteousness."

While the greater number of boxes have been sent to those who earn them by so much self-denying labor in the three Virginias, yet several have been sent to missions and missionaries south and west, even to Alaska. The money has been generously distributed to work in Brazil, China, Africa, Japan and Cuba. The Junior Branches united in sending Christmas boxes to 700 children in seven Indian missions, under Rev. Mr. Gilfillan, Minn., and turning to Virginia we see diocesan work largely helped in every way, and again and again have the Branches contributed to building, repairing or furnishing mission churches in the Diocese. This report would seem unfinished if we did not gratefully record the continued and active interest of our Bishop and Assistant Bishop, who have helped to make the work only a pleasure.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Vestry of St. John's Church, held Tuesday night, May 5, 1896, the following resolution was offered and unanimously carried:

Resolved, That the Vestry of St. John's Church instruct its Delegates to the next annual Council, which meets on Wednesday, the 20th day of May, to make an earnest protest against the present plan for raising the fund for the expenses of the Diocese, and that they use every effort to have the said fund raised on a percentage of the regular expenses of each congregation in the Diocese, instead of the present plan of raising this fund by a per capita tax.

RICHMOND, VA., May 19, 1896.

To the Episcopal Council of the Diocese of Virginia:

GENTLEMEN:

It has become my painful duty to announce the death of one of the clergy since the last meeting of the Council, Rev. Henderson Suter, D. D., who was a member of the Brotherhood.

$182.63 has been collected for the heirs of Dr. Suter, and other assessments are in process of collection. Amount on hand two $500.00 six per cent. city of Manchester bonds, and $635.38 in Citizens Bank of Richmond.

Respectfully submitted,

CYRUS BOSSIEUX,

Mr. L. M. Blackford read a petition from the Standing Committee of the Diocese in regard to purchasing a fire-proof safe, and, on motion, the petition was referred to the Finance Committee.

The Secretary read, at the request of the Bishop, a proposed change in Canon XI, and moved its reference to the Committee on New Parishes.

It was so referred.

The Rev. H. B. Lee read the following report from the Committee on Prayer-Book Distribution, and, on motion, it was adopted:

Your Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishops' addresses of 1894 as had reference to establishing a Prayer-Book Distribution Society, beg leave to report—

I. They earnestly recommend the immediate formation of such a society.

II. That the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society be, and is hereby, constituted a Board of Directors for the same.

III. That said Board be requested to organize as soon as practicable after the close of this Council, and to elect a separate Treasurer and General Agent for this Society. And when so organized to give notice thereof through the Southern Churchman and our Diocesan Work, and in such ways as they may deem expedient, requesting contributions from all who are in sympathy with this work.

IV. That the "Virginia Prayer-Book Distribution Society," which is to be the name of this Association, be added to the list of objects for which collections are recommended by the Council.

V. That to the list of Standing Committees provided for in the Rules of Order "A Committee on the Virginia Prayer-Book Distribution Society" be added.

H. B. LEE,
E. V. JONES,
J. M. GARNETT.

The Rev. Berryman Green, Chairman of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, then reported that the roll, as called by the Secretary, was correct, to which should be added the following names, viz:

Messrs. Peyton Coles, W. H. Carter, W. T. Meade, R. T. Pierce.

On motion, the Council adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, 8 P. M.

The Council met for a meeting in the interest of Diocesan Missions. There were present in the chancel, the Bishop and the Bishop Coadjutor, the Rev. P. P. Phillips, the Rev. Dr. Powers, the Rev. N. P. Dame, the Rev. Dr. McGill, and the Rev. R. A. Goodwin.

After Divine service, conducted by the Rector of the church, the Rev. Dr. Powers read the report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report that they have aided in the past year thirty parishes and parts of parishes, in sums ranging from $50 to $300, there being one of $50, two of $300, and three of $250, and the rest chiefly in sums of $150 and $200.

This difference in the appropriations results partly from the condition of the rector, as married or single, but chiefly from the amount of salary promised by the Vestry, the appropriation being intended to supplement this amount so as to give the rector a reasonable support.

Wednesday P. M.

The total amount received since the last Council, according to the Treasurer's Report, is $6,915.15, which includes $2,303.93 given by the children's Sunday-schools and families; the amount disbursed is $7,029.24. The balance on hand May 13, 1895 $2,442.39, which, with $6,915.15 receipts, made $9,357.54; from this $7,029.29 disbursed being taken, leaves the present balance $2,328.33.

As stated in our last Annual Report, our work covers nearly the whole diocese, the only counties receiving no help from the Executive Committee, direct or indirect, when the vacant parishes are filled, being Goochland, which is helped by the Richmond Convocation, Charles City, Prince William and Alexandria county. The work is growing upon us, not only in the number of parishes and parts of parishes aided, but in the amounts occasionally asked for and doubtless needed.

In the last seventeen years, during which the present Secretary has been in office, but one separate church and one parish have resigned permanently from our list of beneficiaries and become self-supporting. Not half a dozen reductions of stipends have been made by the Executive Committee, and in most every case they have been restored at the earnest request of the vestries. Two voluntary reductions have been made by rector and vestry themselves—the one of $100 and the other of $25, and these still continue.

To give an idea of the condition of our work, without going through the whole list, we give ten parishes, not by name but by number, as a specimen of the whole:

No. 1, receiving $200 for sixteen years, with one year's resignation, restored the next year.

No. 2, seventeen years, $200, reduced for two years to $175 and then restored.

No. 3, seventeen years, most of the time receiving $100; reduced for several years to $50, but now restored to $100.

No. 4, fourteen years, receiving first $100, then $200, and now united with a parish formerly self-supporting, and receiving $250.

No. 5, $200 for seventeen years.

No. 6, fourteen years; formerly $200, now $250.

No. 7, eleven years; formerly $200, now $250.

No. 8, thirteen years, $250.

No. 9, seventeen years; first $200, now $300.

No. 10, seventeen years, $200.

From time to time parishes once self-supporting apply to us for help. In the last two years we have added six new parishes or parts of parishes and five new names to our list of beneficiaries. What does this mean? It means rather that while the parishes and churches may have increased in numerical strength, they have been stationary or retrograding in financial ability, or at they have not done what they could for self-support. We believe that generally the people have done what they could. We are well assured that our country clergy are faithful, zealous, self-denying, hard working men, and deserve more than they receive. And while we believe that the laity are generally sound and devoted churchmen of the Virginia stamp, and doubtless think they are doing as much as they can for the support of their ministers, yet perhaps, if they valued the worship of the Church more and the offices which the minister alone can perform, and were less particular about the preaching, they would find themselves able to give more to have regular services, regular communion, regular pastoral work, and one with authority to perform the offices of baptism, marriage and burial.

Wednesday P. M.

With regard to the receipts of the Diocesan Missionary Society, while the people have done well, we think they can do better. In the Summary appended to the last Journal by the Secretary of the Council, he makes the number of communicants in the Diocese 9,777. If this is correct we may safely put the present number at 10,000. An average per capita of one and a half cents a week would be 78 cents a year, or, for 10,000 communicants, $7,800 a year, and this would enable us not only to do our present work, but to extend it.

In this connection we beg leave to suggest to the Council that if they deem it expedient to have an Evangelist, they take upon the Council the employment and payment of such Evangelist, as they did prior to the Council of 1885, and leave the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society free to do their own proper work of helping the weak parishes and inaugurating new mission work in suitable places. We thank the people and the children for their contributions, and we bless Him who hath put it into their hearts to do what they have done.

We again urge rectors and superintendents to see that the Sunday-school collections of one Sunday in the month are given to the Diocesan Missions, and we recommend that the Sunday-school collections of the other Sundays, except in Lent, be given to Foreign Missions and that the people pay the necessary expenses of the Sunday-school. Also, in order to make the children not only give to Missions, but be interested in them, we suggest that one Sunday in every month be a Mission Sunday, and that at least ten minutes be given on that Sunday for an address to the children by some suitable person on Missions or the special mission to which they are contributing.

The last Council having referred to the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society the report read to the Council on "Church Finances," the Executive Committee referred it to a special committee, consisting of Rt. Rev. J. B. Newton, Rev. J. K. Mason and Mr. Thos. Potts, who made a report, which was read to the Executive Committee and accepted by them and ordered to be read to Council, along with the Annual Report of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

PIKE POWERS,
Secretary D. M. S. of Virginia.

Thursday A. M.

The report of the Special Committee on Church Finances is as follows :

Your committee, to whom was referred the report of " the Committee on Church Finance," made to the Council of 1895, beg leave to report :

We find in that paper some admirable suggestions, worthy of all commendation, which we cordially endorse and recommend to the thoughtful consideration of our church-people, viz :

(a) " The suggestion that the churches use wise economy in their expenditure of money for the advancement of their parish work."

(b) " Carefulness not to use methods for raising money for church purposes which bring reproach upon the church."

(c) " That the clergy be requested to teach their people the principles of Christian giving, and to enforce the practice of these principles, as they could teach and enforce any other principle of Christian living."

There are other matters in this report, about which there is and must naturally be differences of opinion, and as to which we do not deem it wise to make any specific recommendation.

In conclusion, we think the thanks of the Diocese are due to the committee, and especially to its chairman, for the very able and interesting report on this most important subject.

JOHN B. NEWTON,
JOHN K. MASON,
THOMAS POTTS,

1896, January 22—Mr. James T. Gray, for many years the faithful and acceptable Treasurer of the Diocese, resigned that office, and as provided by the constitution, Mr. Robert S. Chamberlayne was appointed his successor until this meeting of the Council.

March 15—St. Luke's, Richmond, confirmed six.

March 22—St. Andrew's, Richmond, confirmed eight.

March 22—Grace, Richmond, confirmed thirteen.

April 26—Vienna, confirmed three.

May 14, 1895—I consecrated Edge Hill Chapel, a pretty brick building, about five miles from Charlottesville, erected by the efforts of the ladies of the Edge Hill Female School. It is a flourishing mission of Christ Church, under the rectorship of the Rev. H. B. Lee. He says: "The Edge Hill Memorial Chapel was built as a free church. The other denominations sold their interest to the Episcopal Church. The building of this chapel and the work done there (like that at St. Luke's, another mission of Christ Church) all goes to show what the zeal and energy of consecrated men and women can accomplish—for it is mainly through their efforts that these two chapels have been built and the work carried on.

July 30, 1895—Consecrated Barbour Memorial Church, a pretty and appropriate frame building, at Barboursville, Orange county. Rev. J. R. Ellis, rector. This church reaches a population hitherto inaccessible to us, and starting with very encouraging prospects, I trust may prove a great success.

April 17, 1896—Grace Church, Albemarle county, a massive stone structure, erected about the year 1840, and which, through some defect in the furnace, or carelessness in its management, was burned in February, 1895, after being restored and greatly improved and beautified, was this day re-consecrated to the service of Almighty God. The money for this purpose was derived chiefly from a policy of insurance, thoughtfully and generously placed on the building by Mr. Chanler, an occasional member of the congregation.

The Central Convocation being in session, about a dozen ministers united with the rector, Rev. E. V. Jones, and a large and joyous gregation, in the impressive services, and a solemn, beautiful, and appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. E. L. Goodwin, a former rector of the church.

Thursday A. M.

The building is one of the handsomest and most appropriate in the diocese, and minister and people are to be heartily congratulated on its completion.

POSTULANTS.

The following have been received as Postulants: Charles E. A. Marshall, Herbert Claiborne Page, James J. Chapman, Richard Lee Griffith.

CANDIDATES FOR PRIEST'S ORDERS.

The following have been admitted candidates for Priest's Orders: Robert B. Nelson, Wm. Henry Osmond, Joseph Alex. Specht, C. Cowling, William T. Snead, Jr.

MINISTERS DECEASED.

1895, May 16—During the session of the last Council, the Rev. T. L. HYNES, rector of Beckford Parish, Shenandoah county, departed this life at his home in Mt. Jackson. Mr. Hynes having come from Tennessee, had been but a short time in the Diocese, and had never been my pleasure to meet him.

August 4—Rev. J. J. McILHINNEY, D. D., died at his home near St. Paul's Church, Fairfax county; aged 83. The deceased, a man of great learning, and of a remarkably gentle spirit, and modesty of character, had been for many years a professor at our Theological Seminary, but had retired for some time because of age and bodily infirmity. He is affectionately remembered by his many pupils in the Gambier and Virginia Seminaries.

Rev. HENDERSON SUTER, D. D., rector of Christ Church, Alexandria, departed this life the 25th August, 1895; aged 67 years. He was a native of Georgetown and an Alumnus of our Theological Seminary, and passed the whole of his ministry in Virginia, filling the rectorship of five or six churches, always to the satisfaction of his people. He was widely known throughout the Diocese, and wherever known could not fail to be admired for his abilities and learning, his earnest and devout piety and his sincere, honest and brave character, both as a man and a minister of the gospel. As one of the Examining Chaplains, Secretary and Treasurer of the Education Society, Trustee of the Theological Seminary and High School, and member and Secretary of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, all which places he occupied at the time of his death, he will be greatly missed for his business qualities and faithful attention to duty. I will only add that his death has deprived me of one of my most faithful and beloved friends.

The Rev. J. B. T. REED, died October 1, 1895, in Winchester, Va., the place, I believe, of his birth and life-long residence, in the 89th year of his age. Mr. Reed entered the ministry late in life, and was only in Deacon's Orders. He never had any charge, but exercised his ministry as opportunity offered and until prevented by age and infirmity.

I cannot close this report without adding my firm conviction that the work in the Diocese is very encouraging.

Our brethren of the Clergy are earnest and faithful, and are doing all in their power to press forward the great work of the kingdom of Christ. The people, wherever I have been, have manifested the well-known love of our Virginia people for the Church of their fathers. The children, as the result of the Lenten offerings clearly demonstrates, show no little enthusiasm in their lively interest in Diocesan Missions. "The Woman's Auxiliary" and the "Brotherhood of St. Andrew" are rendering faithful and efficient service.

There are fields which could be worked to much greater advantage had we the money and the men to add to the force already in them. This is notably true of Loudoun, Fairfax, Hanover, and some other points in the Diocese.

Your faithful Evangelist has been most active and laborious, but

Thursday A M.

ork to which I refer can only be done by men settled as rectors stant ministers in the various fields.

I now, my dear brethren, thanking you for the kind considera-ceived at the hands of you and your people during the past and earnestly expressing the hope that we may all continue to on in our dear old Diocese "in the unity of the spirit and in bond of peace," I commend you to Him, in whose name and whose divine guidance alone there is true success.

He who has promised to be with His Church even unto the the world, be always with you, to give wisdom in counsel, tness, sincerity, and faithfulness in every good word and work, bove all, that charity which is "the bond of perfectness."

Thursday A. M.

The Rev. Carl E. Grammer, D. D., Chairman of the Committee to whom was referred the right of the Rev. D. F. Sprigg, D. D., to a seat in the Council, asked that his report be read before the report on New Parishes be acted on, which request was granted, and the report was read as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SEATING REV. D. F. SPRIGG.

The Committee to whom was referred the question of the right of the Rev. Dr. D. F. Sprigg to a seat in the Council make the following report:

Inasmuch as Dr. Sprigg is not a clergyman, canonically settled, or a professor in the Theological Seminary of Virginia, or a missionary within this Diocese and under its ecclesiastical authority, the simple question before your committee is whether he can be considered as entitled to a seat under the following proviso of Article II of the Constitution:

“Provided, That any such ministers who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions shall be members ex-officio.”

How are we to interpret the phrase, age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions? It may be said that it does not say, whom age or infirmity prevents from retaining the charge of an important parish, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions. It might fairly be asked whether a clergyman who officiates frequently in parishes and who thinks that he is entitled to a seat as a missionary, can be considered to come under this proviso, if the words are to be given a narrow interpretation.

But on the other hand the practice and custom of this Diocese have shown that no such severe construction is to be given to a provision that is meant to display consideration for age, and to extend a courtesy to those who have labored long in the vineyard, or who have incurred disabilities in the work.

There have been a number of cases in which retired clergymen have enjoyed a seat in this Council, on the ground of age or infirmity, when they still had the strength for occasional exercise of all their clerical functions, and were merely incapacitated from being rector of a parish. Our precedents and the spirit of the proviso both call for a liberal construction of the phrase. “whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions.”

In the opinion of your committee, if a clergyman has been nearly fifty years in the ministry and alleges that age prevents him from continuing to exercise his clerical functions, since it prevents him from taking charge of a parish, such a testimony ought to be considered conclusive, and such a clergyman should be given a seat under this proviso.

But there is one other provision of the article that must be considered. It stinctly asserted that the minister must be canonically settled at the time such disability arises. The exact language is, " Provided that any such persons who may have been so canonically settled up to the time of disability, but whom age or infirmity prevents from exercising their clerical functions shall be members ex-officio."

Thursday A. M.

Now, in the present case, it is nearly three years since the clergyman was canonically settled. It is clear to your committee that Dr. Sprigg has no right to a seat in this Council unless he had a right to a seat in the first Council that met after he resigned his church. Unless he resigned because of his disability of age, it is impossible that age should subsequently entitle him to a seat. In the light of this explicit statement of the article, your committee who may be considered as appointed in pursuance of Canon xvi, which gives the Council a right to revise the Bishop's list of clergy entitled to seats, must say, with emphasis, that they do not see how the Bishop could be expected to place the name of Dr. Sprigg upon the list, as coming under the terms of this proviso. The Bishop could not insert his name unless Dr. Sprigg would make two statements; first, that age disabled him from exercising his clerical functions, and, second, that this disability arose when he was a settled minister. But suppose that Dr. Sprigg should now come forward and say that this disability arose when he was a settled minister and now prevents him from exercising his clerical functions, in that exact sense in which the terms have always been understood. In that case your committee think that he would be entitled to a seat. They have no doubt that his name would have been left off the list by the Bishop, if such a statement had been made or were now made. They do not think it possible that this Council would ask of one of the oldest and most honored clergymen of this Diocese any further evidence than his word. It is, therefore, the opinion that if Dr. Sprigg will make these two statements to the Council, he should be given a seat under this provision.

CARL E. GRAMMER,
GEO. W. NELSON,
JOHN G. WILLIAMS.

On motion of the Rev. P. P. Phillips the report was adopted.

Major John Page then moved that the Rev. Dr. Sprigg be given a seat in the Council; which motion was amended by Major R. T. Bennett, as follows:

Resolved, That this Council having heard from the Rev. Dr. Sprigg, are of opinion that the statements made, in their opinion, bring him within the principles announced by the special committee, through their chairman, Carl E. Grammer, and that the name of the Rev. Dr. D. F. Sprigg be added upon the roll of the clergy of this Diocese.

On motion of Bishop Newton the rules of order were suspended, and Mr. R. S. Chamberlayne was elected Treasurer of the Council, in place of Mr. James T. Gray, resigned.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NEW PARISHES.

The report of the Committee on New Parishes, in reference to Epiphany Mission, at Barton Heights, was taken up; which report is as follows:

The Committee on New Parishes beg leave to report that there has been but one application before them, and that for the formation of a separate congregation within the bounds of Henrico Parish, known now as the Mission of the Epiphany, at Barton Heights.

The petitioners having complied with the requirements of the Canons, the Committee recommend that their petition be granted.

JAMES GRAMMER,
H. B. LEE,
D. M. CHICHESTER.

WHEREAS, Section I of Canon X of the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia enacts that, "whenever the members of the Church residing in a particular portion of a parish shall desire to separate from the parish of which they form a part, it shall be lawful for them to assemble and appoint a committee to take such means as may be necessary;" and

WHEREAS, The congregation of the Mission of the Epiphany, Barton Heights, Henrico county, Va., in compliance with the requirements of Section I, Canon X, aforesaid, did meet and appoint such Committee, of which A. S. Groser is the Chairmen, therefore—

The congregation of the Mission of the Epiphany, Barton Heights, Henrico county, Va., respectfully petitions the Council of the Diocese of Virginia, meeting in Alexandria, Va., May 20, 1896, to set apart said Mission, being a part of Emmanuel Church, Henrico Parish, as an independent church, and to be received in connection with this Diocese. The said Mission has a church, erected at a cost of about $3,500, which, with the lot on which it stands, is entirely paid for. The property is believed to be worth about $4,200. The church is now ready for consecration. It is located in the town of Barton Heights, one of the suburbs of Richmond—a prosperous, growing town, with a population of about 1,000, and continually growing. Up to two and one-half years ago the rector of Emmanuel Church, Henrico county, gave the said Mission one service each Sunday (at night) and occasional week night services. Becoming incapacitated by reason of his health, the Mission

Thursday A. M.

For some six or eight months had to depend on lay-reading, and from that time up to the present the rector of Emmanuel has been unable to afford the mission any material help. Under the care of a clergyman from Richmond, viz: the Rev. D. F. Sprigg, D. D., for the morning services on Sunday, the mission has not only kept alive, but has grown from fifteen to twenty communicants to some forty, and a congregation of forty and fifty to near one hundred. The mission feels that under a rector of its own, and resident among its people, the future is even more promising. Canonical notice has been given to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, also to Emmanuel Church. The consent of a majority of churches composing Henrico Parish has been given, the original of which are herewith submitted. Pledges have been obtained by which a salary of $600 will be paid a rector, and we have the offer of a clergyman of this Diocese to accept the rectorship at this salary, if elected. A Mission has been established at Highland Park, in our vicinity, from whom we expect $100 additional per year, to be paid to our rector for services.

Respectfully,

THE CONGREGATION OF EPIPHANY MISSION, per A. S. GROSER, Chairman of Committee Appointed.

The Rev. C. E. Ball moved to lay the report of committee in reference to the church at Barton Heights on the table. Lost.

The question was then put to the Council, and was decided in the affirmative by a vote of 39 to 29, and Epiphany Mission, Barton Heights, became a separate congregation.

Bishop Newton gave notice of a proposed change in Canon XI.

The Committee on New Parishes then read their report in regard to the proposed change in Canon XI, and which was adopted:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF CANON XI.

Strike out the word "sufficient," in the second line, and insert in its place the words "have satisfied the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese of their ability;" so that the Canon shall read as follows:

"When any number of persons, belonging to any parish or congregation, have satisfied the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese of their ability to build a house of worship, and provide for the support of a minister."

The above change disapproved.

WHEREAS, We know of but two ways in which an assessment can be made for the Contingent Fund of the Diocese, namely, a per capita assessment and a per centum assessment; and

WHEREAS, The per capita assessment has been the approved method in this Diocese for many years; and

THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

To the Convention (or Council) of the Diocese of Virginia:

In compliance with the requirements of Article 9 of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed, to-wit: those comprised in the resolutions subjoined, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, held in the city of Minneapolis, Minnesota, in October, A. D. 1895, to-wit:

First.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal, pages 30, 31, 222)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Strike out the Title and insert in place thereof the following:

“Constitutions and Canons for the Government of that portion of the Catholic Church known in Law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America;” adding thereto the sub-title, “Constitutions.”

Second.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal, pages 142, 143, 144, 325, 326, 327)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Insert in place of Articles 1, 2, and 3 of the Constitution the following:

CONSTITUTIONS.

I.

SECTION 1. There shall be a General Convention of this Church, consisting of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, which Houses shall sit and deliberate separately, and in all deliberations freedom of debate shall be allowed. Either House may originate and propose legislation, but every act of the General Convention must be adopted by both Houses, and be certified by the signatures of the Presiding Officer and of the Secretary of each House.

Thursday P. M.

SEC. 2. Every Bishop of this Church, having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop whose resignation of jurisdiction shall have been accepted, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of those who have resigned their jurisdictions, and those who are Bishops in foreign lands, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 3. The Senior Bishop of this Church in the order of consecration, having jurisdiction within the United States, shall be the Presiding Officer of the House of Bishops. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitutions and Canons of the General Convention, or, for its own needs by the House of Bishops, and shall hold office for life, unless he resign or be relieved from that office by a vote of a majority of the Bishops entitled to a vote in the House of Bishops.

SEC. 4. The Church in each Diocese which shall have been admitted to the General Convention shall be entitled to be represented in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters, canonically resident in the Diocese, and by not more than four Laymen, communicants of this Church, and having domicile in the Diocese. Each Diocese shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

A majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation shall be represented by Clerical Deputies, and also a majority of the Dioceses so entitled shall be represented by Lay Deputies, to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The absence of a majority of the Deputies of either Order of any Diocese shall not invalidate the representation of such Diocese, so long as there be present one or more Deputies of either Order. If any Diocese be not represented, or be represented in one Order only, such Diocese shall, nevertheless, be bound by the acts of the General Convention.

On any question the vote of a majority of the Deputies present shall suffice, unless otherwise ordered by these Constitutions, or unless the Clerical or Lay representation from any Diocese require that the vote be taken by Orders; and in all cases of a vote by Orders, the two Orders shall vote separately; each Diocese having one vote for its Clerical and one for its Lay representation, if present; and the concurrence of the votes of the two Orders, by not less than a majority in each Order of all the Dioceses represented in that Order at the time of the vote, shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House; Provided, however, that if it shall appear that a constitutional quorum of the House has not voted, the Presiding Officer shall declare that there has been no vote of the House; and in such a case the question may be again put to the House when a quorum shall be present, at any time before the final adjournment of the Convention then in session.

SEC. 5. In either House any number less than a quorum may adjourn from day to day. Neither House during the session of the General Convention shall adjourn without the consent of the other for more than three days, nor any place other than that in which the Convention shall be sitting.

SEC. 6. One Clerical and one Lay Delegate chosen by each Missionary District of this Church, or by a Convocation of the American Churches in Foreign Lands, convened by proper Ecclesiastical authority, shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies except the right to vote.

SEC. 7. The General Convention shall meet in every third year on the first Wednesday in October, unless a different day be appointed by the preceding Convention, and at such place as shall have been determined on by the Convention; and if there shall appear to the Presiding Officer of the House of Deputies sufficient cause for changing the place so appointed, he may appoint another place for such meeting. Special meetings may be called in accordance with canonical provisions of the Convention.

Third.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 87, 88, 138, 146, 305, 306, 319, 327, 328, 332)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution. In the ninth line of Article 5 strike out the words "any other Diocese" and insert the words "any Missionary District, or by the junction of any two or more Missionary Districts or parts of Districts, or any existing Diocese"; and in the thirteenth line strike out the words "as well as," and insert after the word "concerned" the words "and, in the case of a Missionary District or Districts, of the Bishop and Convocation of each, and in no case without the consent."

so that it shall read as follows:

"No new Diocese shall be formed or erected within the limits of any Missionary District, nor by the junction of any two or more Missionary Districts or parts of Districts, or any existing Diocese, nor shall any Diocese be formed by the junction of two or more Dioceses or parts of Dioceses or Districts, unless with the consent of the Bishop and Convention of each of the Dioceses concerned, and, in the case of a Missionary District or Districts, of the Bishop and Convocation of each, and in no case without the consent of the General Convention, and such consent shall not be given by the General Convention until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the Episcopate in the contemplated Diocese."

Thursday P. M.

Fourth.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 140, 152, 313, 314, 337.)

Resolved, That the following alteration be made in Article 5 of the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Diocesan Conventions, in order that the same may be finally agreed to or ratified at the next General Conventions, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution.

Add at the close of the second paragraph the following words: "and also of the consent to the erection of such Diocese of a majority of the parishes or congregations in union with the Diocesan Convention, or of the parishes or congregations canonically constituted in a Missionary District within the territory of the proposed new Diocese," so that the concluding portion of the second paragraph of Article 5, as thus amended, shall read as follows:

"and such consent shall not be given by the General Convention until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the Episcopate in the contemplated new Diocese; and also of the consent to the erection of such Diocese of a majority of the parishes or congregations in union with the Diocesan Convention, or of the parishes or congregations canonically constituted in a Missionary District within the territory of the proposed new Diocese."

Fifth.—It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the Convention (vide Journal pages 96, 128, 319, 327, 328)

Resolved, That the following amendment be made to the Constitution, and that the proposed amendment be made known to the several Dioceses in order that it may be finally agreed to and ratified in the next General Convention, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of the Constitution:

Add to Article 5 of the Constitution the following, to-wit: "The General Convention may accept a cession of a part of the territorial jurisdiction of a Diocese when the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall propose such cession, and three-fourth of the parishes in the ceded territory, and also the same proportion of the parishes within the remaining territory, shall consent thereto."

Article 5 as amended by the third, fourth and fifth of the foregoing resolutions will read as follows:

A Protestant Episcopal Church in any of the United States, or any Territory thereof, not now represented, may, at any time hereafter, be admitted on acceding to this Constitution; and a new Diocese, to be formed from one or more existing Dioceses, may be admitted under the following restrictions, viz:

Thursday P. M.

No new Diocese shall be formed or erected within the limits of any Missionary District, nor by the junction of any two or more Missionary Districts, or parts of Districts, or any existing Diocese, nor shall any Diocese be formed by the junction of two or more Dioceses, or parts of Dioceses, unless with the consent of the Bishop and Convention of each of the Dioceses concerned, and, in the case of a Missionary District or Districts, of the Bishop and Convocation of each, and in no case without the consent of the General Convention, and such consent shall not be given by the General Convention until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the Episcopate in the contemplated new Diocese; and also of the consent to the erection of such Diocese of a majority of the parishes or congregations in union with the Diocesan Convention, or of the parishes or congregations canonically constituted in a Missionary District within the territory of the proposed new Diocese.

No such new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain less than six Parishes, or less than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation, and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain less than twelve Parishes, or less than twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above mentioned: Provided, that no city shall form more than one Diocese.

In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Diocesan of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and shall thereupon become the Diocesan thereof; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, may elect the one to which he will be attached; and if it be not the one elected by the Bishop, he shall be the Diocesan thereof.

Whenever the division of a Diocese into two or more Dioceses shall be ratified by the General Convention, each of the Dioceses shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese so divided, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same may be altered in either Diocese by the Convention thereof. And whenever a Diocese shall be formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, the new Diocese shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of Clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, until the same may be altered by the Convention of the new Diocese.

The General Convention may accept a cession of a part of the territorial jurisdiction of a Diocese when the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall propose such cession, and three-fourths of the parishes in the ceded territory, and also the same proportion of the parishes within the remaining territory, shall consent thereto.

In testimony whereof, I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

CHAS. L. HUTCHINS,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

CONCORD, MASS., March 2, A. D. 1896.

The Committee to whom were referred the communications from the General Convention, beg leave to report:

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the resolution in reference to the change in the Book of Common Prayer, which has to do with the insertion of a table of Golden Numbers, and the change of the year of our Lord, from 1899 to 2199, on page 25.

The first resolution having reference to an amendment to the Constitution, in which it is proposed to strike out the title which is now "Digest of the Canons for the Government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A.," passed and adopted in General Convention, together with the Constitution, and to insert instead of this the words "Constitution and Canons for the Government of the portion of the Catholic Church known in law as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U. S. A.," seems inadvisable.

Your Committee would deprecate any change being made in the Church's name, not only in the Book of Common Prayer, but wherever else it appears. The name, Protestant Episcopal Church, is an heritage from our fathers, and we should keep it as it is, without adding thereto or taking therefrom.

Your Committee therefore recommends that the first resolution in reference to the change in the title of the Constitution be not adopted.

The second, third, fourth, and fifth resolutions, in reference to the change in Articles one, two, three, and five of the Constitution, seem advisable, inasmuch as they express in more concise and explicit language what is meant than is done by the articles which it is proposed to amend, and your Committee therefore recommend their adoption.

Respectfully submitted,

J. Y. DOWNMAN,
D. M. CHICHESTER,
C. C. BAUGHMAN.

Thursday P. M.

at Staunton, is a corporation created by the General Assembly of Virginia January 13, 1844 [Acts 1843-4, page 86]. The original corporators "Thomas J. Michie, Nicholas C. Kinney, Alex. H. H. Stuart, William Kinney, John H. Peyton, James Points, John B. Breckenridge, Francis T. Stribling, Benjamin Crawford, Edward Valentine, Robert S. Brooke, Edmund Berkley, George Eskridge, William Donaghe, John Churchman, William H. Garber, Washington Swoope, and Armistead M. Mosby, their successors and all others who may become stockholders in the "Virginia Female Institute."

The capital stock, $30,000 is in shares of $100 each, the purpose and object of this corporation to found and carry on "a female seminary in the town of Staunton under the name and style of the "Virginia Female Institute;" by that name to have perpetual succession and a common seal, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law or equity.

The corporation was authorized to hold personal property of all kinds, purchase lands, receive subscriptions, accept bequests and devises, lease, rent, sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of its property "in such manner as to the Presidents and Trustees of said institute or a majority of them shall seem most conducive to the advantage of said institute."

When or where "the corporators" met, who the "original stockholders," the amount of capital stock issued and proceedings by said stockholders at and after organization, the closest and fullest investigation of the joint-committee failed to discover. However, it is a fact that organization was effected, and the school named the "Virginia Female Institute," at Staunton, exists as a body corporate for the object and purposes declared in its charter.

More than thirty years after the charter, to-wit: March 14, 1874, "an act" was obtained from the Legislature with this preamble [Acts 1874, p. 100]:

"WHEREAS, A large number of the original stockholders of the Virginia Female Institute, at Staunton, have departed this life without known legal representatives, and are represented to have subscribed stock in said institute with no view to gain but to promote female education; and

"WHEREAS, On the day of , one thousand eight hundred and , at a general meeting of the stockholders of said institute authority was given to "the Board of Directors" thereof to transfer the property and effects of said institute to the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia; Provided, said Convention would pay off the debts charged upon said property and thus preserve the same for the purpose designated by the charter of said institute; and

"WHEREAS, Said Convention did, in fact, by means of contributions raise for that object, pay off, and discharge said debts, but has been and still is legally incapable of accepting such transfer; and

"WHEREAS, The present Board of Trustees of said institute concur in desiring additional legislation in order to remove uncertainty and doubt as to by which said property is held and to provide for the more efficient government of said institute; therefore, meetings of the Board of Trustees were to be held in the month of May, and on such day and place as the five persons first named in said act designate, and at least one regular annual meeting of said Board of Trustees.

. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That John Johns, J. Whittle, David A. Walker, Nathaniel H. Massie, Robert E. Withers, John R. Anderson, Francis H. Smith, Geo. Newton, Tazewell Taylor, Francis T. Stribling, Henderson Bell, John N. Hendren, Hugh W. Sheffey, Sam G. Cazenove, and John Miller be, and they are hereby, appointed trustees of the Virginia Female Institute, in the city of Staunton, and their successors shall constitute a board, with full power to manage and control the property and affairs of said Institute; to adopt proper and full rules and regulations for the government of the same; to appoint fully a Board of Directors, and to hold, preserve, and use the property and effects of said Institute for the uses and purposes of its original charter and none other."

It "nothing contained herein shall be construed as impairing the charters and rights of the Virginia Female Institute, this act being intended to secure more efficient means for the government of the same."

As far as your Committee has been able to ascertain, this statute was never formally accepted or acted upon by the original stockholders of the company, but the Council will note that one of them, the well-known and distinguished Dr. Francis T. Stribling, of the city of Staunton, was a member both of the new and old Board of Trustees; further, that Henderson M. John N. Hendren, and Judge Hugh W. Sheffey, of the new Board of Trustees, were well known and prominent citizens of said city. It necessarily was, as an irresistible inference and conclusion, that all that was done was done with the express, implied knowledge, consent, and approval of the incorporators and the original stockholders of the Virginia Female Institute, that the stock, by whomsoever then held, was not formally transferred to the new Board of Trustees resulted from carelessness or oversight and not from purpose or design.

From May, 1874, to this date, a period of twenty-two years, the "Virginia Female Institute" has been in the possession of, and managed and controlled by a Board of Trustees nominated and appointed first by the "Convention," after the name was changed to "Council" by the Council of the Diocese of Virginia, and now is under the joint management and control of the Councils of the Dioceses of Virginia and Southern Virginia, as provided by the recent Act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved January 18, (Acts 1895-'6, c. 85, page 110), a copy of which is made part and enclosed of this report and filed herewith, marked "A."

Thursday P. M.

Under the large and ample powers conferred by this statute upon the new board of trustees, your Committee think it is reasonable to hope that at no far distant day "the new trustees" will obtain and hold the stock of the old corporation, or if this hope and expectation be not realized then that the ever moving but quiet and noiseless hand of time by statutes of limitations and application of the principal of laches will make the Dioceses' possession and control of the Institute coupled with their "adversary holding" as good and perfect title to all intents and purposes as if the two Dioceses had a formal, valid and sufficient deed from the old corporation.

Under the admirable and judicious management of the lessee, Mrs. General J. E. B. Stuart, the Virginia Female Institute at Staunton, Va., has done and is doing a splendid work for female education and the Church. The school is a success, deserves and should have the cordial, earnest and zealous support of both Dioceses.

The Dioceses should put forth their best endeavors to increase and enlarge the sphere of this school's usefulness, add to its equipments and accommodations, repair and improve the grounds and buildings.

A Music and Public hall are greatly in demand and could be had by an investment of ten or twelve thousand dollars.

Help on this good school by supplying this present need !

Respectfully submitted,

AN ACT

To amend and re-enact sections 1, 2, and 4 of an act entitled "An act to appoint a Board of Trustees for the Virginia Female Institute, at Staunton, and to provide for the future government of said Institute, approved March 14, 1874," with a preamble to said amended and re-enacted sections.

(Approved January 18, 1896.)

Whereas, since the above named act, approved March 14, 1874, and which is printed as chapter 108 in the Session Acts of the General Assembly of Virginia for the year 1874, went into operation, the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Virginia, referred to in the above-named act as "The Diocese of Virginia," has been divided into two other Dioceses, one known as the Diocese of Virginia and the other as the Diocese of Southern Virginia; and whereas, at the last Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia prior to the division hereinbefore mentioned, the same having been held in Danville, Virginia, in the month of May, 1892, amongst the resolutions adopted providing for the division of the Diocese was the following: "Fifth. Resolved, That the Virginia Female Institute shall remain the property of the Diocese of Virginia and of the proposed new Diocese, and under their joint control and management, on such terms and conditions as may be hereafter determined," which, together with other action of said Council of the Diocese of Virginia, at Danville, Virginia, in May, 1892, relative to said division, was subsequently, in the same year, approved and ratified by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; and whereas, in pursuance of the resolution adopted by the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, at Danville, in 1892, hereinbefore quoted, committees of the Councils of the two Dioceses hereinbefore named, into which the former Diocese of Virginia was divided, have met in joint session and agreed that said last-named two Dioceses should, in their joint holding, control, and management of said Virginia Female Institute, be upon a footing of exact equality in all respects, which action of said committees has been reported to and confirmed by the Councils of their respective Dioceses, and whereas, it is deemed desirable and important that a new Board of Trustees should be appointed for said Institute, and that the aforesaid act, approved March 14, 1874, should also be otherwise changed and amended so as to recognize the division of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia into the two existing Dioceses hereinbefore mentioned, and to provide for the substitution of said two Dioceses to all the interests in and control and management of the said Virginia Female Institute and its property and affairs, to which the former Diocese of Virginia, prior to its aforesaid division, was entitled under said act of the 14th of March, 1874; now, therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That sections one, two, and four of an act entitled an act to appoint a Board of Trustees for the Virginia Female Institute, at Staunton, and to provide for the future government of said Institute, approved March 14, 1874, be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That Right Rev. F. M. Whittle, D. D., Right Rev. John B. Newton, James M. Garnett, R. Taylor Scott, Joseph Bryan, John G. Williams, and Thomas Potts, all of whom reside within the boundaries of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, at present known and designated as the Diocese of Virginia, and Right Rev. A. M. Randolph, D. D., W. W. Old, Charles M. Blackford, W. A. Anderson, H. M. Bell, T. C. Elder, and Thomas D. Ranson, all of whom reside within the boundaries of the Diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, at present known and designated as the Diocese of Southern Virginia, be, and they are hereby, appointed Trustees of the Virginia Female

Institute, in the city of Staunton, Virginia, and they and their successors shall constitute a Board, with full power to manage and control the property and affairs of said Institute; to adopt proper and needful rules and regulations for the government of the same; to appoint annually a Board of Directors, and to hold, preserve, and use the property and effects of the said Institute for the uses and purposes of its original charter and none other. The Board of Trustees hereby appointed shall be divided into two parts, designated as Part I and Part II, respectively. The seven persons first hereinbefore named as Trustees, and described as living within the limits of the present Diocese of Virginia, and their successors, shall constitute Part I, and the seven persons last hereinbefore named as Trustees, and who are described as living within the limits of the Diocese known at present as the Diocese of Southern Virginia, and their successors, shall constitute Part II. The said Trustees and their successors may acquire, receive, hold, manage, rent, sell, grant, convey, invest, convert, and otherwise dispose of, as to them shall seem most conducive to the interest of said Institute, for the purpose of educating white females in said Institute, and erecting, acquiring, equipping, and furnishing the necessary buildings and other property therefor, and maintaining said Institute, all lands, tenements, stocks, bonds, goods, moneys, securities, chattels, and property of every kind which have been, or may be given, bequeathed, or devised to, or otherwise acquired by said Trustees for the purposes aforesaid, or for the endowment of said Institute, or of any chair therein, or for the purpose of establishing or endowing fellowships or scholarships therein upon such conditions as may be imposed by the donor, grantor, or testator making said gift or grant; and for said purposes the Trustees and their successors may acquire the stock of said corporation, and hold the same for the advancement of the cause of education in the said Institute. Devises, bequests, gifts, and grants may be given or made to the Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute for any or all of the purposes aforesaid.

SEC. 2. The first meeting of said Board of Trustees shall be held on the first Thursday in May, 1896, at the Virginia Female Institute, in the city of Staunton; and there shall be at least one regular meeting of the Board in each year thereafter, the time and place of such meeting to be fixed by said Board; and in the event the Board is unable to agree on the time and place for the regular annual meeting, it shall be held on the first Thursday in May, and at said Institute in Staunton. Any five members, irrespective of the parts of the Board to which they belong, may call a special meeting of the Board to be held at said Institute in Staunton, and at such time as may be designated by a written or printed notice duly mailed to the regular post-office addresses of the other members, or by publication in at least two newspapers of general circulation, one of which shall be published in the Diocese of Virginia and the other in the Diocese of Southern Virginia, the notice, if sent by mail, to be forwarded at least two weeks before the meeting, and if by publication in the newspapers, the first insertion in each paper to be at least two weeks before the meeting, and the publication to be continued until the meeting. Three members from each of the parts into which the Board of Trustees is divided—six altogether—shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and no measure can be carried unless a majority of the members from each Diocese constituting the quorum in attendance on the meeting at which it is voted on shall vote in its favor; nor can any office be filled, or any person elected or chosen to any position by the Board, unless by a like concurrent vote of the two parts. The Board of Directors, which the Board of Trustees are by the first section of this act authorized to appoint, shall consist of as many members as the Board of Trustees in a regular annual meeting assembled shall determine, who may be, in whole or in part, persons other than members of the Board of Trustees; and they may all reside in one Diocese, or be selected from the Dioceses of Virginia and Southern Virginia in unequal numbers as between the two. The Board of Trustees shall have power to enact by-laws for its own government, and also for the government of the Board of Directors; provided that they are not in conflict with the Constitution or laws of this State or of the Constitution and laws of the United States.

SEC. 4. Each part of said Board of Trustees shall have power to fill any vacancies which may occur in the membership of such part arising from death, resignation, inability or refusal to act, or removal from the Diocese represented by such part. Any such vacancy shall be filled by that part of the Board in which it occurs alone, without assistance from or interference by the other part of the Board; but the selection of a person to fill the vacancy shall be made from two or more persons recommended therefor by the council of the Diocese to which the part of the Board of Trustees in which the vacancy occurs shall belong; and in this way Part I of the Board may keep this part full, and Part II may keep its membership full, each doing this without interference on the part of the other.

2. That this act shall be in force from its passage.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Rev. Wm. M. Clark read the report from the Committee on the State of the Church.

Friday A. M.

The Committee on the State of the Church would respectfully report:

We have listened to the various reports of the Bishops, Officers and Committees with unfeigned pleasure and satisfaction. We gather from these various sources that the condition of the Diocese in many, if not in all, respects is such as to afford gratification to its members.

Last year—the first with two Bishops in the divided Diocese—more than one thousand confirmations were reported, a number unprecedented in the territory in the history of the Church in this State. Naturally, for certain reasons, we might have expected a falling off this year, but we find to our gratification that the Bishops report 729 confirmations for this year, more than half as many as were ever reported in any one year from the old undivided Diocese. We think this a cause for much thankfulness, despite the fact of long continued and unprecedented financial depression, that exceedingly important agency. The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society reports large and well-sustained contributions to its work, showing an unflinching, if not growing interest on the part of our people. In this connection it is particularly pleasing to contemplate the continuance on the part of the children of the Diocese of their prompt and hearty and generous assistance to the Committee in their work. Also in this connection your Committee are reminded of an opportunity for very real and effective Missionary work, which lies often at the door of our people who live in the country and are isolated in some degree from the activities of their Parish Churches. We mean that of gathering the poor and neglected people and children, whether white or colored, in their neighborhood (and in what neighborhood cannot such be found?); and in Bible classes and Sunday-schools instructing them in the simple truths of the Gospel and leading them in the worship of God. A work of inestimable value has often been and now is being done in this way by earnest laymen and women, as our brethren have testified; many of our rural churches and congregations having sprung from just such small beginnings as these. But whether large, visible results may be anticipated or not, a blessing both upon teachers and hearers may be expected to follow such efforts undertaken and persevered in with a single eye to God's glory and the good of souls.

We congratulate the Diocese that the long cherished idea of our Bishop as to Deaconesses seems at last to be assuming tangible shape by the setting apart, a few days since, in old St. John's Church, Richmond, of a lady for this important work, and we trust that this is but the earnest of far greater results in the near future. It would be a pleasing thing were some liberal person or persons to contribute a sufficient fund to establish a home and training school for Deaconesses, and to put this important work on an assured foundation.

We greatly sympathize with the Committee on Prayer-Book Distribution as to the sentiment of their able and valuable report on this subject, and we believe that some Diocesan agency for the furnishing of free prayer-books to the Missions and weak Parishes would be an invaluable assistance to the missionary work of the Diocese, and we sincerely trust that the Council will not allow this important matter to pass without further notice. Of all the special agencies at work in our Diocese, none seems to be doing more, or more valuable work, than the Woman's Auxiliary, and if there be any of our Parishes which have not introduced this important feature, we cordially commend it to their attention and consideration. Also, we call special attention to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and the large field for usefulness that it seems capable of filling.

Your Committee would like to call the attention of every Clergyman and Layman in the Diocese to the Protestant Episcopal Review. We do not believe that there is any agency in our Church to-day that is doing more to commend the Virginia Seminary and disseminate its teachings and principles than this Magazine, and we would cordially solicit for it the moral and financial support of all who love the historic traditions and faithful teaching of this old Diocese and the Seminary.

In conclusion, your Committee congratulate the Diocese on the bright outlook, and pray that no unfaithfulness or want of zeal on our part may hinder us in the good work.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN MISSIONARY FUND.

The Rev. John McNabb made the report of the Committee on the Accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Society:

Your Committee appointed to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Society, beg leave to report that they have examined the same and find them correct.

JOHN McNABB, Chairman.

Rev. James Grammer read the report of the Trustees of the Seminary and High School:

Friday A. M.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND HIGH SCHOOL.

The Trustees of the Seminary and High School herewith respectfully present their annual report to the Council of the Diocese:

The classes in the Seminary have been diligently and successfully pursuing the curriculum of studies for the current session without interruption, except for a short time during the prevalence of an epidemic that attacked their members.

Since our last report Dr. Packard, Professor of the English Bible, has been relieved from all active duties on account of his increasing infirmities; and as a measure of compensation for the loss of his instruction, the Rev. William H. Neilson, D. D., of Shepherdstown, West Virginia, by lectures and examinations twice a week for five months, has been giving instruction in the English Bible.

Rev. Charles Gauss, our Commissioner of Endowment, was compelled by sudden failure of health to give up his work, and the office of Commissioner has been discontinued. The Trustees, therefore, renew the appeal made in our last year's report, and renew it with increasing urgency, for an increase of the Endowment, and for the annual parochial collections recommended recently by the Council of Virginia.

The High School reports one hundred and three boys during the current year, of whom forty-nine are from the three Virginia Dioceses.

By a change in the management of the School, which will go into operation next session, the boarding and business department will be under the control of a Proctor, responsible directly to the Board of Trustees, while the present able Principal, Mr. L. M. Blackford, M. A., will continue in the sole charge of the scholastic department of the Institution. The terms of this new contract make no provision for scholarships, but it is confidently expected that the new arrangement, by yielding to the Trustees a larger money revenue, will enable them speedily to arrange a system of scholarships on a different and more satisfactory foundation.

Appended are the reports of Professors of the Seminary and the Principal of the High School.

Respectfully,

JAMES GRAMMER, for the Trustees.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submit the following report of the studies pursued in his classes during the current session:

Friday A. M.

The Junior Class, for part of the session, reciting once a week, have studied Chadbourne's Natural History, and are now preparing for examination.

The Middle Class, reciting five times a week, have studied Butler's Analogy, my outlines of Theology, with Knapp as reference; in connection with this, a study of the doctrinal contents of the Epistles of New Testament. The Analogy has been finished with the examination, and they are in a review of the remaining work. To these have been added, during part of the session, recitations twice a week of Mead's Supernatural Revelations. Also essays in Systematic Divinity, and exercises in construction of sermons.

The Senior Class, with three recitations per week and the Wednesday evening exercises, have studied the Articles with Boulton, with references to Burnett and Browne. They are also studying in Natural Theology, Hopkins' "Outline Man," and Homiletics in Dr. Broadus's book, with exercises.

I have also gone over with this class the history of the Prayer-Book, as to its sources, material, as also its changes in the Church of England and in this country, using Dr. Butler's History, Canon Barry's Students Prayer-Book, and the more elaborate work of Blakeney in the way of reference. Along with this, a course of lectures on Liturgics and on Christian Ethics.

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF GREEK LANGUAGE, &C., &C.

Theological Seminary of Virginia :*

Up to this date the Senior Class has pursued its regular course in the Greek Testament, reading the later Epistles of St. Paul, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians and Philemon, besides they have read the Gospel of St. Luke and the Catholic Epistles. They are now entering upon the study of the Apocalypse, and writing essays upon St. Luke for the final examination.

The Middle Class has studied I and II Corinthians, Romans and Galatians, and will enter shortly upon the Epistle to the Hebrews. The work of this class has been unfortunately interrupted by a disease of the eyes, which has prevented the majority from studying about six weeks during the session. Some members of the Junior Class have been affected in the same way.

The Junior Class has studied St. John's Gospel, and the Gospel of St. Matthew, with full reference to the other synoptics. This class will complete the work of the session by reading I and II Thessalonians.

Essays have been read weekly in the Junior and Middle Classes.

In Church Polity I have met the Senior Class twice a week for the first six months of the session. Hooker's Works were taken as the basis of instruction, supplemented by a series of lectures.

During the rest of the session the Senior Class studies Pastoral Theology during the hours which were previously allotted to Church Polity. The Pastoral Epistles are read in Greek, followed by general lectures on the subject specially applicable to the necessities of the time.

Friday A. M.

The students have been faithful in their work, and the average on examinations has been good.

SAMUEL A. WALLIS,
Professor of the Greek Testament, Church Polity and Pastoral Theology.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF HEBREW, ORIENTAL LANGUAGES AND APOLOGETICS.

Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Senior Class has read critically in Hebrew selected from portions of all the Prophets, analyzing the several books and studying carefully the periods and events of their ministries. The study of Hebrew Syntax continued, and special attention given to the development of Messianic prophecy.

The Middle Class has read seventeen Psalms critically, also selected portions of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs, and Job, in connection with introduction to the same, special attention being given to the principles of Hebrew Poetry and their application. It has also studied Harper's Syntax.

The Juniors have read in Hebrew portions of Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, and other Historical Books, mastering the elements of Hebrew Grammar and Accentuation, also the elements of Hebrew Syntax. The aim is to familiarize them with the entire range of Historical Hebrew, and for the final examination they are required to read it at sight. The Higher Criticism is carefully explained together with its most important applications. The usual instruction in Apologetics is given supplemented by lectures.

Respectfully submitted,

A. CRAWFORD.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY AND CANON LAW.

The courses in Church History and Canon Law have followed, without any changes worthy of note, the lines which are laid down in the catalogue, and which have been annually reported to the trustees.

The Junior Class has studied the history of Israel down to the founding of the Christian Church, and is at present reading the Acts of the Apostles as a basis for the discussion of the life, teaching, worship and organization of the Apostolic Church.

The Middle Class is still studying the life of the Medieval Church, and will take up the Reformation in Germany before the session closes. Various causes have thrown this class somewhat behind in its work, and it will be necessary to exact from the class next year more than the Senior's usual amount of study in history.

The Senior Class is studying the Canons at present, and hearing lectures on the History of Religion in England in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries.

The members of all the classes read essays upon historical subjects, and the Senior's read a final essay which is supposed to express the results of their own study and thought, and to be something more than a mere compilation. On the whole, I should say that the essays show no tendency to deteriorate, and that the general work of the classes is encouraging to me.

Respectfully submitted,

CARL E. GRAMMER.

"BOHLEN HALL," February 12, 1896.

My Dear Doctor:

As my term of duty at the Seminary has come to an end, it seems fitting that I should make some report to you, as Acting Dean, of the work which has been done during the past five months.

With the closing hour to-morrow I shall have given full five months' instruction in the English Bible—two days in every week, except the weeks of Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day. Once I was called away on professional duty, but the week thus lost I have since made up. The term (before Lent) falls short two weeks of the five months, but during the past two weeks I have been giving twice the time allowed me by the Faculty, so as to complete the full term of my appointment.

With to-morrow I shall have given fifty-five hours of instruction, having delivered forty-six lectures and employed nine hours in review. Of these hours I have given six to the Senior Class, nineteen to the Middle Class, and thirty to the Juniors.

The Seniors have gone only through the History of the Translation; the Middle Class through the Pentateuch and the Historical Books up to the Books of Kings, and the Junior Class through the Pentateuch and the Historical Books.

The Middle and Junior Classes have also gone through the History of the Translation, and have been exercised in Earle's "Bird's-Eye View of the Bible."

The Junior Class has, I think, made considerable progress. The Middle Class has not done very much, for soon after beginning the work I discovered that, with only one hour a week for lecturing, review, and questioning, there was very little hope of progress.

With kind regards, I remain, my dear Doctor,

Faithfully yours,

Rev. C. WALKER, D. D.,

WM. H. NEILSON.

Acting Dean Theological Seminary of Virginia.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRINCIPAL OF THE EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL, MAY 6, 1896.

The whole number of pupils, including ten day scholars, entered this session is 103, with a maximum attendance of 97. The endeavor heretofore made to surround the boys with salutary moral and religious influences has been steadily maintained. Extra services have been held at the school by the Rev. Prof. Grammer and his colleagues, besides the usual attendance Sunday morning at the Seminary chapel. The Friday night meeting with the boys, so long customary, has been conducted greatly to their advantage and satisfaction by Mr. John S. Alfriend, of the Seminary Senior Class, to whom, as well as to the clergymen named above, my best thanks are due. Including two who received the rite at home, twelve boys have been confirmed, and the number of communicants in the school is forty-two. Whatever success has attended the labors of the session is so largely due to my assistants, that it would be equally unjust to them and inconsistent with my own feeling to conclude without distinct record of my sense of obligation for their faithful services.

L. M. BLACKFORD.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE BROTHERHOOD.

Mr. John G. Williams read the report of the Committee on the Brotherhood.

It is greatly to be regretted that this Institution, which has paid an average of about $1,000 to the families of deceased Clergymen should be allowed to languish, as it is now doing.

Your Committee cannot but believe that if the attention of the Laity was called to its beneficent object and the small cost to each member, that its membership would be very largely increased. We therefore respectfully recommend that the Vestry of each congregation in the Diocese be requested to appoint an agent to secure members of the Brotherhood in their respective congregations.

JOHN G. WILLIAMS,
CYRUS BOSSIEUX.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Mr. L. M. Blackford read the report of the Committee on Finance.

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of Mr. Robert S. Chamberlayne, Treasurer, and have found them well and accurately stated, and his disbursements sustained by proper vouchers.

They find that the total amount received for the year ending May 11, 1896, from the quotas assessed on each Parish (Contingent Fund) for the general expenses of the Diocese, including the salaries of our Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, amounted to $7,582.22, an increase over the collections of the same character for last year of $442.22. In addition to this, the Treasurer received $50.47 as interest upon his current bank balances on this fund, making a total of $7,632.69 on account of Contingent Fund, which is the usual and ordinary resource for meeting the usual and ordinary expenses of the Diocese.

In addition to these receipts, say	$7,632 69
The Treasurer had balance from last year	361 57
And received from J. T. Gray, his predecessor, principal and interest demand loan	1,559 50
And from the Diocese of Southern Virginia, advance made on account of assessment by the General Convention	41 50
Total	$9,595 26

The expenses were as follows:

ORDINARY.

Salaries of two Bishops	$6,000 00
Travelling expenses of same.. . . .	206 37
Rent of Bishop Coadjutor's residence.	600 00
Salary and expenses of Secretary.	210 00
Compensation of Assistant-Secretary	25 00
Salary and expenses of Treasurer.	56 90
Salary and expenses of three examining chaplains	321 90
Printing and distributing of Journal of Council, with other printing.	448 00
Stationery	49 57
Sexton at Council	15 00
Commissioner of Revenue.	1 00
	$7,933 69

EXTRAORDINARY.

Expenses of Bishop and deputies to General Convention at Minneapolis.	$652 00
Assessment on Diocese for expenses of General Convention, including $41 50 for Southern Virginia, afterwards refunded	312 50
	964 50
Total.	$8,898 19

Friday A. M.

The balance left in the hands of the Treasurer is $696.95. It will be observed, however, that our ordinary expenses exceeded our ordinary receipts $256.00, and that our extraordinary expenses, growing out of the General Convention, amounted to $964.50, less $41.50 repaid by Southern Virginia. Our Committee regard with great satisfaction and encouragement the collection from communicants of $7,582.22 during a year of unprecedented financial depression, and are gratified to state that their most sanguine expectations were realized in the faithful support which the members of our communion have rendered to the Church. This response, which has been made to the appeal of the Finance Committee of the last Council, is full of comfort and encouragement, and gives evidence of devotion and sacrifice which will well stir the hearts and strengthen the faith of all who tread the ways our fathers trod.

It will be observed, however, that not counting the extraordinary expenses incident to the General Convention, we are still touching upon the small reserve of capital that we have for current Diocesan expense, and that a continuation of close collection of quotas from parishes is indispensable to prevent an uncovered deficit. We believe that no Diocese of equal magnitude, and with two Bishops, is more economically administered than ours, and every dollar collected is used only for its absolute necessities.

Your Committee recommend that the payment of rent for the residence of the Bishop Coadjutor, not to exceed $600.00 per annum, be continued; that the Treasurer be paid $100.00; that the compensation of the Assistant Secretary be $25.00; that the Secretary be authorized to print and distribute 1,000 copies of the Journal of this Council, the expense thereof to be paid by the Treasurer; that the Secretary of the Standing Committee be authorized to purchase, at a price not exceeding $50, a fire-proof safe, for the protection of the records and papers of the Committee, the cost thereof to be paid by the Treasurer; and that the Sexton of St. Paul's Church, Alexandria, be paid

This invitation was accepted by the Council.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The Rev. Preston Nash read the report of the Committee on Sunday-Schools.

Our Committee on Sunday-Schools beg to submit the following report:

We recognize the Sunday-School as a part of the Church of Christ, not as adjunct, not as a party to a religious compact, in no sense existing independently, or as rightly teaching lessons, doctrines or customs not in keeping concurrent with the teachings of the Church. The Sunday-School has peculiar sphere in the Church, wisely directed by capable, consecrated, earnest officers and teachers, looking only to the glory of God and the eternal welfare of His people, this Institute has accomplished a work which it is difficult to conceive of as being done through any other agency. We would urge, as of primary importance, that in the selection of officers and teachers for Sunday-Schools prayerful regard be had to the choosing of persons as are fitted for the duties—spiritually, "for if any man have not the spirit of Christ he is none of His;" mentally, "for how can the blind lead the blind;" popularly, "for how can two walk together except they be agreed." Carefulness, solicitude, prayerful consideration in organization and detail will, under God, insure success, when, notwithstanding zeal and enthusiasm, indifference in regard to such matters will invite failure. We would urge upon those in authority the judicious selection of lessons current with the Church year. We regard this course as eminently useful in familiarizing our own children with the sequence of Gospels and Epistles as read from the Chancels; and helpful in introducing, through Sunday-School lessons and papers, the Church Seasons with their distinctive teachings, into the families of children who, though attending our schools, are not members of our Church.

The Sunday-School Liturgy is a matter that should claim our attention. For obvious reasons, comparatively few of the younger Sunday-School scholars in our cities attend regularly upon Divine service; while in many country parishes there are opportunities to attend only at stated appointments of the rector, on the occasional visit of the Diocesan Evangelist. These facts should emphasize the necessity of introducing the prayer-book and hymnal in the liturgy of the Sunday-School, for upon a familiarity with these depends an intelligent and spiritual appreciation of the worship of the church. Every Sunday-School scholar in the Diocese should have his own prayer-book, use it in Sunday-School and in church, and carry it home where its silent yet potent gospel may speak for Christ, and its healthful form of worship commend at once the dignity and spiritual excellence of our incomparable liturgy. To this end we heartily commend the organization of the Virginia Prayer-Book Distribution Society, and urge upon rectory and people the liberal support and patronage of the same.

We believe that in the Sunday-School there should be a recognized system of contributing to important church and Diocesan objects; not so much for the money thus collected as for the lesson instilled that the Sunday-School is a part of the general church, and that baptised persons, though not yet confirmed, are members of the same and have an interest and part in its welfare. We have seen with pleasure the helpful results in this direction of the personal letters of our Bishop to the children. These have come to each child, they have been eagerly asked for, they have gone into the homes in our parishes, they have done much to make the children realize that they are identified with the church, and in many instances have enlisted the active interest of parents.

The rector is the head of the Sunday-School. He may delegate his authority, but he may not shift his responsibility upon another. To him is entrusted the welfare of souls in his cure, and of him will be required an account. Too often, with his authority, he resigns his responsibility, excusing himself upon the plea of other arduous parish duties, or because he has the best of representatives. We may not in detail declare what a rector's duties in his Sunday-School are, but we may call to mind the solemn injunction of our Lord, addressed no less to the pastor of to-day than to the apostle of old "Feed my Lambs."

We believe that the establishment of Mission Sunday-Schools in outlying districts in the cities and at points remote from the parish churches in the country will be helpful, and should be commended. Often such schools have grown into centers of church interest, oftener lessons of Christian duty have been taught, influencing whole lives. Such schools afford a field of labor for church guilds, for the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and for earnest Laymen where faithful service will return a sure and pleasing reward. "Where two or three are gathered together in my name, there will I be in the midst of them."

The custom of discontinuing Sunday-Schools in winter or in summer we regard as hurtful. Fully appreciating the difficulties under which a continuous session must be held in many Parishes, we think a prayerful regard for the welfare of the souls of those who by this custom are on Sundays left to interest or amuse themselves will be an incentive to arrest effort to keep the Schools open throughout the whole year.

A greater interest in Sunday-Schools among the Laymen is much desired.

Friday A. M

It is a stimulus to the teachers and an encouragement to the scholars to see parents and sponsors present in the School. With what care do we review the studies and select the teachers of our children in the matter of mere training of their minds; yet, how indifferent do we appear in the matter of their moral training, when we seldom enter the Schools or give them a word of praise or commendation.

There is absence of complete reports on the subject, yet we fear that the custom of public catechising of the Sunday-Schools by the rector has nearly fallen into disuse. Such a practice has, in time past, been productive of great good, and we would rejoice to know that it has been generally re-established. Time lays its paralyzing hand upon our mental faculties, responsive to his touch we lose the keen sensibilities of thought, the vivid impressions of recollections. We forget the texts, we fail to recall the sermons we have heard; but age can never dim the memory of the beloved rector, nor efface from mind and soul his simple teaching, when, in the great congregations he called to the chancel rail and told us what was meant when he said, "We were made members of Christ, children of God, and inheritors of the kingdom of Heaven."

On motion of the Rev. J. J. Gravatt, it was—

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Sunday-schools be adopted, and that the same be published (with the approval of the Finance Committee) in leaflet form, and distributed through the Diocese by the Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

Major R. Taylor Scott made the report of the Committee on Clerical Support, and moved that the report be accepted and the Committee discharged; which was then done.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., MAY 22D, 1896.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia:

"The Committee upon Clerical Support" respectfully report that the Treasurer from ninety Churches and Parishes of this Diocese have returned reports. Of this number twenty-six have no rectories; forty-eight have this very necessary property. Two Parishes are reported vacant. Eighty Parishes and Churches have paid in full the salary promised their rectors, and eight are in arrears.

Friday A. M.

The depression in business, everywhere found, and low market for all agricultural products, necessarily affect the finances of our Church, but bad and hard as are the times, but eight Churches and Parishes have failed to fulfill their obligations to their pastors.

Your Committee think in year past this Diocese has good cause to be thankful, and both Clergymen and Laymen should, with renewed hope, gird up their loins, take courage, and press on their work.

R. TAYLOR SCOTT,
JOHN M. TAYLOR,
J. B. McCAW,
WM. C. MARSHALL,
WALTER R. CRABBE.

The Rev L. R. Mason then offered the following:

Forasmuch as the Protestant Episcopal Seminary and the Episcopal High School are institutions in whose welfare all the churches in Virginia and West Virginia are deeply interested, and to whose moral and financial support these churches should gladly contribute; and

Forasmuch as under the present charter of these institutions the churches in whose interest they exist, and upon whose patronage they largely depend, have no voice in their government, the present Board of Trustees being in the nature of a close corporation without legal responsibility to the churches in whose interest they govern; therefore, be it

1. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Council that the Legislature should be memorialized so to alter the charter of the Protestant Episcopal Seminary and the Episcopal High School, as that all vacancies hereafter occurring in their Board of Trustees shall be filled by persons elected by the Councils of the several Dioceses now existing or hereafter to be formed in the States of Virginia and West Virginia, provided that the Bishops of the said Dioceses shall be ex-officio members of the Board.

2. Resolved, That since there is no power in this Council, or in any other existing authority in the Dioceses of Virginia, to effect this change without the consent of the Board of Trustees, that that Board be, and is hereby, respectfully requested to give such consent, and to inaugurate such a movement by drafting a suitable memorial to the Legislature, or taking such other action as shall be necessary to accomplish the end.

Adjourned to 3:30 P. M.

Friday P. M.

FRIDAY, 3:30 P. M.

The Council re-assembled, and was called to order by the Bishop.

Mr. John M. Taylor offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of five, consisting of three of the Laity and of the Clergy, be appointed to consider and report at the next Council whether in their opinion some more equitable plan of Lay representation be devised.

The motion was carried, and the Chair appointed Messrs. John Taylor, Wm. Ellis Jones, Dr. John R. Wheat, Revs. B. M. Adolph, and J. J. Gravatt.

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin moved that the Secretary be instructed to send out the blank forms for the Treasurer of the Council.

Lost.

Rev. L. R. Mason then moved that his resolutions with regard to Trustees of the Seminary and High School be referred to a committee of five, one of whom should be an able lawyer, to report to next Council.

Adopted.

The Chair appointed as the committee the following: Revs. L. Mason, James Grammer, D. D., Mr. J. M. Garnett, Major R. Lor Scott, and Mr. Joseph Bryan.

Major John Page moved that the fiscal year of the Treasurer of Council begin July 1st. Lost.

On motion of Major John Page, it was—

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to look into the question of making the Episcopal High School a Preparatory School for the Theological Seminary.

The Chair appointed as such committee Revs. Berryman Green,

Friday P. M.

P. P. Phillips, J. J. Norwood, Major John Page, and Mr. L. M. Blackford.

Major John Page offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Council extend its cordial thanks to the good people of Alexandria for their hospitality; to the rector and vestry of St. Paul's church; to its choir for their excellent music and faithful attendance on the meetings and services of the Council; to the Committee of Arrangements for their careful attention on the delegates; to the pages for their ready assistance in transacting the business of the Council; and to the several managers of the railroads and steamboat lines for their kindness and liberality in giving reduced rates on their several routes to the delegates in attendance on the Council.

After reading the minutes, singing the hymn "Blest be the tie that binds," and prayer by the President, the Council adjourned sine die.

F. M. WHITTLE, President.

MIDDLETOWN, VA., MAY 5TH, 1896.

Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D.:

Rev. and Dear Bishop,—I offer the following report of the little work it has fallen to my lot to do the last twelve months:

I have occasionally conducted worship and preached in this Diocese and those of West Virginia and Southern Virginia for several of the brethren during their absence; and preached quite often at a country school-house and elsewhere.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. EVERETT.

VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE,
STAUNTON, VA., May, 1896.

Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE,

President of the Board of Trustees:

Dear Sir,—As Principal of the Virginia Female Institute, I beg to submit my report for the present session:

The whole number of pupils entered is eighty-six—of these twenty-three are day-pupils. This attendance has been most encouraging.

Miscellaneous.

as in all of the other schools of our city there is a marked loss of numbers, and one school did not open at all. We count but three less than our usual number of boarders, as enrolled for the past three years.

The session draws to its close, and with pleasure I can say a more satisfactory year has never passed over us. The moral tone of the school has been high, and the loving influence of our Rector, Rev. Robert C. Jett, is felt by each one.

The Bishop of our Diocese visited the Parish April 26th, when a class of eight went forward for confirmation from our household.

The general health of the family has been very good; no serious sickness of any kind has visited us, except one case of surgery.

The standard of scholarship is fairly well maintained, and as a school our only great need to put us on a footing with the best in our land is a change in our buildings. We need more room to compete satisfactorily with the schools of the day.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees, a committee was appointed to take some steps in this matter, and large results are hoped for through their active interest and energy.

It was stated by one gentleman that building can now be done for fully one-third less than five years ago. What better time could be found for the erection of the much needed addition?

The Faculty of the School wins for itself each year a renewal of assurances of the confidence reposed in it by patrons and pupils, and at present the indications are that little or no change will be made in it for the next session.

Desiring the confidence and support of our Dioceses, I am
Very respectfully,

MRS. J. E. B. STUART.

Secretary's Report of the "Virginia Branch" of the Woman's Auxiliary, 1896.

Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D., President ex-officio :

As year after year the record of the work of "Virginia Branch" is respectfully submitted, we are conscious of a certain monotony of routine that is difficult to avoid, as the work is done on the same lines of "reasonable service" by the women of the Auxiliary. It is hard to make written words glow with the true spirit of enthusiasm and interest which really underlies the story of our work, begun in faith, and finished in love; but so, the women of the Church pursue the course marked out with an increasing zeal and love for Missions, and are learning that "giving" means "receiving;" that the reflex benefit has, in every case, come to them in a higher consecration and a nobler purpose; the principle of self-sacrifice has been generated; that the measure of zeal, devotion, and sacrifice will ever be the measure of the prayers and alms that will flow into the missionary treasure of God's Church.

The goal of our vision and effort is the fulfillment of our earnest intention, not to stop 'till every one of our seventy-two Parishes in the Diocese has a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. Until the Clergy and our women come to understand that they can never do their best Parish work 'till they have stretched out their hands to the larger interests of the Church, they will be hampered by the narrow spirit of parochialism, that neither sees nor feels the needs of others. The Woman's Auxiliary is developing a vast amount of latent power, boundless in its possibilities for the growth and prosperity of every branch of work, by utilizing the heretofore wasted energies of womanhood, and giving them aim and direction, by the influence of the missionary spirit, for enlarging and establishing the Kingdom of our Lord, and so sharing its final glorious consummation. The year has been marked with some advance; nine new branches have been added, and the "Junior Department" is at last steadily growing in numbers and interest. The Babies' Branch is gathering the lambs into the missionary arms of the Church, and will train them in loyal love for the cause by teaching missionary responsibility from baptism. Our gifts in money and boxes have been sent within and without the Diocese, and in more than one case keeping a missionary at his hard post by offering relief; China, Japan, Africa, and Brazil have all been remembered, and with the gifts, has gone a nobler offering—even one of Virginia's daughters—to give herself to the work of Missions in Japan, and others offering to go, or to devote their energies to Deaconess work at home, if possible.

Again, we thank the Bishops for continued encouragement in the work, and ask their interest and co-operation in time to come.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND HIGH SCHOOL.

The Trustees of the Seminary and High School herewith respectfully present their annual report to the Council of the Diocese:

In the Seminary the total number of students is thirty-nine, distributed by classes, as follows: Senior Class, ten; Middle Class, ten; Junior Class, fourteen; special students, five. Twelve Dioceses are represented.

The High School reports a diminished number of pupils, owing to the depressed condition of the country; but in other respects the report is excellent.

The property has been well cared for and greatly improved by the Proctor, Mr. Joseph Wilmer.

An abstract of the reports of the Professors in the Seminary and of the Principal of the High School, is appended.

Respectfully,

P. P. PHILLIPS, for the Trustees.

REPORT OF PROFESSOR OF SYSTEMATIC DIVINITY AND HOMILETICS.

 Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Professor of Systematic Divinity respectfully submits the following report of the studies pursued in his classes during the current session:

The Junior Class, for part of the session, reciting once a week, have studied Chadbourne's Natural Theology, and have just passed their examination.

The Middle Class, reciting five times a week, have studied Butler's Analogy, my outlines of Theology, with Knapp as reference; in connection with this, a study of the arrangement and doctrinal contents of the Epistles of the New Testament. The Analogy has been finished with the examination, and they are in review of the remaining work. To these have been added, during part of the session, recitations twice a week of Mead's Supernatural

 Report of the Professor of Greek Language, &c.

Revelation and Oehler's Old Testament Theology. Also essays in Systematic Divinity and exercises in the construction of sermons.

The Senior Class, with three recitations per week, and the Wednesday evening exercise, have studied the Articles with Boulton, with reference to Arnett and Browne. They have also studied, in Natural Theology, Hopkins' Outline Man, and Homiletics in Dr. Broadus' book, with exercises in sermonising.

I have also gone over with this class the history of the Prayer-Book, as to its sources, material and interpretation, as also its changes in the Church of England and in this country, using Dr. Butler's History, Canon Barry's Students' Prayer-Book, and the more elaborate work of Blakeney, in the way of reference. Along with these, I have given a course of lectures on Liturgics, and studied lectures on Christian Ethics.

C. WALKER.

REPORT OF THE PROFESSOR OF GREEK LANGUAGE, &C., &C.

Theological Seminary of Virginia:

The Senior Class has followed its regular course in the Greek Testament as laid down in the catalogue, with the exception that instead of the Gospel of St. Luke, the Gospel of St. John has been studied chiefly along its theological lines, using as a basis of teaching Steven's Johannine Theology. Essays have been written for the final examination on this Gospel. The work of the Class will close with the study of the Apocalypse, which has just been taken up.

The Middle Class has studied with careful attention to exegesis all of the first and half of the II Epistle to the Corinthians, with Romans and Galatians. The Class has now entered upon the study of Hebrews, with which its work for the session will close.

The Junior Class commenced its work with St. John's Gospel and then took up St. Luke, studying it in harmony with the other synoptics. The Epistles of St. Paul to the Thessalonians will complete the course. On the literature of the New Testament Schaff's Companion to the Greek Testament and Bishop Westcott's Bible in the Church have been studied in this Class. The usual work has been done in Church Polity by the Senior Class, closing with the examination at the end of March. From that time to the close of the session this Class gives the hours previously given to Polity to Pastoral Theology. Instruction is given in this department on the Greek text of the Pastoral Epistles supplemented by lectures.

The work of the classes during this session has been exceptionally good. Especially in the Junior Class the benefits of a college course are very apparent.

SAMUEL A. WALLIS,

Professor of the Greek Testament, Church Polity and Pastoral Theology.

Report of the Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Canon Law

APOLOGETICS.

Theological Seminary of Virginia:*

The Senior Class has read critically in Hebrew selected portions from all the Prophets, in chronological order, analyzing the several books and studying carefully the periods and events of their ministries. Special attention is given to all critical questions involved, to the development of Messianic prophecy, and the grammatico-historical method is emphasized throughout. The study of Hebrew Syntax is completed.

The Middle Class has read seventeen Psalms critically, including the more important Messianic Psalms. Also selected portions of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs and Job, in connection with introduction to the same, special attention being given to the principles of Hebrew Poetry and their application. The study of Harper's Syntax continued from the Junior year.

The Juniors read in Hebrew portions of Genesis, Exodus and the other Historical Books, mastering the elements of Hebrew Grammar, a vocabulary of 1,000 words, and Hebrew accentuation; also the elements of Syntax. The aim is to familiarize them with the entire range of Historical Hebrew, and for the final examination they are required to read at sight. The Higher Criticism is carefully explained, together with its most important applications.

It will thus be seen that in the course the Hebrew Bible is practically covered. This, we consider, provides a better preparation for the ministry and foundation for future study than concentration upon two or three books. The students become familiar with the Hebrew and style of the different books, their contents and literary features, and all fundamental questions are mastered.

The usual instruction in Apologetics is given, supplemented by lectures. The Theistic ground is gone over. The evidences for Christianity proper are studied up to date, and special objections discussed.

Respectfully submitted,

A. CRAWFORD.

CANON LAW.

After the record of the past two years, in which my work was interrupted by sickness, it is with special pleasure and gratitude that I report that I have not lost a single recitation, or appointment to speak or preach thus far, this session, on account of ill-health.

The work of the different classes has followed in the main, the outline laid down in the catalogue, a copy of which has been sent to each of the Trustees. The Senior Class which was a little behind in its work, has recovered to a great extent its ground.

Abstract of Annual Report to Trustees of Episcopal High School.

Fisher's History of the Reformation, has been studied, together with Merry's History of the Church of England, down to the silencing of Convocation.

The study of Canon Law has just been taken up, and the rest of the scholastic year will be occupied with this subject, and with lectures on the history of the Church of England in the 18th and 19th centuries.

The Middle Class has completed the usual course in the first and second volumes of Smith's Ecclesiastical History. Before the session closes, the class will study the era of the Reformation in Fisher. Following out a long cherished design, I have enriched the curriculum, in my department, by adding a text book on the History of Doctrine. The book chosen has been Sheldon's History of Christian Doctrine. The Senior Class has studied and been examined on the history of doctrine from 1517 to 1720 A. D., and the Middle Class will complete this week, the first volume that treats of the doctrinal history of the Church down to the Reformation. I believe that this course of study has been a great addition to my department, and I call the attention of the Trustees particularly to this new text book.

In the Junior Class, the rate of progress was sufficiently rapid to carry the class through the usual work of the year by the 5th of April. For the remaining two and a half months of the session, the study of Ante-Nicene Christianity has been taken up. The text book is the 2nd volume of Schaff's History of the Christian Church, and it is hoped that at the present rate of progress, it may be completed by the close of the session. By this means it may be possible to gain sufficient time for the study of the third and fourth volumes of the same work in the Middle year.

The progress of this class shows the good results of the college training of our men.

As a member of the library committee, I desire to add, that the availability of the books will be greatly increased by the introduction of a card catalogue of authors, as the committee has suggested to the Executive Committee of the Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

CARL E. GRAMMER.

ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL HIGH SCHOOL, MAY 4, 1897.

The whole number of pupils, including nine day scholars, entered this session is sixty-eight. This decline in numbers is believed to be due solely to the hard times, and as it is shared by most schools in the State, we have no right to complain. The health of the School has been better than in any year since 1870. No epidemic has visited us, and there has been no sickness of any kind grave enough to require even once the use of the infirmary. Good conduct and diligence, equally with good health, have been a distinguishing mark of the session. The religious exercise and influences of the School have been as before, and the propriety and conscientiousness of behavior which have prevailed among the boys warrant the belief that they have not been in vain. Repeated special services in the School Chapel by Professor Grammer; the regular Friday night devotional meeting, conducted by Mr. W. P. Capers, of the Seminary Middle Class; and the example and control of an excellent corps of masters have been added to my own constant efforts in behalf of the moral and religious elevation of our charge. Including three confirmed here on the 2d inst., the number of communicants among the boys is twenty-six.

L. M. BLACKFORD.

Rev. L. R. Mason, when the order of the day arrived—the report of Committee in regard to changes in the Charter of the Theological Seminary and High School—moved that the same be postponed till the next Council, and the committee continued.

Lost.

The Rev. L. R. Mason, chairman of a committee appointed last year, read the report in regard to changes in the charter of the Theological Seminary and High School.

REPORT ON CHANGES OF CHARTER OF THE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND HIGH SCHOOL.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the question of the expediency of requesting the Board of Trustees of Theological Seminary and Episcopal High School to move the Legislature to alter, in some respects, the charter of said Board, ask leave to report that in order to establish closer and more cordial relations between the Board and the churches of the several Dioceses of Virginia, Southern Virginia, and West Virginia, and to receive the heartier and more liberal support of the Theological Seminary and Episcopal High School on the part of the churches, some change would be expedient. In the judgment of your Committee this can best be effected by giving the Councils in the several Dioceses some voice in the control of the aforesaid institutions.

Your Committee recognize the fact that the details of this management must be left in the hands of a smaller and select body of competent persons, such as now compose the Board, rather than discussed in open Council. We, therefore, propose no radical or revolutionary change in the method which now exists, and which in the main has worked well in the past. We do not even contemplate the removal of a single member of the present Board.

Minority Report.

Our sole object is to impress upon the minds and hearts of our people in the several Dioceses the truth that these institutions are theirs—theirs by the facts of history, and theirs by the right of inheritance. Theirs because they are founded by the piety and wisdom of their forefathers, and theirs because they have been to very many of them nurseries of evangelical truths and fountains of spiritual life.

We would have our people feel that these institutions have been sources of blessing not only to our own Dioceses, but to the greater Church in the country at large, to which they have furnished pioneer missionaries—bishops, ministers, and laymen—in every Diocese in the land. We would have them feel that these are institutions of whose past work and record they may well be proud, and for which they may thank God and take courage. But we would have them also feel that they are institutions whose future course of prosperity and usefulness depends, not only on gifts and legacies from outside sources, however acceptable these may be, but also, and largely, upon the loyal and self-denying support, the confidence, and the love of our churches and people at home. We think that it is evident that this feeling of loyalty is not what it once was, and certainly not quite what it ought to be. It is, then, as servants of the great Head of the Church—the Bishop and Shepherd of our souls—that we venture to suggest a method by which the relations between the churches and the Board may be made closer, more personal and more cordial. To that end we deem it expedient that the Board of Trustees be requested by this Council to memorialize the Legislature so to amend the existing charter that in future—

(1) The Bishops of the several Dioceses in Virginia and West Virginia shall be ex-officio members of the said Board.

(2) That each vacancy hereafter occurring in the Board by death, resignation, &c., shall be filled by the election by the annual Diocesan Council of the Diocese in which the vacancy occurs, of one person from three nominees made by the Board to the Council.

L. R. MASON,
JAMES GRAMMER,
R. TAYLOR SCOTT.

Mr. Joseph Bryan then presented a minority report on the same subject, which was adopted.

MINORITY REPORT.

I am unable to sign the report of the committee, because it assumes that there is a marked, and therefore a serious, alienation of the sympathy and support of the churchmen of the Dioceses of Virginia, Southern Virginia, and West Virginia, from the Seminary and High School, because of the manner in which the Trustees are constituted, and possibly, but only inferentially, because of their management of the Institution committed to their charge.

This alienation may exist, but I do not know it, and have no sufficient evidence of its existence to justify me in acknowledging it, and proposing alterations in the charter under which the Seminary and High School are held and managed, in order to remove it.

The report assumes further, that the property held by the Trustees, belongs to the three Dioceses now occupying the territory of the Diocese of Virginia, as of February 28, 1854, when the charter was granted the Trustees.

The property which at that time was conveyed to the Trustees, being about one-fifth or even less than now held by the Trustees, unquestionably belonged in equity to the Diocese of Virginia, but for good and sufficient reasons, that property was by the Diocese, conveyed absolutely, without qualification or reservation, to the Trustees named in the Charter, with power to fill vacancies without the control or interference of the Diocese of Virginia, or of any other organization or person.

Since that conveyance was made, in 1854, the Trustees under the Charter, have received gifts from all over the country, amounting to several times the amount conveyed by the Diocese of Virginia, and with the full knowledge and presumably the full approbation of the donors of the terms of the Charter touching the self-perpetuation of the Trustees.

How far this provision may have influenced the making of these gifts cannot be known, or rather, is not known to me, but so important a feature could not have been ignored. The question now arises, would the Trustees be justified in changing the terms under which they took gifts, without obtaining the consent of the donors?

The report of the committee is framed in a loving and Christian spirit, and if the state of feeling really exists against the management of the Seminary and High School, which it assumes, at least by implication, to exist, it is most desirable that it should be changed. Certainly it would be a distressing condition, when the Alumni of the Seminary and the High School feel a want of full affection for their respective alumnae matres, or lack confidence in their custodians.

If, in the opinion of the Dioceses of Virginia—Southern Virginia and West Virginia—this condition exists, and they are further of the opinion that the amendment proposed by the committee will create the cordial relationship between the churchmen of the three Dioceses and the Seminary and High School, which is desired by all, the proposition of the committee is, in my opinion, in the form least objectionable to the terms of the trust in which it could be framed. In view, however, of all the circumstances under which the property was obtained, and of the difficulty of securing concurrent action by the Councils of the three Dioceses upon the subject, and the further difficulty of framing conditions in a Virginia charter which would give legal rights to the Councils of the Dioceses of Virginia, Southern Virginia and West Virginia—which are voluntary associations not known to or provided for in the law—I believe it would be wiser not to take the proposed action at all.

I submit, therefore, the following resolution:

Resolved, This Council deems it inexpedient at this time to take any action to secure the amendment of the Act of Incorporation of the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Theological Seminary and High School in Virginia, passed February 28, 1854.

JOSEPH BRYAN.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 19, 1897.

Adjourned to meet at 8 P. M.

WEDNESDAY, 8 P. M.

The Council assembled in the interest of Diocesan Missions.

There were present in the chancel Bishop Whittle and Bishop Newton, and the Revs. W. D. Smith, L. R. Mason, E. L. Goodwin, S. S. Hepburn, and Preston Nash.

After Divine service, conducted by Rev. W. D. Smith, the Rev. Preston Nash read the report of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF VIRGINIA.

The Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society of Virginia respectfully report:

Since its last annual report your committee has been called upon to record the death of its beloved Secretary, Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., who entered into eternal rest on the 20th day of February, 1897. Our brother was for twenty-one years the rector of St. Andrew's Church, Richmond, Va., and for more than eighteen years was the Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Society, and editor of its official organ, "Our Diocesan Work." Doctor Powers was eminently qualified for the work in which it pleased God to use him. He possessed a well-trained, thoroughly-equipped mind, and a character singularly attractive in its quiet modesty, its genuine kindness, and its zeal in all manner of good. In his death the Church has lost one of her most self-sacrificing clergy; this Diocese has given up a devoted son and useful servant; and the Missionary Society has been deprived of a member whose wisdom and practical knowledge, combined with a truly Catholic spirit, constituted him a safe counsellor, an efficient administrator, and a faithful, zealous advocate.

Your committee have elected Rev. Preston Nash, rector of Christ Church, in Richmond, Va., to succeed Doctor Powers in the offices of Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Society, and editor of Our Diocesan Work. The following table of receipts and expenditures is submitted:

RECEIPTS FOR 1896-7. TO MAY 13, 1897.
Balance from 1895-6	$2,328 33
Received from churches.	4,850 42
Received from mite-boxes.	1,772 93
Total.	$8,951 68
Expenditures	7,633 92
Leaving balance on hand.	$1,317 76

The sum distributed through the Committee for Missions has gone to the aid of twenty-nine counties, thirty-eight parishes, sixty-six churches, chapels and missions, thirty-three missionaries.

The statistics for the year ending May 1, 1896, show at that time in this Diocese thirty-eight counties, sixty-six parishes, one hundred and forty-eight churches, chapels and missions, seventy-seven clergy. Comparing this table with the one just given you will perceive that missionary aid has been given to seventy-six per cent. of all the counties, fifty-seven per cent of all the parishes, forty-three per cent. of all the churches, chapels and missions, forty-two per cent. of all the clergy.

These figures are approximately correct, and bear witness to the fact that ours is a missionary Diocese, the larger part of whose territory is dependent for the "Bread of Life" upon the Christly spirit of love and generosity animating and controlling the disciples of our Lord in the smaller and more favored sections. David was loth to house himself in cedar while the Ark of God remained in curtains; nor may we, with consciences void of offense toward man and God, minister abundantly to ourselves while our brethren for whom Christ died suffer spiritual hunger.

There are vast possibilities for the Church in this Diocese, and there are heavy responsibilities laid upon her. She has received the "faith once delivered to the saints;" her past history shows that in all purity and simplicity she has taught it to her children; she has made for herself a name so truly Catholic and conservative that she has won, and is winning, the respect and reverence of all thoughtful people; she offers a grateful retreat to those who would escape or avoid distractions, uncertainties and dissensions in their militant church life; and she is commissioned to carry her treasures and offer er asylum to the remotest dwellers in her remotest borders. Our Lord will demand of her in judgment an account of her stewardship; the unaided, whose souls' salvation may be jeopardized through ignorance, will witness against her, and she will charge her failure against us if we put not in her power the means to accomplish her mission. Our general statistics will show that the Church is not lacking in generosity toward other objects, but the returns declare a decrease in her offerings for our Diocesan Mission work.

We offer no formal suggestions for increasing the missionary funds. We believe that if each of us who have found in Christ a Saviour, in our Church. Divinity-given guide leading men to Him—that if we should recognize the need of our brethren in remote places in our Diocese, realizing that this need can only be supplied by our devotion and self-sacrifice; that if we should be filled with that charity that animated St. Paul, causing him to exclaim, “My heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they ‘might be saved;’” that if we would go home to our friends and tell them “what great things the Lord hath done for us,” “charging them that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate,” then there would be no lack in “God’s storehouse,” and we might claim His promise to “Open the windows of heaven, and pour us out a blessing that there be not room to receive it.” Then might we hearken to hear it said of our Diocese: Venerable in age, honorable in history, reverend in character, full of love for man and God—“Behold, it is a prosperous and a delightful land.”

Your Committee would commend the work of the Sunday-schools in the interest of Diocesan Missions. The following tables show what proportions of the offerings for this purpose they have made during the last three years:

Total receipts for Diocesan Missions, 1894-'5	$9,946 93
Of which there was balance from previous year	2,831 00

Missions for three years, given through the Lenten Mite-Boxes distributed to the Sunday-schools.

The children of the Church have responded to the call of the Bishop, and their lenten offerings have proved their zeal and self-sacrifice. It is well to commend, but it may prove disastrous to a cause if the splendid work of volunteers tempt veterans to relax their vigilance or to shift their responsibilities.

It was never intended that the missionary offerings of the Sunday-schools should decrease those of the Church; on the contrary, the mite-boxes were to be supplementary, the efforts of the children were to be example and stimulus to their elders, and their voluntary gifts were to open new fields impracticable without new means. The lenten appeals to the Sunday-schools have served a good purpose in educating the children in the School of Missions, but is it not possible that because of their generous response the Church may feel herself relieved in some degree of her own responsibility? Her annual contributions have not increased with the demands made upon her; she has not answered the "Macedonian Cry," coming from wider fields and vaster possibilities. Has there not been a steady growth in the expensiveness of parish machinery, more urgent calls for aid to local charities and benevolent institutions, a multiplication of domestic, social and business appeals marking as necessities, all drawing heavily upon her revenues. Answering these, may she not assume that her obligation to missions is lessened when her deficiency is met, in part, from some other source? These are questions, not assertions. The statistics are before you. The subject is one for earnest reflection, radical heart-searching, and devout prayer; therefore, in view of the decrease in the offerings for Diocesan Missions,

Resolved, "That the Executive Committee request that their report be made the order of the day immediately after the election of the committees, which by the rules of order follow the reading of the Episcopal address."

PRESTON NASH,
Sec. Ex. Com. D. M. S.

Addresses were made by Revs. L. R. Mason, E. L. Goodwin, and S. S. Hepburn.

The offerings of the Congregation were taken for Diocesan Missions.

The congregation was then dismissed by Bishop Whittle.

ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, FREDERICKSBURG, VA.,

MAY 20, 1897, 9:30 A. M.

The Council met for Divine service, when a sermon was preached by Rev. H. B. Lee from St. Mark i: 45.

At the close of the service the Council was called to order by Bishop Newton.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The following members appeared and took their seats: Rev. J. H. Hundley and Mr. Jno. Temple.

The chairman then read an invitation from the Ladies' Memorial Association of Fredericksburg to unite with them in observing memorial day to-morrow at 5:30 P. M.

BISHOP WHITTLE'S ADDRESS.

Bishop Whittle's address was then read by the Secretary:

MY DEAR BRETHREN:

Continued and increasing bodily infirmity has prevented me from making any regular visitations during the past year.

By the help of others, I have been able to carry on my correspondence, and attend to my duties at the Seminary, the Divinity School, etc., as usual.

I report the following visitations and confirmations:

April 16—St. James', Ashland, two.

April 25—St. John's, Richmond, ten.

On May 17, 1896, in St. John's Church, Richmond, I had the great satisfaction of setting apart Miss Mary E. Jones, for the office and work of a Deaconess, she being the first of this Order in the Diocese, for which by study and experience she was well qualified.

The service was most solemn and impressive.

I was aided by Bishop Newton, who preached the sermon, Rev. Dr. Powers, Rev. E. V. Jones, and Rev. R. A. Goodwin.

Miss Jones had been for the preceding year, and is still laboring in the congregation of St. John's Church, under the direction and as the assistant of the Rev. R. A. Goodwin.

I trust that before long, every city Rector in the Diocese may be provided with a like invaluable helper in his work.

June 16—I was at the meeting of the Trustees of The Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School.

June 22-26—I attended the various meetings connected with the closing exercises of the Seminary and High School.

MINISTERS DECEASED.

After a long and useful life, Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Richmond, died in that city on 20th of Feb., 1897, aged eighty three years and eleven months.

Dr. Powers was in many respects a remarkable man. He was not ordained until March 24, 1874, when he was made Deacon in Saint Paul's Church, Richmond. Not satisfied to remain in that order as he had proposed to do, he was admitted to Priest's Orders in the same Church, March 21, 1879.

The whole of his faithful and successful ministry, was spent as Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Richmond.

He was also a member, and Secretary of the Board of Trustees of The Bishop Payne Divinity and Industrial School, Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Society, and of its Executive Committee, and Editor from the beginning of that most useful paper, Our Diocesan Work.

A lovely Christian character, of fine and cultivated intellect, a true preacher of the Gospel, and faithful to every trust, he now "rests from his labors," and his works do follow him.

I wish to direct the special attention of the Council to the Brotherhood.

This most admirable Association has accomplished great good, but its usefulness and even its existence, seem to be gradually drawing to a close.

Its receipts on the death of a minister of the Diocese have gradually fallen off, until the last collections have amounted to next to nothing.

Bishop Newton's Address.

The trouble is, that its machinery extending as it does to every Church and Parish of the Diocese, is so extensive and complicated, that it is found to be impracticable to continue and keep it in motion. The corporators recently held a meeting and after a thorough discussion of the subject, requested me to suggest to the Council, the adoption of one of two alternatives. Either to reorganize the Brotherhood on a new and better basis, or to dissolve the organization, and add what money it has, to the fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen.

I commend this important matter to the serious consideration of the Council.

BISHOP COADJUTOR NEWTON'S ADDRESS.

Bishop Newton then read his address:

To the Rt. Rev. Bishop of the Diocese of Virginia and to the Clergy and Laity:

MY DEAR BRETHREN:

Once more in the goodness of God, we have met together to take counsel in regard to the things pertaining to His kingdom and its work in the Diocese of Virginia. With the warmest greetings of affection, I welcome you to this annual gathering in a church made memorable in the past by the earnest spirit shown, and the great good done in the religious exercises of the early Conventions of the Diocese. May some measure of that blessed spirit, by whose presence the fathers of the Church in Virginia were so constantly guided, fall on us here and direct and overrule all our consultations, to the advancement of His glory, and to the peace and prosperity of His Church and people.

The detailed report of my work during the past year is as follows:

May 3d, A. M.—At Monumental, Richmond, I preached and confirmed fifteen; P. M., I attended the opening service of the new St. Philip's Church, and made an address. This is a very pretty brick church, built upon the foundation of the old church, at a cost of about $5,000. It has quite a large debt upon it, which the rector and people are struggling to pay off.

Bishop Newton's Address.

This brings my report of work to May 1, 1897. Since then I have confirmed a number of persons, and rendered other services, which will appear in the report for next year.

I believe that we have every reason to be devoutly thankful for the present condition of the Diocese, and to look most hopefully to the future.

I trust, at this meeting of the Council, the cause of Diocesan Missions will be fully and carefully discussed. Upon the full and faithful work of your Diocesan Missionary Society must depend, in large measure, the progress, if not the life, of our Church in Virginia. No other matter can occupy the time and thought of this Council of nearly so much importance, and it is to be hoped that you will give it your most prayerful consideration.

And now once more thanking my brethren, both clerical and lay, for all their kindness to me during my various ministrations, I devoutly commend them to "Him who loved us and gave Himself for us." If He "be for us, who can be against us?"

On motion of the Rev. J. R. Ellis, it was Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's address as referred to the Brotherhood, be referred to the Standing Committee on the Brotherhood, to report to this Council.

On motion of Mr. Jno. T. Harris, Jr., it was

The Bishop appointed the following as the committee: Revs. O. M. Yerger, N. P. Dame, James Grammer, D. D., Messrs. Jno. T. Harris, Jr., Albert Baker, R. Powell Page.

Randolph moved that the Secretary of the Council be authorized to cast the vote of the Council for the Committee of last year, which motion being carried, the following gentlemen being nominated and there being no other nominations they were elected as the Standing Committee of the Diocese for the ensuing year:

The Rev. J. R. Ellis moved that after the expiration of ninety days the office of the Evangelist in this Diocese be dispensed with.

THURSDAY 3:30 P. M.

The Council re-assembled.

The Secretary then read the telegrams from the Secretary of the Conventions of the Dioceses of Washington and Maryland, reciprocating the greeting of the Council of Virginia sent to them yesterday.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PAROCHIAL REPORTS.

The Rev. J. J. Clopton, Chairman of the Committee on Parochial Reports, then read his report:

From the sixty parishes and 164 churches and chapels in the Diocese, your Committee have received 107 reports. These reports are drawn up more accurately and more legibly than has ever occurred before in the memory of your Committee. Many reports, however, were kept back till Thursday morning, instead of being sent to the Bishop before or at the opening of the Council, thus delaying greatly the work of your Committee.

Your Committee would recommend that in future the Secretary send out two blank report forms to each church, so that in case of error in filling up, the second form can be used and an uncorrected report sent in to the Committee. The unused forms, if any, should be returned with the one filled up, so that but little expense would be incurred.

Your Committee present the following summary:

Despite the financial depression which afflicts our country, we call upon the people to increase rather than diminish their offerings to this object.

Resolved further, That the roll of churches be called, and that the delegates, clerical and lay, from each church be requested to indicate as near as possible the amount that they, the delegates, will seek to secure from their respective churches for the cause of Diocesan Missions, including offerings from the children and the Sunday-schools, for the ensuing fiscal year. Where any church is not represented by delegates, clerical or lay, present in the Council, or where the delegates present are not prepared to indicate the amount which they will seek to secure from their respective churches, the said churches are requested to report to the Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society, within sixty days, the amount which they will seek to raise for this object.

The roll of the churches was then called, and the amount pledged was $4,103.57.

REPORT OF THE PRAYER-BOOK DISTRIBUTION SOCIETY.

The Rev. H. B. Lee read the report of the Prayer-Book Distribution Society, with two resolutions attached, which being put to the Council were carried.

Report of the Prayer-Book Distribution Society

Your Committee on The Virginia Prayer-Book Distribution Society have little of detail to report. This society was organized at the Council held in Alexandria in 1896. Its present officers: Rt. Rev. J. B. Newton, President, Rev. Preston Nash, Secretary, F. D. Beveridge, Treasurer.

Its object was to distribute among the people and in mission fields the Prayer-Book—that incomparable help to decorous and intelligent worship of Almighty God. The demands for this book have steadily increased, showing conclusively that old-time prejudice is fast yielding to the influence of education, and that the Christly, conservative attitude of the Church is winning for her the admiration and support of the masses of the people. The doors of our Church are opening wider every day, and the invitation to enter is couched in no language that can be misconstrued as exclusive or restrictive. Her Liturgy, once a barrier to ignorance, is now a grateful means of grace to almost universal education; and the firm foundation of her faith, as epitomised in services, is appealing to minds unsettled by uncertainties and abstractions.

We meet the call for the preached word by sending our missionaries throughout our Diocese; theirs is the voice heard but too seldom by the many among the people; we should supplement their work by sending the SILENT EVANGELIST into every home where there is ready welcome, where there are minds and hearts receptive for truth attractive and without error.

The Prayer-Book Distribution Society have had many requests for books, but from lack of funds have not been able to extend its help to all. As far as possible its distribution is entirely free. There is in the treasury $30, and there are applications for more books than this sum will purchase. We appeal to the Church to make contributions to this society, that its work, recognized as important, may be done well. Applications for Prayer-Books should be made to Rev. Preston Nash, Secretary. Contributions should be sent to Mr. Frank D. Beveridge, Treasurer. P. O. address of both, Richmond, Va.

We recommend that in order that the existence and object of the society may be more generally known, the secretary call attention from time to time to its work and needs in "Our Diocesan Work" and the "Southern Churchman."

We call the attention of the Executive Committee to a resolution empowering them to nominate a general agent for the society, and request them to take such action in the matter as in their judgment may be best.

Report of Committee on Sunday-Schools.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY-SCHOOLS.

The Rev. J. J. Gravatt, chairman of the Committee on Sunday-Schools, read the report and resolution, which was adopted:

Your Committee would report, with great pleasure, the improvement in the work of the Sunday-school. In 1896 there were 7,345 teachers and scholars; in 1897, 8,308. The number of catechisings has increased from 337 to 423, showing a greater interest on the part of Rectors in the Sunday-school. The number of scholars confirmed has grown from 152 to 194, indicating that teachers are realizing more and more that their work is to bring the children to Christ and to full communion with His Church. The contributions are less than last year, but this, we believe, is due to the stringency of the times. In 1896 they amounted to $4,323.30; in 1897, to $3,659.57.

We must regard the Sunday-school not as a theory, but as a condition. If all children were baptized in the Church, and all parents and sponsors performed their duties, there would be no need of the Sunday-school. But such is not the case; and since the Sunday-school is a fixed institution in Christian work, we must, if we are going to do our work and meet the demands of the day, be more aggressive in our Sunday-school work. We must infuse more life into it, and emphasize more and more its importance. It should be made so efficient that the grown people may be constrained to take greater interest in it. Your Committee feel that the lack of this interest has, in the past, been a weakness. The teachers should realize the sacredness and blessedness of this work, that it is not simply to hear lessons from leaflets, but to inspire the scholar with greater love for the word of God and to win them for Christ. To this end the teachers themselves should earnestly and prayerfully prepare their lessons, and where possible, the Rector should instruct them, or Sunday-school Institutes should, from time to time, be held, where model instruction could be given.

Your Committee would deprecate the disappearance of the Bible from the Sunday-school. No leaflet can take the place of the Book. Each child should have his own copy of the Bible for reference.

The Bible classes for grown people are attracting more attention. An earnest effort should be made to hold our young men and women in these classes. The Church ought to support the Sunday-school, and the school ought not to give its offerings, or all of its offerings, to itself. Your Committee would suggest, that at least on one Sunday in each month the collection be devoted to missions.

Your Committee would recommend that in place of the so-called Sunday-school liturgy, the Collects and other parts of the Prayer-Book and the hymns of the Church Hymnal, with bright tunes, be used, that the children may become familiar with the liturgy and hymns which they are to use through life.

Report of Committee on : tate of the Church.

The Sunday-school can in no way take the place of the Church, and the children should be lovingly urged by parents and teachers to attend regular services and "to hear sermons," as the baptismal office directs. Parents require their children to attend secular schools during the week, and they go for long hours, but where parents do not show the same interest in the instruction of the Church for an hour or so on Sunday, children soon see it, and rebel or absent themselves. In the cities, or where they may be held, occasional joint-services of the different Episcopal Churches will be most stimulating and helpful.

In conclusion, your Committee would beg the Council to give the weight of its influence to this most vitally important cause, and would ask the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That an Executive Committee on Sunday-schools be elected by the Council, which shall be a center for correspondence, which may provide Sunday-school Institutes, when desired, in different parts of the Diocese, and may, in the future, if practicable, have a depository for Sunday-school literature.

J. J. GRAVATT,
E. L. GOODWIN,
H. C. WILKINS,
N. B. NOLAND,
F. M. EASTMAN,
Committee.

The Bishop appointed the following as the Executive Committee of Sunday-schools: Revs. Preston Nash, W. D. Smith, Berryman Green, Mr. Thos. Potts, and Prof. — Stone.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was read by Rev. Jno. McGill:

At the close of another year of church life, a year falling under the lengthening shadows of this nineteenth century's setting sun; a period, which for depression in business, for unrest among the people, has never, in our country, been surpassed, if, indeed, ever before equaled; a period marked by a drifting away by numbers of men from the great verities of the Christian faith; at the close of this year your committee is asked to consider and report to you the state of the Church.

The mention of the Church brings before us the beloved bishops, the faithful clergy, the devoted laymen and laywomen of the Diocese; the large city congregations and the smaller gatherings in our village and country churches; our Sunday-schools, the many societies of the Church, our Seminary, our schools for young men and maidens, and above all the homes of our people, which are the training schools of the race. And what scenes of toil and conflict, of sacrifice and suffering, yet of pure joy and splendid triumph, present themselves as the Church militant thus passes in review before the mind.

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

We miss from the ranks of the clergy at this gathering two noble veterans of the cross of Christ, Rev. Dr. Powers and Rev. Thomas E. Locke, the latter having never missed a Council in sixty years. They are now reaping their reward. Let the new recruits fill up the breach and follow in the footsteps of these devoted servants of God.

And as we come to view more closely these workmen and their labors, we find encouragement in the reports brought before us by our bishops and by our clergy as well; the number confirmed, the report from the Sunday-schools, the Auxiliary, the gifts from our congregations (these latter exceeding the contributions of last year by $21,000), all alike furnish ground for praise and thanksgiving. We find that the long-standing prejudice against our Church is fast becoming a thing of the past; we find old churches, dating, some of them, to 1665, and twice rebuilt, looking up again with hope of a brighter future, than in many a year past.

We find with devout gratitude that amid the dreadful financial stress through which we are struggling, the constancy and spirituality of our membership is manifest, shown by the sacrifices they make for the sake of our Blessed Master's kingdom on the earth. And yet, your committee, while profoundly grateful for these tokens of God's favor and blessing which rest upon us, feel constrained to call attention to certain points vital to the prosperity of the Church. We mention first the Sunday-school work. Well has the Sunday-school been called the nursery of the Church. Through our Sunday-schools the children are won for Christ; from our Sunday-schools are to come our future teachers, preachers and toilers in Christ's vineyard. How necessary to keep the Sunday-schools on a high plane? To this end, how desirable that the teachers of the Sunday-school be trained? trained by the Rector or by some consecrated man or woman under the Rector? We have trained nurses, that they may intelligently minister to men's bodies; should not those be trained who minister about spiritual things to our children? Again we urge the importance of teaching and filling the mind of the young with the pure word of God. Let every parent see to it that a well-bound Bible with good print be given each child to be kept all its life, in which all the notes and studies of the years as they go by may be preserved; and let this Bible be carried to the Sunday-school by the child. We feel assured that nothing can so stimulate and perpetuate the interest in the Sunday-school as the faithful study of God's word; and we rejoice to know that Bible-classes for half-grown boys and girls, grown people, even fathers and mothers, are springing up in our Diocese.

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

We mention next the Diocesan Missionary Society. We notice with regret the seeming decrease of interest in this society, and yet never before in the history of our Church has there been a better opportunity for the extension of our Church than we find to-day. Our scriptural doctrines, our conservatism, the beauty and dignity and spirituality which pervade our Liturgy, are better known and appreciated to-day than ever before. Our Church is more active in doing her Christ-given work among the poor and suffering, stretching out her hands, guided by the Holy Ghost, and is taking to her embrace all classes and conditions of men, because all alike are the purchase of our Blessed Lord's blood, and consequently our Church is welcomed, where, but a little while ago, she was looked upon with suspicion; and this work is largely due to the Diocesan Missionary Society. And yet this society has not been upheld as in years past. Six dollars additional from each congregation in the Diocese would have saved us from the depressing effect of this seeming decrease of interest in this society, the pride of the Diocese in years gone by.

The remedy for this is found in our obeying God. If each communicant would lay aside on the first day of each week as the Lord hath prospered him, there would be no question then as to the means with which to carry on the Lord's work; the question would rather be as to the employment of the superabundance.

And now we come to consider the most important feature of the Church's work—The homes of our people. If vital religion is declining among us, it is largely due to the home training. It is to be feared that but a small proportion of our homes possess a family altar; and yet nothing can be more helpful than the daily reading of God's word and the invoking the Divine blessing upon the household about that altar, and nothing can more impress the children and lead them to appreciate their dependence upon God. Nothing better calculated to win them to Christ. And yet many parents are withholding from those dependent upon them this means of grace. We would ask this question: "Are we doing in this regard for our children what our parents did for us?" And again, touching the attendance of the children upon Sunday-school and Divine service: In how many instances are children allowed to remain at home or return home at the close of the Sunday-school? How often whole families are found on the Lord's day occupied with the Sunday paper—the father with its politics or trade, the mother with the fashion or gossip column, the girls with the stories, the boys with the sporting news, the little ones with the pictures, evil in their effect upon the young mind. The afternoons are devoted often to amusements, the evenings to foolish talking or jesting or to visiting. The Christian Sunday of our forefathers is fast disappearing—due, we are sure, to home training. In the home children are to be trained in religion. The father and mother are to be the teachers; and while it is true that this teaching should be a daily process, yet especially should Sunday be devoted by parents to the instruction of their children in their duty towards God and man. There are but fifty-two of them in each year; only a very few years are children under the parental roof; how prayerfully and jealously should those precious hours be guarded and employed.

In conclusion we need all alike to ever bear in mind that "God, the Holy Ghost," "the Promise of the Father," sent of Christ to take His place in the world, is ready to take up His abode in man. Ready to make His people temples for His indwelling; that God is more willing to give His Holy Spirit than men to give good things to their children. And let us know and well consider that without the presence and power of the Blessed Spirit man's activities must prove comparatively fruitless. And we need to further remember that Christ could use His disciples in so far only as they submitted themselves to Him, and thus to-day in so far as men yield themselves to the Holy Spirit, insofar can the Holy Ghost use them in His great work on earth. If we covet usefulness in Christ's kingdom, it can only be attained through the Holy Ghost, and the Holy Ghost is given by God to them that obey Him.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CLERICAL SUPPORT.

The report of the Committee on Clerical Support was read by Mr. Jno. G. Williams.

The Committee on Clerical Support respectfully report that the treasurers of ninety-three churches and parishes have returned reports. Of this number eighty-seven report their pastor's salaries paid in full, while only six are in arrears. The arrearages amount to only $161.05, while seven churches have paid more than they promised, aggregating $79.09. Of those reported in arrears one during the year paid $33, on account of previous deficit. The Church is to be congratulated upon this fine showing in a year of great depression, and the Diocese should be thankful and filled with renewed hope for the future.

REPORT ON THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

Rev. J. Y. Downman read the report on the Episcopal Fund.

Report on the Episcopal Fund.

The report of Committee upon Episcopal Fund shows that the only papers laid before it consist of a statement of C. C. Baughman, Treasurer of such fund, with the statement of the Auditing Committee, showing that they had examined the said statement and found the same correct, and a voucher showing the expenditure of $570 for the purchase $1,000 3% Virginia Bond at $57. This statement shows that the Episcopal Fund has $6,400 of invested funds, including the Virginia 3's just mentioned. That $500 of the invested funds have been redeemed during the year. That in addition to the said amount of invested funds there is in hand with the treasurer the sum of $798.99, as against $597.05 on the 1st of May, 1896. It appears that the only expense-account paid during the year was $25, paid Virginia Trust Company for care of securities of the fund; that the amount of interest collected through the year amounted to $296.94.

Your Committee desires to say that this report is made up only from the data above mentioned, and that the standing of the Treasurer and of the Auditing Committee is the guarantee for the accuracy of the account.

It appears that this fund owns the following securities, which are held by the Virginia Trust Company:

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The report of the Finance Committee was read by Mr. Joseph Bryan which, with the resolutions thereto attached, was adopted:

The Committee on Finance respectfully report that they have examined the accounts of Mr. Robert S. Chamberlayne, Treasurer, and have found them well and accurately stated, and his disbursements sustained by proper vouchers.

They find that the payments by the respective parishes on account of the Contingent Fund for the year ending May 15, 1897, when the Treasurer closed his accounts amounted to $7,521.36 or only $6.86 less than the amount reported at the last Council, which was $442.22 more than the amount reported at the preceding Council.

Under all the circumstances of financial depression and distress, your Committee feel that our Churchmen have done well, but the Diocese has been saved from a deficit only by the liberality of our Bishop, who out of his salary has contributed $500, to meet the current expenses of the Diocese.

For the sake of comparison, your Committee have stated in juxtaposition, the main items of receipts and disbursements for the years 1896 and 1897

They are as follows:

Report of the Finance Committee.

From these statements it will be seen that the ordinary expenses of the Diocese exceeded its ordinary receipts by $248.76, besides which, $231.60 were spent upon subjects of peremptory importance, though of extraordinary character. The balance, which was brought forward from the previous year, and the generosity of our Bishop, have enabled us to meet these expenses and have a surplus on hand of $745.59. It should be remembered, however, that next year the General Convention again assembles, and the expenses incident thereto will have to be met, and we have now no resource other than the collections from the Contingent Fund from which we can draw, except twenty-nine shares of Southern Railway preferred stock, worth now about $700. It will be very necessary that the collection of the Contingent Fund for the coming year be as full as possible, and your Committee are led to hope that with an increasing number of communicants and propitious seasons and improved business conditions, this Diocese may not become either a delinquent or a borrower to meet its proper dues.

Your Committee again call attention to the rigid economy with which our diocesan affairs are conducted. In the matter of their travelling expenses our Bishops have set an example of simplicity and economy which can hardly be surpassed, if equalled, and this precision and care is found in every particular of the disbursements.

Your Committee recommend the payment of rent for the residence of the Bishop Coadjutor, not to exceed $600 per annum. That the Treasurer be paid $100, and that his annual compensation be fixed at that sum, until changed by action of the Council. That the Assistant-Secretary be paid $25 for his services, and that that sum be allowed him annually hereafter until changed by the Council. That the Secretary be authorized to print and distribute 1,000 copies of the Journal of this Council, the expense thereof to be paid by the Treasurer. That the sexton of St. George's church be paid $15 by the Treasurer.

On motion, the Rev. W. S. Campbell, Secretary of the Virginia Bible Society, was allowed a few moments to speak to the Council on the subject of his work.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NEW PARISHES.

The special order of the day—being the report of the Committee on New Parishes—was then taken up and the petition in regard to parish lines in Culpeper county was granted.

The Committee on New Parishes beg to report that they recommend the Council to grant the petition of St. Mark's Parish, Culpeper county, asking for an alteration of boundaries.

A PETITION.

To the Council of the Diocese of Virginia:

Whereas, The present boundary lines between St. Mark's Parish and Ridley Parish, both in Culpeper county, Virginia, are ill-defined and hardly to be traced, and do not properly or conveniently divide the territory embracing the congregations and fields of work of these Parishes respectively. The Vestries of the said Parishes do unite in this, their petition to the Council to alter, fix, and determine the boundary lines between St. Mark's Parish and Ridley Parish, so that they shall run as follows:

Beginning at the corner of Slaughter Parish, on the Orange and Culpeper road, thence by said road to Fairview Schoolhouse, thence by the old Buck-run road to its intersection with the old Fredericksburg road, about two miles south of the Courthouse, thence by the old Fredericksburg road to the cross-roads near the western base of Mount Poney, thence by an air line to the top of Mount Poney, thence by an air line to the railroad crossing at Inlet Station, thence northerly by a new county road to its intersection with the Chestnut Fork and Brandy road, thence by an air line to the bridge on the Warrenton road, over Muddy Run, thence with Muddy Run to Hazel river, thence with Hazel river to the Rappahannock river.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

The Rev. J. R. Ellis read the report of Committee on the Widows' and Orphans' Fund.

To the Bishops, Clergy and Laity in Council assembled at Fredericksburg, Va., May 22, 1897:

Your committee, to whom was committed the report of E. B. Addison, Treasurer of the Fund of the Society for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese of Virginia, beg leave to report that they find the report correct, being sustained by proper vouchers of those now on the list.

We would suggest, however, that the treasurer should be more accurate in naming the beneficiaries, and that the list of such beneficiaries be more closely scanned by those having the authority to do so, and that those not entitled to assistance from the fund be stricken from the list. We find one, at least, not so entitled, but not knowing our power and authority in the premises, deem it best to content ourselves with calling attention to the matter.

Respectfully submitted,

J. R. ELLIS, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BRUCE FUND.

The Rev. S. S. Hepburn presented the report of the Committee on the Bruce Fund.

Your committee on the Bruce Fund beg leave to report that having examined the papers bearing upon the investments and disbursements of proceeds from that fund, they are found to be correct and accompanied by proper vouchers.

S. S. HEPBURN, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE DISABLED CLERGY FUND.

The report of the Committee on the Disabled Clergy Fund was then presented.

The Committee on the Disabled Clergy Fund beg to report that they have examined the account of the Treasurer of the Society, and find it correct and the disbursements sustained by proper vouchers.

PARNELL LEB. CROSS,
W. P. MONCURE,
Committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BROTHERHOOD.

Mr. Blackford's report, with the resolutions attached, was then taken up and adopted.

The Committee on the Brotherhood beg leave to submit the following report:

During the year ending May 1, there has been but one death among the clerical beneficiaries of the Brotherhood, the Rev. Pike Powers, D. D., on whose account collections thus far are less than $100. The Treasurer reports invested funds in his hands—two Manchester six per cent. bonds, of $500 each, and $788 81 on interest in the Citizens' Bank of Richmond. Since the division of the Diocese, one death annually seems the average in the Diocese of Virginia.

For some years past, i. e., since the resignation of Mr. D. N. Walker, the Brotherhood has been without a President and its interests have suffered accordingly. It has had no head, vacancies occurring among the corporators, have not been filled, and the existing organization has not had a fair chance. That organization, though perhaps not the best possible, does not seem to your committee one which needs to be modified, nor one which may not be again made to work well. We therefore recommend no change. The Report of Committee on Brotherhood.

Brotherhood has done great good in the past, and though it is unlikely now that the Diocese is smaller, soon to yield to its beneficiaries as much as it did in earlier years, it is capable, under energetic management, of doing far more than it has done since 1890. Your committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the Board of Trustees be requested as soon as possible to fill the vacancies existing in their number, and to designate a President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Brotherhood.

2. That immediately after such organization, the Secretary be requested to solicit of the senior warden or vestry of each parish, the nomination of a suitable person as agent of the Brotherhood, to be confirmed as such by the Trustees or President; or, in default of such recommendation, to make such nomination upon his own information.

3. That a statement of the history, character, and aims of the Brotherhood be prepared, and that the Bishop be requested, if he approve the action above mentioned, to send this report to every clergyman of the Diocese, with a request that he read it, together with this statement, to his congregation; it being understood that the printing and distribution of the same be done by the Secretary of the Brotherhood.

Respectfully submitted,

L. M. BLACKFORD,
JAMES C. LAMB,
BEVERLEY B. MUNFORD.

Rev. B. M. Randolph then offered the following:

Resolved, That we recommend Mr. L. M. Blackford, Judge J. C. Lamb, and Mr. B. B. Munford to the Board of Corporators of the Brotherhood for membership.

Carried.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAY REPRESENTATION.

Mr. Jno. M. Taylor, from a committee appointed at the last Council to consider a new plan for Lay representation, read his report.

The undersigned Committee, appointed by the last Council to consider "Whether, in their opinion, some more equitable plan of lay representation can be devised," respectively submits the following report:

Your Committee, after careful consideration of the subject and an interchange of views with many of the clergy and laity, have concluded that the best interests of the Church will be promoted and the object of the resolution under which they were appointed attained, so far as the same is expedient, by changing Section 2, of Article 2 of the Constitution and Canons, so as the same shall read as follows:

Report of Committee on Lay Representation.

SECTION 2 The Council shall also be composed of lay members, consisting of one delegate for each Parish or Church entitled to representation, chosen by the Vestry thereof, except as hereinafter provided. Every such Parish or Church having more than one officiating minister, canonically seated, shall be entitled to send as many lay delegates as it has ministers. Every such Parish or Church entitled as above to one delegate shall be entitled to an additional delegate for every one hundred communicants in excess of one hundred. And every such Parish or Church entitled to two or more delegates shall be entitled to an additional delegate for every hundred communicants in excess of two hundred. Provided, however, that such delegates from a Parish or Church having only one officiating minister canonically seated shall cast but one vote, and such delegates from a Parish or Church having more than one officiating minister canonically seated shall cast only as many votes as the number of ministers so connected with such Parish or Church. The vote or votes to which such Parish or Church shall be entitled shall be apportioned among the delegates in attendance upon the Council. In every case the delegate or delegates shall be communicants of the Church. Provided further, that only such colored delegates shall be members as are specified in Section 3 of this article."

While this amendment disturbs in no way the present arrangement which has existed so long of permitting each parish or church to cast one vote, with an additional vote for every officiating minister canonically seated in addition to one, it will bring into the Council a large number of laymen, whose efforts and offerings will greatly aid the Church in every field of its endeavor.

The Church in the Diocese is in danger of suffering from a spirit of congregationalism—the membership of the larger and wealthier churches ignorant or unmindful of the conditions of the Church at large, seem absorbed in matters which simply pertain to their own congregations, often lending but scant aid to their less prosperous sisters.

There is not a branch of church work, missions, Sunday-schools, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, or her educational institutions, which would not be benefitted by bringing more laymen into this Council. Here they learn the needs of the Church. Here they catch zeal and enthusiasm for its welfare, and from this rallying point they go back to their congregations to stimulate a new life and arouse redoubled efforts for the great cause she has in hand.

The cities in which the Council is accustomed to assemble are yearly increasing in size, its membership has been greatly reduced by the division of the Diocese; there is, therefore, no danger that the body will become too large to be cared for at its places of meeting. Even if this consideration did present some measure of difficulty, it should not be permitted to impede a change which is likely to add so much to the life and growth of our Church.

JOHN M. TAYLOR,
J. J. GRAVATT.

Sundry Resolutions, &c.

The hour having arrived for adjournment the Council, on motion, determined to sit thirty minutes longer.

Mr. Hepburn offered the following by permission of the Council:

1. That the Diocesan Missionary Committee be, and is hereby, requested to send, annually, immediately after Easter a Special Missionary from the field of the Diocese to the Theological Seminary, to present the cause of the Diocese to the students of that Institution, and that the expenses of said Missionary be paid out of the treasury of the Diocesan Missionary Society.
2. That the authorities at the Seminary be requested to make provision for such an address before the students.

Mr. B. B. Munford moved that the paper presented by Mr. J. M. Taylor be printed in the Journal; that the committee be discharged, and that the whole subject be referred to the next Council.

Carried.

The Rev. H. B. Lee offered the following resolutions which were adopted:

- Resolved.* 1. That a committee of five, three clergymen and two laymen, be appointed to consider and report to the next Council, upon the propriety of bringing the Convocations into canonical connection with the Diocese.
2. If they report in favor of such a step, that they outline a plan of organization.

The Bishop appointed the following as the committee:

Rev. H. B. Lee,
“ G. W. Nelson,
“ W. D. Smith,

Major R. T. Scott,
Mr. John G. Williams.

The Rev. Jno. McGill moved that the committee appointed at the last Council in regard to determining the boundary lines of the parishes in Fairfax county be continued, and that the name of Rev. H. F. Kloman be added to the list.

On motion of Rev. W. M. Clark, it was resolved to continue in session till 6 o'clock.

Report of Committee on Episcopal High School.

The Rev. Berryman Green read the following report:

The Committee charged with the duty of looking "into the question of making the Episcopal High School a preparatory school for the Theological Seminary," beg leave to submit the following report:

When the Episcopal High School was founded in 1839 by Bishop Meade, although designed to be, as it has always been, properly a secondary school, some teaching of a character more advanced than customary in such schools was expressly provided. The Bishop was not satisfied with the college discipline of the day, yet he desired for the youth of his Diocese, and especially for those who might go into orders, the advantage of instruction of collegiate grade. In his Diocesan school, therefore, he introduced a measure of such instruction, linked with a closer than college discipline, and during the earlier years of its existence, not a few of those who afterwards became useful and eminent clergymen received at the High School their academic preparation for the Seminary—among others, its present Dean and President.

The character of the school, it would appear, remained of this type until the rectorship of Mr. Dalrymple, during which it became as it has ever since continued, more exclusively introductory to college or business, and less directly preparatory to the study of divinity. The change, it is believed, was due not so much, if at all, to difficulty in supplying suitable higher instruction as to the impracticability of adapting to men, discipline appropriate only for boys.

It is improbable that this difficulty could ever be removed, or that young men requiring training preparatory to entering the Seminary, would ever be willing to submit to the restraints they would necessarily incur as boarders at the High School, nor does it seem expedient or desirable that they should. At the same time, there appears to your committee, should a change from the present system be determined upon, no good reason why they should not reside at the Seminary, and yet receive all their instruction in classes at the High School. In these classes now, as heretofore, most of the teaching that would be required, especially in Latin and Greek, is regularly afforded, and removes during the session for the aptest learners could be arranged. In one or more branches not now taught in the school, instruction could be easily provided, if the number desiring it were large enough to justify a moderate additional outlay. Preparatory students thus taught, might live in the Seminary exactly as they did from 1859 to 1894, and be at the High School only during hours of recitation, though seats in the study hall there for their convenience, during short intervals between classes, should be provided.

As to the expediency of making any change from the present arrangement for preparatory students, your committee declines to express opinion or offer recommendation. It appears to them that this question should be referred to another committee, including one or more members of the Seminary faculty, and one member of the Educational Society.

BERRYMAN GREEN,
P. P. PHILLIPS,
L. M. BLACKFORD.

Mr. Albert Baker invited the Council to meet next year in Christ church, Winchester, and the invitation was accepted.

The Rev. Angus Crawford offered the following, which was adopted: •

Resolved, That the desirability of making the so-called "Chicago-Lambeth Articles of Union" practical, by the necessary legislation on the part of the General Convention be referred to a committee of three appointed by the Bishop, to be reported on at the next Council.

The Bishop appointed the following as the committee: Revs. Angus Crawford, P. P. Phillips, and Mr. L. M. Blackford.

The following offered by Rev. D. C. T. Davis, President of the Convocation of the Valley of the Rappahannock, was then adopted:

Resolved, That we are deeply impressed with the need of greater spirituality in the meetings of the Councils of our Church, and therefore respectfully, but earnestly urge the Council of this Diocese to return to the old customs in regard to the religious services held during the week and on the following Sunday, and so to order the business sessions as will best conduce to this object.

E. B. BURWELL,
W. J. MORTON,
S. S. WARE,
A. B. CHINN.

The Rev. Jno. McGill, D. D., moved that the first article of the Constitution of the Diocese be altered by substituting "Tuesday" for "Wednesday."

Carried.

A motion to reconsider was then adopted.

Sundry Resolutions.

Rev. Carl E. Grammer, D. D., offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this matter of changing the day for the opening of the Council be referred to a committee of three.

The Chair appointed the following as the committee: Revs. C. E. Grammer, D. D., Jno. McGill, D. D., and D. C. T. Davis.

The time for adjournment was then postponed to 6:10 P. M.

Mr. Thos. Potts proposed the following, which was accepted:

Resolved, That this Council recommends to the Board of Trustees of the Virginia Female Institute to fill the vacancy in their Board from this Diocese, the names of George W. Oliver, of Charlottesville, and Albert Baker, of Winchester.

Rev. R. A. Goodwin offered the following, which was carried:

Resolved, That this Council approves the good work of the Virginia Bible Society, and calls attention to the fact that our form for parochial reports names the Virginia Bible Society as one of the objects for which the Council recommends an annual contribution.

The Rev. W. M. Clark offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Council extend its cordial thanks to the good people of Fredericksburg for their hospitality; to the rector and vestry of St. George's church; to its choir for their excellent music and faithful attendance on the meetings and services of the Council; to the Committee of Arrangements for their careful attention on the delegates; to the pages for their ready assistance in transacting the business of the Council; and to the several managers of the railroads and steamboat lines for their kindness and liberality in giving reduced rates on their several routes to the delegates in attendance on the Council.

After reading the minutes, singing the hymn "Blest be the tie that binds," and prayer by the President, the Council adjourned sine die.

F. M. WHITTLE, President.

REPORT OF D. F. SPRIGG—May, 1897.

Dear Bishop,—My report for last year is in parish report of Rev. Mr. Randolph, for Barton Heights. I was in charge of that church until October; also took morning services at St. Andrew's, since the death of Dr. Powers, where 17 were presented for confirmation. My main work, however, is editorial.

Report of the Virginia Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, 1897.

Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE, D. D., President ex-officio:

The seventh annual report calls to mind, in its mention of one of the "perfect numbers," that in presenting it we present the first Sabbatical term of years of the Diocesan Branch. To look back to our beginning in 1890 shows hopeful progress and positive gain over the nine parishes of the then undivided Diocese, to the present increase in the Virginia Diocese alone of fifty parish branches of the Woman's Auxiliary, twenty Junior branches, and 205 members in the Babies' branch, while it yet shows a larger field to be cultivated for the harvest of willing workers, that all our women, all our girls and boys, even the "babes" may be united in one grand missionary purpose. Slowly but surely the aim to enroll all the parishes will be gained. What we need in this "new old work" before us is, first of all, greater interest on the part of the clergy. The cordial support and guidance of our revered Bishops have been the chief source of any success, but we want no less of every clergyman.

The responsibility of spreading missionary information, rousing zeal, unlocking the treasure house of hearts, to give to missions (even to pray for them), in too many cases rests upon the women of the Auxiliary, thus withholding the privilege of unity of purpose in gifts to missions from the major part of each congregation, who, from lack of intelligent knowledge, are not roused to interest and effort. In the reports received, where the rector cares for missions, the contributions prove it, and he finds the Auxiliary a powerful factor in his work, as an organized body, so systematized that nothing is lost; so wisely administered that every mere mite goes straight to its mark.

Reverend Sirs, counsel, guide, care for us. We cannot prosper without your support and oversight, nor can we reach and touch hearts as you can with a special missionary sermon (all your own), stirring up zeal by an intelligent knowledge of missionary enterprise at home or abroad, with a corresponding keener appreciation of personal responsibility, resulting in a large increase in missionary zeal and gifts for all church work. To break down the apathy and indifference to this great cause is partly the work of the Woman's Auxiliary, but it does not wholly rest there; every baptized member of the Church is pledged to and must bear his part in the upbuilding of the spiritual temple of "living stones" in our own and foreign lands, which is being raised to the glory of God, and in loving memory of all that Christ has done for us; that some day we and they may "stand complete in Him."

Turning to the year's record, we call attention, first, to Diocesan Missions, which need the prayers and gifts of the church-women in Virginia. Their claims are recognized, and various appeals met by a cordial response, which should always mark our interest in them. The amount given to missions within the Diocese is $699.60 in money, $395.75 in boxes.

The domestic field pleads for our help, and if we need self-interest to prompt our gifts, Virginia has her own sons and daughters in the far west in Bishop Brooke and Rev. George S. Vest, with Miss Lucy Carter and Miss Garrett, our own Auxiliary women, with others dear in the bonds of Christian faith and work. The amount given to Domestic Missions is $383.81 in money; boxes valued at $681.88.

But when we turn to the foreign field, such a host of Virginia missionaries rises to view as we think of the home-band in Brazil, especially our own Miss Packard, that our hearts burn within us as we pledge anew our support and our sympathy to cheer and sustain them. To Brazil the amount given is $559.00.

And again, crossing the seas, we find ourselves linked with the dark continent through Mrs. Dr. Walrath, a Virginian by descent, and Miss Woodruff, by our yearly pledge. But when we turn to China and Japan, again what a glorious heritage of work is ours, through that noble band of consecrated Virginia men and women "who have gone in to possess the land" for us. Of these are Miss Ward and Miss Mann, devoted, faithful workers from the Auxiliary, banded with those other brave spirits of whom "time fails to tell." The amount given to China is $604.50; the amount to Japan $664.00; total $1,268.50.

Nor has the colored work in Virginia been overlooked. Here and there kind acts and gifts have cheered the workers on. The amount given is $55.

As united work, the Virginia Branch has filled its pledge of $50 to life insurance of Rev. C. Brown, of Brazil; $75 to salaries of women missionaries in China, Africa and Alaska, and $200 to train or send a Virginia girl as missionary. The four prayer days are generally observed, thus linking prayer with service in a chain that binds us to each other and closer to Him for whom we work.

To keep our record in the future, we need to be diffused in our Sunday-schools more exact knowledge of missions, to teach and train the young for their place in the Church. We ask the co-operation of the clergy in forming each school into a Junior Department, with a systematic course of instruction and missionary literature, as by their gifts they are already missionary in spirit and purpose. Their aid is most valuable now, but as nothing to what it may be as adults, if trained. To our boys we must look for a response to the ever louder call for "more laborers;" to our girls to take our place in the Auxiliary and in all mission work.

Heed our request, friends of the clergy; help us in this Junior work. We thank the Bishops for their counsel and support, we thank the clergy for all their consideration and interest; and we trust each year to do more and better work, being "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord."

VIRGINIA FEMALE INSTITUTE,
STAUNTON, VA., May, 1897.Rt. Rev. F. M. WHITTLE,President of the Board of Trustees:

Dear Sir,—As Principal of the Virginia Female Institute, it is my duty to report its condition this current session.

We have enrolled as pupils seventy names this year; of these fifty-one are boarders, nineteen day pupils. Forty-six boarders largest number present at any one time. A more satisfactory year, so far as work and conduct are concerned, we have never had. The falling off in numbers, it is thought, is entirely due to the financial troubles now existing. The health of the school has been excellent, and with a graduated nurse who takes charge of the sick and ailing, every care is given that they could have in their own homes.

Owing to the fact that there are among us only six or eight who are not communicants of our Church or some other Protestant Church—and these the younger girls—we had none to present to the Bishop for confirmation, April 11th, the time of his last visitation. A high standard of scholarship is maintained, a reasonable number reaching it, and work of a very satisfactory character is being done.

The grounds and buildings are in excellent order. The increase of comfort derived from the new boiler and system of heating has been well worth the money expended, the expense ($1,020.94) being met by the rent account.

To the Faculty thanks are due from our Church people, for more earnest Christian workers have never been known; the reputation of this school in our midst is the result. A full attendance at the "Annual Meeting" of the Board of Trustees, June 8th, is earnestly desired, and to give additional interest, the closing exercises of the school will be held the same day.

Throughout the South we hear of new schools being established, which must lead to a lessening of the patronage we have had in the past, unless new interest and effort is exerted by our own Church people to sustain this, their own Diocesan School—one of the oldest and best of schools for girls—and so situated that they can have the benefit of the purest and most desirable climate in which to develop a healthful and robust physique.

Trusting that the support of all connected with the Diocese may be given us, I am

Very respectfully,

MRS. J. E. B. STUART.

Attest:

THOMAS SPENCER, Secretary.

FROM THE DIOCESE OF SOUTHERN VIRGINIA,

TO THE DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA, GREETING:

Whereas the Almighty and All-loving Father, Who gives and Who takes away, of His great love to the Diocese of Virginia, gave to it for the office and work of a Bishop a man after His own heart, in our beloved brother, JOHN BROCKENBROUGH NEWTON; and then, of His great love for that man, took him away from his earthly labors, and gave him a higher honor and a better place in the inheritance of the saints in light—

Sundry Resolutions.

We of the Diocese of Southern Virginia send greeting of brotherly sympathy to the Diocese of Virginia, which mourns the loss of a faithful chief pastor and friend. The time is not long past when we met together as one fellowship and one Diocese. The Dioceses are severed, but the fellowship is yet one. We rejoice when you rejoice, and weep when you weep. We were glad when you gave honor to our beloved brother, three years ago. We knew the worth of him and of his work when he labored within our borders. When we were together, we loved to give him honor, and held him in our affection as a faithful friend.

We therefore bid you count us as brothers in your sorrow, and pray that when you meet to fill the place made vacant among you by his translation, God's Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule your hearts, and give you a man like minded, who will naturally care for your state.

The following resolution was then offered by the Rev. E. L. Goodwin:

Resolved, That the Rules of Order of the last Council be adopted for this Council, so far as applicable to the business which may come before it.

Carried.

The Rev. G. W. Nelson offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Council adjourn at 2 P. M. for lunch, and meet again at 3 P. M.

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin offered the following:

Resolved, That the Chair appoint a committee of five clergymen and four laymen to prepare a minute on the death of the late Bishop Newton.

Carried.

The Chair appointed the following as such committee:

Rev. R. A. Goodwin,	Mr. Joseph Bryan,
" William M. Clark,	" John G. Williams,
" C. E. Grammer,	" P. P. Nalle,
" H. B. Lee,	" Albert Baker.
" N. P. Dame,

Judge J. C. Lamb offered the following:

Bishop's Consent to Election of Bishop Coadjutor.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay to Mrs. Roberta Newton, widow of the Rt. Rev. John B. Newton, deceased, late Bishop Coadjutor, the salary of the said Bishop, and the allowance for house rent voted by the last Council; such payments to be for the period from the death of the said Bishop until the Bishop Coadjutor to be chosen at this Council shall have been consecrated.

Rev. B. M. Randolph moved to amend by adding the following:

2. Resolved, That the Council endorse the action of the Bishop and the Standing Committee in authorizing the Treasurer of the Diocese to pay the funeral expenses of the late Bishop Coadjutor.

Judge Lamb accepted the amendment, and, on motion, they were adopted.

Mr. Joseph Bryan offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Council now desires to go into the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, and requests the Bishop to state before election the duties which he will assign to said Bishop Coadjutor when elected.

The Secretary then read the following paper, prepared by the Bishop:

CONSENT OF THE BISHOP TO ELECTION OF A BISHOP COADJUTOR.

RICHMOND, VA., June 30, 1897.

As required by Title I, Canon 19, Section 5, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention, I hereby signify my consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Virginia, I being physically unable to perform the duties of my office. And I hereby assign to the Bishop Coadjutor, when duly elected and consecrated, all the Episcopal work of the Diocese which I am unable to do myself.

F. M. WHITTLE,
Bishop of Diocese of Virginia.

Judge A. W. Wallace moved that the Council proceed at once to the election.

Carried.

The Rev. N. P. Dame offered the following, which was lost:

Minute on death of Bishop Newton.

WHEREAS, We all recognize the fact that our Lord Jesus Christ has chosen a man for the vacant office of Bishop Coadjutor in His Church in this Diocese, and that our part is to seek to know His will in this matter and to elect the man of His choice—

Resolved, That when the time for the election arrives we will spend a few minutes in silent prayer, asking earnestly that our Lord will guide us to the man of His choice, and then proceed at once to ballot without nomination or speeches, referring directly or indirectly to any person, depending upon the Divine guidance to lead us aright.

The Rev. B. M. Randolph moved that the nominating speeches be limited to five minutes.

Carried.

The Council took recess till 3 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, 3 P. M.

The Council reassembled, with the Bishop in the chair.

The Rev. J. J. Gravatt offered the following, which was lost:

Resolved, That any charge preferred against any nominee for the office of Bishop Coadjutor shall first be made in writing to a committee of five clergymen, to be elected by the Council, who shall review the same and decide whether or not the charges are worthy of consideration by the Council.

MINUTE.

The committee appointed to draft a minute on the death of Bishop Newton, presented, through its Chairman, Rev. R. A. Goodwin, the following:

When we met in Council six weeks ago at Fredericksburg, our beloved Bishop Coadjutor, John B. Newton, D. D., was with us; to-day we meet to elect his successor.

We know that the "great Bishop and Shepherd of our souls" has "the keys of death," and that He is infinite in wisdom and in love. We would remember His words: "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter;" and bow in humble submission to the will of God. But we sadly miss our beloved brother and father in God, and sorrow that we will see his face no more in our homes, our churches and our councils.

We would place on record our gratitude to the Great Head of the Church for what Bishop Newton was and for what he did. The beautiful simplicity of his character; his fidelity to duty as a soldier, a physician, a pastor and a Bishop; his earnestness and power as a preacher of the gospel; his unfailing cheerfulness, kindness and manliness drew many hearts to him. Those who knew him best loved him most.

During his short term of office as Bishop, he left his impress upon the whole Diocese, as with zeal, energy and unfeigned humility he went from church to church, preaching the gospel of the grace of God. He preached Jesus Christ and Him crucified. We honored him; we loved him; we mourn his loss.

Resolved, That the Secretary send a copy of this minute to his family, and that it be published in the Southern Churchman.
